Excerpt CHAPTER XXXII WE were at sea now for a very long voyage we were to pass through the entire length of the Levant through the entire length of the Mediterranean proper also and then cross the full width of the Atlantic a voyage of several weeks. We naturally settled down into a very slow stay-at-home manner of life and resolved to be quiet exemplary people and roam no more for twenty or thirty days. No more at least than from stem to stern of the ship. It was a very comfortable prospect though for we were tired and needed a long rest. We were all lazy and satisfied now as the meager entries in my note book that sure index to me of my condition prove. What a stupid thing a notebook gets to be at sea any way. Please observe the style. Sunday Services as usual at four bells. Services at night also. No cards. Monday Beautiful day but rained hard. The cattle purchased at Alexandria for beef ought to be shingled Or else fattened. The water stands in deep puddles in the depressions forward of their after shoulders. Also here and there all over their backs. It is well they are not cows it would soak in and ruin the milk. The poor devil eagle from Syria Afterwards presented to the Central Park looks miserable and droopy in the rain perched on the forward capstan. He appears to have his own opinion of a sea voyage and if it were put into language and the language solidified it would probably essentially dam the widest river in the world. Tuesday
