Knight Blindness Chris Karlson, 2013-07-30 Given a choice between the pleasant life you knew centuries ago or the possibility of all you want in an uncertain new world which would you choose Two men torn through time find themselves in the modern but alien world Old enemies one hunting the other one discovering love both fighting private battles to survive Book 3 of The Knights in Time Series Ready for battle Medieval English knight Stephen Palmer charges into the French enemy's cavalry line Heeding a warning given months before he hesitates as he comes face to face with the knight in the warning Struck down in the year 1356 he finds himself landing in the year 2013 Grievously wounded he's taken to a nearby hospital Confused by the new world surrounding him he attempts to convince the staff he's from another time only to find they think him mad Rescued by friends who to his surprise have also come through time he must find a way to function in this odd modern England He is quickly enchanted by the kind Esme Crippen the young woman hired to tutor him She too is enchanted by him Tempted to deepen the relationship she hesitates thinking him adorable but mad He must discover the means for getting her to believe the truth all the while unknown to him he didn't come forward in time alone The enemy knight has also traveled to 2013 French noble Roger Marchand doesn't question why the English knight who charged him hesitated That fraction of a pause gave him the advantage needed and he brought his sword down upon the Englishman's helmet hard unhorsing the knight He moved to finish the Englishman off when the world changed in a rush of sensations as he is ripped through time Seeking a reason for the terrible event he enters a nearby chapel There thinking God has chosen him for a quest to turn French defeat that day in 1356 to victory he sets out to find the English knight The man he is convinced holds the key to time If he returns to the day of the battle he can warn his king of mistakes that snatched victory from them
