Hard Boiled Masculinities Hard Boiled Masculinities:

Hard-boiled Masculinities Christopher Breu, 2005 The persona of the American male in the period between the two world wars was characterized by physical strength emotional detachment aggressive behavior and an amoral worldview This ideal of a hard boiled masculinity can be seen in the pages and even more vividly on the covers of magazines such as Black Mask which shifted from Victorian influenced depictions of men in top hats and mustaches in the early 1920s to the portrayal of much more overtly violent and muscular men Looking closely at this transformation Christopher Breu offers a complex account of how and why hard boiled masculinity emerged during an unsettled time of increased urbanization and tenuous peace and traces the changes in its cultural conception as it moved back and forth across the divide between high and low culture as well as the color line that bifurcated American society Examining the work of Ernest Hemingway Dashiell Hammett Chester Himes and William Faulkner as well as many lesser known writers for the hypermasculine pulp magazines of the 1920s and 1930s Breu illustrates how the tough male was a product of cultural fantasy one that shored up gender and racial stereotypes as a way of lashing out at the destabilizing effects of capitalism and social transformation Christopher Breu is assistant professor of English at Illinois State University Hard Boiled Masculinities Christopher Breu, 2000

Hard Boiled Masculinities Christopher Breu, 2000 Food, Consumption, and Masculinity in American Hardboiled Fiction Marta Usiekniewicz, 2023-07-12 Food Consumption and Masculinity in American Hardboiled Fiction draws on three related bodies of knowledge crime fiction criticism masculinity studies and the cultural analysis of food and consumption practices from a critical eating studies perspective In particular this book focuses on food as an analytical category in the study of tough masculinity as represented in American hardboiled fiction Through an examination of six American novels Dashiell Hammett's The Maltese Falcon Raymond Chandler's The Big Sleep Leigh Brackett's No Good from a Corpse Dorothy B Hughes's In a Lonely Place Jim Thompson's The Killer Inside Me and Rex Stout's Champagne for One this book shows how these novels reflect the gradual process of redefining consumption and consumerism in America which traditionally has been coded as feminine Marta Usiekniewicz shows that food and eating also reflect power relations and larger social and economic structures connected to class gender geography sexuality and ability to name just a few Criminal Femmes Fatales in American Hardboiled Crime Fiction Maysaa Husam Jaber, 2016-02-02 This book fills a gap in both literary and feminist scholarship by offering the first major study of femme fatales in hardboiled crime fiction Maysaa Jaber shows that the criminal literary figures in the genre open up powerful spaces for imagining female agency in direct opposition to the constraining forces of patriarchy and misogyny Thomas Pynchon, Sex, and Gender Ali Chetwynd, Joanna Freer, Georgios Maragos, 2018-11-15 Thomas Pynchon's fiction has been considered masculinist misogynist phallogocentric and pornographic its formal experimentation irony and ambiguity have been taken both to complicate such judgments and to be parts of the problem To the present day deep critical divisions persist as to whether Pynchon's representations of women are sexist feminist or reflective of a more general misanthropy whether his writing of sex is boorishly pornographic or effectually transgressive whether queer identities are celebrated or mocked and whether his departures from realist convention express masculinist elitism or critique the gendering of genre Thomas Pynchon Sex and Gender reframes these debates As the first book length investigation of Pynchon s writing to put the topics of sex and gender at its core it moves beyond binary debates about whether to see Pynchon as liberatory or conservative instead examining how his preoccupation with sex and gender conditions his fiction s whole worldview The essays it contains which cumulatively address all of Pynchon s novels from V 1963 to Bleeding Edge 2013 investigate such topics as the imbrication of gender and power sexual abuse and the writing of sex the gendering of violence and the shifting representation of the family Providing a wealth of new approaches to the centrality of sex and gender in Pynchon s work the collection opens up new avenues for Pynchon studies as a whole needed investigation into how crime and detection have been and will be represented within Canada's national literature with an attention to contemporary popular and literary texts The book draws together a representative set of established Canadian authors who would appear in most courses on Canadian crime and detective fiction while also introducing a few authors less established in the field Ultimately the book argues that crime fiction is a space of enormously productive hybridity that offers fresh new approaches to considering questions of national identity gender race sexuality and even genre

A Taste of Power Katharina Vester, 2015-10-02 Since the founding of the United States culinary texts and practices have played a crucial role in the making of cultural identities and social hierarchies A Taste of Power examines culinary writing and practices as forces for the production of social order and at the same time points of cultural resistance Culinary writing has helped shape dominant ideas of nationalism gender and sexuality suggesting that eating right is a gateway to becoming an American a good citizen an ideal man or a perfect wife and mother In this brilliant interdisciplinary work Katharina Vester examines how cookbooks became a way for women to participate in nation building before they had access to the vote or public office for Americans to distinguish themselves from Europeans for middle class authors to assert their class privileges for men to claim superiority over women in the kitchen and for lesbian authors to insert themselves into the heteronormative economy of culinary culture A Taste of Power engages in close reading of a wide variety of sources and genres to uncover the intersections of food politics and privilege in American culture The Cambridge Companion to the Twentieth-Century

Representations of Masculinity in Literature and Film Sara Martín, 2020-09-11 How are men represented on the printed page the stage and the screen What do these representations say about masculinity in the past the present and the future The twelve essays in this volume explore the different ways in which men and masculinity have been represented from the plays of William Shakespeare to the science fiction of Richard K Morgan passing through classic fiction by Emily Brontë and Charles Dickens and popular favourites by Terry Pratchett and Isaac Asimov without forgetting the Star Wars saga Collectively these essays argue that although much has been written about men it has been done from a perspective that does not see masculinity as a specific feature in need of critical appraisal Men need to be made aware of how they are represented in order to alter the toxic patriarchal models handed down to them and even break the extant binary gender models For that it is important that men distinguish patriarchy from masculinity as is done here and form anti patriarchal alliances with each other and with women This book is then an invitation to men's liberation from patriarchy by raising an awareness of its crippling constraints A Companion to Twentieth-Century United States Fiction

Masculinity in Anglophone Literature and Culture Sara Martín,M. Isabel Santaulària,2023-03-07 This edited volume rethinks Masculinity Studies by breaking away from the notion of the perpetual crisis of masculinity It argues that not enough has been done to distinguish patriarchy from masculinity and proposes to detox masculinity by offering a collection of positive representations of men in fictional and non fictional texts The editors show how ideas of hegemonic and toxic masculinity have been too fixed on the exploration of dominance and subservience and too little on the men and the male characters in fiction who behave following other ethical personal and socially accepted patterns Bringing together research from different periods and genres this collection provides broad multidisciplinary insights into alternative representations of masculinity Modern Sentimentalism Lisa Mendelman,2019 Modern Sentimentalism discusses how the iconic modern woman as presented in interwar American literature It reveals how this literary figure carries the weight of sentiment and how the question of feminine feeling is central to modernism s preoccupations and styles Globalization and the State in Contemporary Crime Fiction Andrew Pepper,David Schmid,2016-09-23 Why has crime fiction become a global genre How do writers use crime fiction to reflect upon the changing nature of crime and policing in our contemporary world This book argues that the globalization of crime fiction should not be celebrated uncritically Instead it looks at the new forms and techniques writers are using to examine the crimes and policing practices that define a rapidly changing world In doing so this collection of essays examines how the relationship between global crime capitalism and policing produces new configurations of violence in crime fiction and asks whether the genre can find ways of analyzing and even opposing such violence as part of its necessarily limited search for justice both within and beyond the state
