Inner Rhythms The Spiritual Call And Challenge Of Anger:

Political Spirituality in the Face of Climate Collapse James W. Perkinson, 2024-07-08 This book takes its motive force from our contemporary climate crisis It seeks to reorient human and especially Christian understanding towards a more ecologically focused indigenously informed way of living James W Perkinson argues that our current eco climatic and socio political emergency is the culmination of a 5 000 year history of supremacist settlement in which city states first emergent in Mesopotamia and Egypt not only begin coercively organizing labor into surplus production and ecosystems into inordinate and destructive yields of goods but in the process also simultaneously deform the Spirit World haloing of natural phenomenon into outsized service of imperial reach Perkinson recognizes globalized humanity as an emerging monstrosity destroying both human culture and the world How we re envision and revalue at our critical juncture our inescapable interdependence with the more than human world as peer and teacher and even elder is the central theme that throbs below the surface of the very disparate topics commanding attention in each chapter

The Trauma of Everyday Life Dr. Epstein, 2014-07-07 Trauma does not just happen to a few unlucky people it is the bedrock of our psychology Death and illness touch us all but even the everyday sufferings of loneliness and fear are traumatic In The Trauma of Everyday Life renowned psychiatrist and author of Thoughts Without a Thinker Mark Epstein uncovers the transformational potential of trauma revealing how it can be used for the mind's own development Epstein finds throughout that trauma if it doesn't destroy us wakes us up to both our mind's own capacity and to the suffering of others It makes us more human caring and wise It can be our greatest teacher our freedom itself and it is available to all of us Western psychology teaches that if we understand the cause of trauma we might move past it while many drawn to Eastern practices see meditation as a means of rising above or distancing themselves from their most difficult emotions Both Epstein argues fail to recognize that trauma is an indivisible part of life and can be used as a tool for growth and an ever deeper understanding of change When we regard trauma with this perspective understanding that suffering is
