The Spirit and the Common Good Daniela C. Augustine, 2019-09-12 A fresh vision of the common good through pneumatological lenses Daniela C Augustine a brilliant emerging scholar offers a theological ethic for the common good Augustine develops a public theology from a theological vision of creation as the household of the Triune God bearing the image of God in a mutual sharing of divine love and justice and as a sacrament of the divine presence The Spirit and the Common Good expounds upon the application of this vision not only within the life of the church but also to the realm of politics economics and care for creation The church serves a priestly and prophetic function for society indeed for all of creation This renewed vision becomes the foundation for constructing a theological ethic of planetary flourishing in and through commitment to a sustainable communal praxis of a shared future with the other and the different While emphatically theological in its approach The Spirit and the Common Good engages readers with insights from political philosophy sociology of religion economics and ecology as well as forgiveness reconciliation and peacebuilding studies

In Kierkegaard's Garden with the Poppy Blooms Chris Boesel, 2021-07-27 Chris Boesel invites readers into a Kierkegaardian style literary conceit creating two pseudonymous voices one philosophical and deconstructive one theological and confessional in order to stage an encounter between two commentaries on Kierkegaard's Fear and Trembling On one level the contest between the two commentaries demonstrates the extent to which an encounter between deconstruction and Kierkegaard has not taken place in the one place everyone thinks it has in Derrida's reading of Fear and Trembling in The Gift of Death On a deeper level Boesel argues that Derrida's misreading of Fear and Trembling is both source and symptom of a wider problem an apophatic blind spot in deconstructive engagements with Christian theology in philosophy of religion and postmodern theology This blind spot erases the theological and ethical possibilities of what Boesel calls a Kierkegaardian confessional faith possibilities rooted in a deconstructive deconstructibility that produces its own deconstructive like effects As a corrective to this blind spot the encounter between deconstruction and Kierkegaard staged here shows how these effects do the very things heralded by self-proclaimed apophatic remedies of confessional faith disrupt human mastery over God and neighbor while calling for concrete commitments to justice for the widow orphan and stranger

Morally and Otherwise Right Lives, Education and Upbringing Kym Farrand, 2016-04-01 Morally and Otherwise Right Lives Education and Upbringing proposes a new theory concerning values This is argued to be a rationally justified evidence based theory It has one universally applicable general value under which come many specific values e g non sexism The book discusses practical applications of these values to life generally especially to morality education and other upbringing In doing so and because this education covers all areas the book also discusses politics society law peace studies health care ethics economics philosophy gender issues sexuality sexism racism environmental issues animal rights natural and social science psychology religion art music literature media and much more Applications include advocating extensive freedoms and types of democracy fairness justice equality rights responsibilities flourishing happiness and unselfish universal benevolence Emotions are argued to be important Alternative theories are criticised They are argued to lack evidence The book discusses problems with evidence one conclusion being that the theory needs to be self critical and sometimes skeptical concerning its details

Intersections of Sport and Society in Creative Writing Lee McGowan, Kasey Symons, 2023-11-18 This edited collection is positioned at the nexus of sports society and creative writing In its explorations of the intersections of sports writing analysis of literary contributions and examinations of craft it offers rare consideration of a rich diversity of form in narratives that occur in and as creative practice Included in the collection are dynamic academic investigations into football writing and poetry focused on community sporting activities in Afghanistan to those addressing the intersections of writing and boxing in the reflexive reclamation of the post trauma self the absence of women in the rodeo and who and what is represented in our sports shelves This book breaks new ground in approaches to sport s role in creative writing and what creative writing can provide in furthering our understanding of sport in society The works in this edited book draw on a diverse range of methods to interrogate the processes concepts and liminal spaces through an intersectional array of voices offering analysis and insight into the application of creative writing knowledge and practice in relation to sport and its impact on wider discipline discussion and research It is relevant to students and scholars studying and researching creative writing sports writing sports studies cultural studies and sports media studies

Luther after Derrida Marisa Strizzi, 2023-04-15 This book creatively engages Martin Luther s theology and Jacques Derrida s deconstruction in a systematic theological enterprise Guided by the general question of how to think about theology in postmodern times within a given tradition Marisa Strizzi meticulously follows deconstruction at work focusing on distinctive theological elaborations She argues that Luther s theology has a significant deconstructive drive and through the thorough reading of texts illustrates the ways in which such theology is interactive with the thought of Derrida Intersections echoes and mirrors allow a happy exchange in which the vital theological topics of Luther meet key deconstructive motifs Thus the cross the Deus absconditus scriptura fides gratia and Christo encounter khora critique the gift faith the messianic and autoimmune sovereignty Strizzi solidly sustains that the deconstructive reading of theological traditions proves to be a critical constructive way of honoring them
