The Bioregional Imagination Tom Lynch,Cheryll Glotfelty,Karla Armbruster,2012 Bioregionalism is an innovative way of thinking about place and planet from an ecological perspective Although bioregional ideas occur regularly in ecocritical writing until now no systematic effort has been made to outline the principles of bioregional literary criticism and to use it as a way to read write understand and teach literature The twenty four original essays here are written by an outstanding selection of international scholars The range of bioregions covered is global and includes such diverse places as British Columbia s Meldrum Creek and Italy s Po River Valley the Arctic and the Outback There are even forays into cyberspace and outer space In their comprehensive introduction the editors map the terrain of the bioregional movement including its history and potential to inspire and invigorate place based and environmental literary criticism Responding to bioregional tenets this volume is divided into four sections The essays in the Reinhabiting section narrate experiments in living in place and restoring damaged environments The Rereading essays practice bioregional literary criticism both by examining texts with strong ties to bioregional paradigms and by opening other less obvious texts to bioregional analysis In Reimagining the essays push bioregionalism to evolve by expanding its corpus of texts coupling its perspectives with other approaches or challenging its core constructs Essays in the Renewal section address bioregional pedagogy beginning with local habitat studies and concluding with musings about the Internet In response to the environmental crisis we must reimagine our relationship to the places we inhabit This volume shows how literature and literary studies are fundamental tools to such a reimagining Memories of the Slave Trade Rosalind Shaw, 2020-04-04 How is the slave trade remembered in West Africa In a work that challenges recurring claims that Africans felt and still feel no sense of moral responsibility concerning the sale of slaves Rosalind Shaw traces memories of the slave trade in Temne speaking communities in Sierra Leone While the slave trading past is rarely remembered in explicit verbal accounts it is often made vividly present in such forms as rogue spirits ritual specialists visions and the imagery of divination techniques Drawing on extensive fieldwork and archival research Shaw argues that memories of the slave trade have shaped and been reshaped by experiences of colonialism postcolonialism and the country's ten year rebel war Thus money and commodities for instance are often linked to an invisible city of witches whose affluence was built on the theft of human lives These ritual and visionary memories make hitherto invisible realities manifest forming a prism through which past and present mutually configure each other Voices of the Poor in Africa Elizabeth Allo Isichei, 2004 An ambitious new approach to African studies utilizing indigenous sources to bring back the voices of the native Africans in their own words rather than that of colonizers and foreigners Elizabeth Isichei explores the Atlantic slave trade as reflected in the poetics of rumour and the poetics of memory an approach different from the quantitative and demographic studies which have transformed the subject over the past twenty years To this and to her study of popular consciousness in the colony and postcolony she brings together a wide range of disciplines ethnography art and art history and contemporary literary theory among them to look at the intellectual history of Africa from African rather than European premises The result is a history of popular consciousness which shows the experiences of ordinary people often in protest to an ongoing experience of exploitation Elizabeth Isichei is Professor of Religious Studies Otago University Dunedin New Zealand and author of over a dozen books on African history and religion She holds an Oxford doctorate and a D Litt from the University of Canterbury and is a fellow of the Royal Society N Z Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea, 2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors Zombie Theory Sarah Juliet Lauro, 2017-10-15 Zombies first shuffled across movie screens in 1932 in the low budget Hollywood film White Zombie and were reimagined as undead flesh eaters in George A Romero's The Night of the Living Dead almost four decades later Today zombies are omnipresent in global popular culture from video games and top rated cable shows in the United States to comic books and other visual art forms to low budget films from Cuba and the Philippines The zombie's ability to embody a variety of cultural anxieties ecological disaster social and economic collapse political extremism has ensured its continued relevance and legibility and has precipitated an unprecedented deluge of international scholarship Zombie studies manifested across academic disciplines in the humanities but also beyond spreading into sociology economics computer science mathematics and even epidemiology Zombie Theory collects the best interdisciplinary zombie scholarship from around the world Essays portray the zombie not as a singular cultural figure or myth but show how the undead represent larger issues the belief in an afterlife fears of contagion and technology the effect of capitalism and commodification racial exclusion and oppression dehumanization As presented here zombies are not simple metaphors rather they emerge as a critical mode for theoretical work With its diverse disciplinary and methodological approaches Zombie Theory thinks through what the walking undead reveal about our relationships to the world and to each other Contributors Fred Botting Kingston U Samuel Byrnannd U of Canberra Gerry Canavan Marquette U Jeffrey Jerome Cohen George Washington U Jean Comaroff Harvard U John Comaroff Harvard U Edward P Comentale Indiana U Anna Mae Duane U of Connecticut Karen Embry Portland Community College Barry Keith Grant Brock U Edward Green Roosevelt U Lars Bang Larsen Travis Linnemann Eastern Kentucky U Elizabeth McAlister Wesleyan U Shaka McGlotten Purchase College SUNY David McNally York U Tayla Nyong o Yale U Simon Orpana U of Alberta Steven Shaviro Wayne State U Ola Sigurdson U of Gothenburg Jon Stratton U of South Australia Eugene Thacker The New School Sherryl Vint U of California Riverside Priscilla Wald Duke U Tyler Wall Eastern Kentucky U Jen Webb U of Canberra Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock Central Michigan U MODERN AND ANCIENT LITERARY THEORIES Dr. P. C. Cambodia, 2021-03-02 As breathing is essential for our life to sustain so is criticism for all types of literature to flourish It regulates and controls quality production of the literary activities It links the creators of literature to the readers It is of various types say for instance theoretical criticism practical criticism eco criticism and so on Critics of the different languages of the world have been contributing to the domain of criticism over a wide span of time period say from BC to AD They have set the yard sticks or the principles or parameters or the rules of evaluation of literature and collection of such rules is called as literary theories The present edition Modern and Ancient Literary Theories is an exhaustive critical commentary on the chosen critics of the world level We know the writers have been creating literature in almost every language which is written and read but who would keep an account of its worth It may or may not be up to the standard of quality reading and appreciation so it comes to share of critics to shoulder this responsibility to allow fine quality literature to flourish and worth less literature to sink down and for this process to administer the critics need the literary theories which this book supplies in short concise and appropriate form Besides the community of critics the collection of the literary theories is needed by the young aspirants of literary studies who want to be story writers poets dramatists novelists and the writers of the tales These guidelines of literary criticism tell them of the basic requirements with the help of which these literary genres can be composed These critical standards also sharpen their literary craftsmanship and intellectuality Every year so many college and university students prepare for their examination and they have to lay their hand on different books on literary theories but in this book sincere efforts have been done to induct the study material at one place to minimize the inconvenience that is caused to the community of the students This book is self sufficient and self explanatory to deal with the critical standards of the various critics and it will help those readers pursuing studies in the principles of criticism or literary theories The author would like to express his sincere thanks to the Publisher HORIZON BOOKS A DIVISION OF IGNITED MINDS EDUTECH PVT LTD and his friend Mr Maman Chand for motivating him to write this book and Mr Sunil Saini and Mr Nandan Singh for assisting him in the computer work to design this book Special thanks are also due to the members of the author s family who fully helped him to write this book Dr P C Cambodia

