The Architecture of Empire in Modern Europe Miel Groten, 2025-10-01 Empires stretched around the world but also made their presence felt in architecture and urban landscapes The Architecture of Empire in Modern Europe traces the entanglement of the European built environment with overseas imperialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries As part of imperial networks between metropole and colonies in cities as diverse as Glasgow Hamburg or Paris numerous new buildings were erected such as factories mission houses offices and museums These sites developed into the physical manifestations of imperial networks As Europeans designed used and portrayed them these buildings became meaningful imperial places that conveyed the power relations of empire and Eurocentric self images Engaging with recent debates about colonial history and heritage this book combines a variety of sources an interdisciplinary approach and an international scope to produce a cultural history of European imperial architecture across borders

Arrival Neighborhoods in Europe since the mid-19th Century David Templin, 2024-08-26 This book uses the concept of arrival spaces to examine the relationship between migration processes social infrastructures and the transformation of urban spaces in Europe since the mid 19th century Case studies cover cities from London to Palermo and from Antwerp to St Petersburg including both metropolises and small towns The chapters examine the emergence of settlement patterns the functioning of arrival infrastructures and the public representations of neighborhoods which have been shaped by internal or international migrations By understanding these neighborhoods as spaces of arrival and as infrastructural hubs this volume offers a new perspective on the profound impact of migration on European cities in modern and contemporary history This volume makes a valuable contribution to both migration research and urban history and will be of interest to researchers and students studying the relationship between cities and migration in Europe's past and present "Millionendorf" und "Weltstadt mit Herz" Anna Kurzhals, 2018
