Deanna Fong, Cole Mash

Handholding 5 Kinds Tracie Morris:

Handholding Tracie Morris, 2016 Handholding 5 kinds is a collection of experimental poetry and critical writing. It is a creative response to 5 artistic works by innovative American African diaspora and European based artists: work by Kurt Schwitters, Ursonate recited by his son Ernst Gertrude Stein's Tender Buttons, John Akomfrah's 7 Songs for Malcolm X, John Cage's 4 33 and Stanley Kubrick's Eyes Wide Shut. The contents address undertones and overtones of race, sexuality, class, gender, ethnicity, power, and art making. The collection contains experimental text as well as digital download codes to five audio pieces. One is a real time response to the Kubrick film, the other is a collection of sound pieces inspired by the other artists' often recitations of the page based texts. This is the first text and sound collection of Tracie Morris that is comprised of exclusively experimental work inspired by other innovative artists. The Kinds of Poetry I Want Charles

Bernstein, 2024-11-28 A celebration of the radical poetics of invention from Charles Bernstein. For more than four decades Charles Bernstein has been at the forefront of experimental poetry ever reaching for a radical poetics that defies schools, periods, and cultural institutions. The Kinds of Poetry I Want is a celebration of invention and includes not only poetry but also essays on aesthetics and literary studies, interviews with other poets, autobiographical sketches, and more. At once a dialogic novel, long poem, and grand opera, The Kinds of Poetry I Want arrives amid renewed attacks on humanistic expression. In his polemical, humorous style, Bernstein faces these challenges head on and affirms the enduring vitality and attraction of poetry, poetics, and literary criticism. Orphic Bend Robert L. Zamsky, 2021-08-10 Opera poetics and the fate of humanism. Ezra Pound and Charles Bernstein Measure then is my testament. Robert Creeley and the poet's music. Orpheus in the garden. John Taggart Eurydice takes the mic improvisation and ensemble in the work of Tracie Morris. Orphic bend music and meaning in the work of Nathaniel Mackey. Lit-Rock Ryan Hibbett, 2022-08-11 Just as soon as it had got rolling, rock music had a problem: it wanted to be art. A mere four years separate the Beatles as mere kiddy culture from the artful geniuses of Sergeant Pepper's meaning the very same band who represents the mass consumed, mindless music of adolescents simultaneously enjoys status as among the best that Western culture has to offer. The story of rock music it turns out is less that of a contagious popular form situated in opposition to high art but rather a story of high and low in dialogue, messy and contentious to be sure but also mutually obligated to account for if not appropriate one another. The chapters in this book track the uses of literature specifically within this relation helping to showcase collectively its fundamental role in the emergence of the pop omnivore. Resistant Practices in Communities of Sound Deanna Fong, Cole Mash, 2024-07-15

Print and by extension, visuality has historically dominated the literary, artistic, and academic spheres in Canada; however, scholars and artists have become increasingly attuned to the creative and scholarly opportunities offered by paying attention to sound. Resistant Practices in Communities of Sound turns to a particular opportunity interrogating the ways that sonic practices act as forms of aesthetic and political dissent. Chapters explore on the one hand critical methods of engaging with sound particularly bodies of literary and artistic work in their specific materiality as read recited performed mediated archived and remixed objects on the other hand they also engage with creative practices that mobilize sound as a political aesthetic taking on questions of identity racialization ability mobility and surveillance Divided into nine pairings that bring together works originating in oral aural forms with works originating in writing the book explores the creative and critical output of leading sonic practitioners It showcases diverse approaches to the equally complex formations of sound resistance and community bridging the too often separate worlds of the practical and the academic in generative resonant dialogue Combining the oral and the written the creative and the critical and the mediated and the live Resistant Practices in Communities of Sound asks us to attune ourselves as listeners as well as readers

Rough Notes to Erasure Dolsy Smith, 2020-04-23 We are living through the wrack of the White Male As the compact between social hierarchy inherited privilege and race reinforced by gender and other normative categories shows signs of buckling his rage and resentment threaten us all For he is a thing possessed possessed by his own love of possession and born to a sense that the world belongs to him and him alone The spoils of oppression lie coiled inside him a glut he can't digest and murder beckons behind the respect that he conceives of as his due A hybrid of critical essay and memoir and Rough Notes to Erasure contributes to a growing body of work that wrestles with the tacit and embodied nature of privilege and prejudice and it contributes not only via argument but also through style Taking inspiration from feminist queer poetics and what Fred Moten calls the black avant garde these rough notes address the remainder that gets lost in explicit argument which is the flesh Where privilege roils through history and empire whets the appetites But also where the world catches on its own fractalization by thought feeling and desire and language recovers for a moment or two the power to entangle us with our mother tongue

Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert, 2022-04-05 An examination of a series of diverse radical and experimental international works from the 1950s to the present What is a literary work In Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert tackles this question by deploying an extended concept of literature examining a series of diverse radical experimental works from the 1950s to the present that occupy the liminal zone between art and literature These works by American Artist Allison Parrish Natalie Czech Stephanie Syjuco Fiona Banner Elfriede Jelinek Dan Graham Robert Barry George Brecht and others represent a pluralized literary practice that imagines a different literature emerging from its elsewheres Investigating a work's coming into being its transition from text to work as a social object and pragmatic category of literary communication Gilbert probes the assumptions and foundations that underpin literature including the ideologies and power structures that prop it up She offers a snapshot from a period of recent literary and art history when such central concepts as originality and authorship were questioned and experimental literary practices ranged from concrete poetry and Oulipo to conceptual writing and appropriation literature She examines works that are dematerialized site specific unique copies of other works and institutional critiques Considering the inequalities exclusions and privileges inscribed in literature she documents the power of experimental literature to attack these norms and challenges the field's canonical geographic boundaries by examining artists with roots in North and South America East Asia and Western and Eastern Europe The cross pollination of literary and art criticism enriches both fields With Literature's Elsewheres Gilbert explores what art can't see about the literary and what literature has overlooked in the arts