Navigating Hope Francis B. Nyamnjoh, 2025-09-23 In a world grappling with despair and aspiration Navigating Hope Cultivating Inclusive Optimism in a Complex World challenges simplistic views of optimism This groundbreaking book argues for an inclusive optimism a dynamic negotiated hope acknowledging human incompleteness and fostering relationality to mitigate the negative consequences of unequal encounters Drawing on diverse voices and lived experiences from Africa and beyond the authors explore how optimism is deeply interwoven with social realities from everyday resilience to profound theoretical underpinnings The book confronts the colonality of optimism revealing how historical power imbalances have weaponised hope leading to Afropessimism for some and cruel optimism for others Through compelling narratives of migrant struggles traditional practices and community resilience Navigating Hope invites readers to see optimism not as delusion but as a vital force for social change It calls for genuine collective hope where no one s flourishing comes at another s expense This groundbreaking and intellectually stimulating book offers inclusive optimism as a framework for understanding the nuances complexities and dilemmas related to the lived experiences and structural conditions of realising hopes and aspirations This entails epistemological inclusivity and relationality and human incompleteness as concepts to move beyond simplistic and cruel forms of optimism Karen Lauterbach Associate Professor and Director of the Centre of African Studies University of Copenhagen Denmark Visual Storytelling in the 21st Century David Callahan,2024-10-14 This volume will explore varying contemporary strategies and examples of visual storytelling across several contemporary spheres from street art to video games from media for children to media for adults from images in movement to static images It reads these storytelling venues in terms of the ethical itineraries that we live by or would like to live by or wish the world lived by In this sense it relates to the fact that the term narrative has become a ubiquitous shorthand for discursive dominance Observers of widely varying aspects of social life talk for example of changing the narrative claiming the narrative overhauling the narrative or owning the narrative While these general contexts are well known there remains a need to continually interrogate new examples of storytelling forms new cases of the uses of stories in differing formats and new stories in general This perpetual need is what this volume aims to respond to by way of its mixture of contemporary storytelling locations and exemplars

Ways of Being Free Adnan Mahmutović,2012-01-01 Iconic migrant writers such as Michael Ondaatje Salman Rushdie and Ben Okri use their fictional worlds to articulate the ways in which existential nervous conditions caused by violent postcolonial history drive individuals to rework the critical notions of freedom authenticity and community This existential thread in their works has been largely ignored or left undeveloped in criticism Although Rushdie has argued that they primarily write back to the imperial centre s in their signature novels The English Patient Midnight's Children and The Famished Road they respond to their conflicting cultural and ethnic heritages by dramatizing characters in traumatic struggles with belonging and affiliation As a way of coping with their identity crises most characters succumb to the political rhetoric of communalism The central characters however are driven by a powerful desire for self sufficiency Yet since this individualism clashes with their need for communal sharing they enact a form of creative destruction of their singular selfhood and communal identity They experience a certain plurality of singular selfhood and participate in forms of inoperative communities which elicit bonds without ties and coexistence without the necessity of a common work and essence

Africans and Globalization Oyinlola Longe,Akinloyè Òjó,Karim Traore,2017-11-22 Africans and Globalization Linguistic Literary and Technological Contents and Discontents considers the substance and dissatisfactions of globalization on Africa and its Diaspora Although variously framed across disciplines globalization has generally entailed non milieu bound interactions which alters the existence of its participants The concerns about the impact of globalization have been raised in relation to Africa and have related to the helpful and deleterious effects Increasingly industrialization without consideration of environmental impacts and westernization including erosion of indigenous values are perceived as synonymous with globalization This multidisciplinary collection contends that in theory globalization linked

Africa with the world through trade and information sharing thereby increasing development This collection provides reflections based on contemporary research within the linguistic literary and technological areas of study It illustrates that globalization is not a single process but rather a complex set of processes that seemingly operate in an oppositional manner The collected works make for exciting appraisal as they highlight some of the contents and discontents of globalization across multiple areas of human endeavor in Africa and its diaspora

Challenging Euro-America's Politics of Identity Jorge Luis Andrade Fernandes, 2008-01-07 In this fascinating book Jorge Luis Andrade Fernandes critically examines the impact of colonialism and postcolonial migration on the politics and identity of Euro American imperial powers It considers how outsiders are part of the construction of the native identity of the nation state and also how they challenge its essential coherence when they return to the centre in our increasingly globalized world Engaging in a theoretically motivated discussion of a range of sources film fiction political theory and state policy the volume traces the nomadic movement of bodies across national frontiers helping us to question any natural link between nation states and identities and between places and peoples This is not merely a theoretical problem as Fernandes relates it to the very current crisis of nativistic multicultural identity in the West He examines how politics takes shape in transnational social and cultural encounters and how this new politics is not just about containing aliens but also contains fruitful possibilities for different modes of being

Childhood in Contemporary Diasporic African Literature Christopher E. W. Ouma, 2020-02-27 This book examines the representation of figures memories and images of childhood in selected contemporary diasporic African fiction by Adichie Abani Wainaina and Oyeyemi The book argues that childhood is a key framework for thinking about contemporary African and African Diasporic identities It argues that through the privileging of childhood memory alternative conceptions of time emerge in this literature and which allow African writers to re imagine what family ethnicity nation means within the new spaces of diaspora that a majority of them occupy The book therefore looks at the connections between childhood space time and memory childhood gender and sexuality childhoods in contexts of war as well as migrant childhoods These dimensions of childhood particularly relate to the return of the memory of Biafra the figures of child soldiers memories of growing up in Cold War Africa queer boyhoods sonhood as well as experiences of migration within Africa North America and Europe

Narrating War and Peace in Africa Solimar Otero, 2010 Narrating War and Peace in Africa interrogates conventional representations of Africa and African culture mainly in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries with an emphasis on portrayals of conflict and peace While Africa has experienced political and social turbulence throughout its history more recent conflicts seem to reinforce the myth of barbarism across the continent in Nigeria Rwanda Somalia Sierra Leone Uganda Kenya Mozambique Chad South Africa Zimbabwe and Sudan The essays in this volume address reductive and stereotypical assumptions of postcolonial violence as tribal in nature and offer instead various perspectives across disciplinary boundaries that foster a less fetishized more contextualized understanding of African war peace and memory Through their geographical historical and cultural scope and diversity the chapters in Narrating War and Peace in Africa aim to challenge negative stereotypes that abound in relation to Africa in general and to its wars and conflicts in particular encouraging a shift to more balanced and nuanced representations of the continent and its political and social climates
