Woman's Heart for God Sheila Cragg, 2025-04-08 Sheila Cragg knows of what she writes She is the primary caregiver to her disabled and ailing husband and has also experienced some of life's deepest setbacks But through all of those circumstances she has drawn increasingly closer to the Lover of her soul and developed a rich devotional lifestyle that she admits would never have happened otherwise In A Woman's Heart for God Cragg shares her own life experiences and provides scriptural insights creative ideas and interactive questions to help readers tailor their times with Him whatever their circumstances pinpointing how to remove any obstacles that are keeping them from intimacy with Christ Language in Hand William C. Stokoe, 2001 Integrating current findings in linguistics semiotics and anthropology Stokoe fashions a closely reasoned argument that suggests how our human ancestors powers of observation and natural hand movements could have evolved into signed morphemes Catalog of Educational Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf, 1990 The Deaf Community in America Melvia M. Nomeland, Ronald E. Nomeland, 2011-12-22 The deaf community in the West has endured radical changes in the past centuries This work of history tracks the changes both in the education of and the social world of deaf people through the years Topics include attitudes toward the deaf in Europe and America and the evolution of communication and language Of particular interest is the way in which deafness has been increasingly humanized rather than medicalized or pathologized as it was in the past Successful contributions to the deaf and non deaf world by deaf individuals are also highlighted Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

A Mighty Change Christopher Krentz, 2000 I need not tell you that a mighty change has taken place within the last half century a change for the better Alphonso Johnson the president of the Empire State Association of Deaf Mutes signed to hundreds of assembled deaf people in 1869 Johnson pointed to an important truth the first half of the 19th century was a period of transformation for deaf Americans a time that saw the rise of deaf education and the coalescence of the nation's deaf community This volume contains original writing by deaf people that both directed and reflected this remarkable period of change It begins with works by Laurent Clerc the deaf Frenchman who came to the United States in 1816 to help found the first permanent school for deaf students in the nation Partially through his writing Clerc impressed hearing Americans most of whom had never met an educated deaf person before with his intelligence and humanity Other deaf writers shared their views with society through the democratic power of print Included here are selections by James Nack a deaf poet who surprised readers with his mellifluous verse John Burnet who published a book of original essays fiction and poetry Edmund Booth a frontiersman and journalist John Carlin who galvanized the drive for a national college for deaf people Laura Redden a high achieving student who would go on to become an accomplished reporter and Adele Jewel a homeless deaf woman living in Michigan The final sections contain documents related to deaf events and issues at mid century the grand reunion of alumni of the American Asylum for the Deaf in 1850 the dedication of the Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet monument in Hartford the debate over the viability of a deaf state and the triumphant inauguration of the National Deaf Mute College now

Gallaudet University in 1864 which in many ways culminated this period of change Taken together the individual texts in this remarkable collection provide a valuable historical record and a direct glimpse of the experiences attitudes and rhetoric of deaf Americans during this time of change Hand Talk Jeffrey E. Davis,2010-07-29 Describes a unique case of sign language that served as an international language among numerous Native American nations not sharing a common spoken language The book contains the most current descriptions of all levels of the language from phonology to discourse as well as comparisons with other sign languages Harper's Weekly John Bonner,George William Curtis,Henry Mills Alden,Samuel Stillman Conant,Montgomery Schuyler,John Foord,Richard Harding Davis,Carl Schurz,Henry Loomis Nelson,John Kendrick Bangs,George Brinton McClellan Harvey,Norman Hapgood,1888 Proceedings of the 11th Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf American Instructors of the Deaf,1887 Keepers of Life Michael J. Caduto,Joseph Bruchac,1998 This interdisciplinary curriculum in botany and plant ecology focuses on environmental and stewardship issues using the framework of Native American stories as an introduction to the topics Aspects of Language Dwight Bolinger,1975

Lytle,1993 The central concern of Inside Outside is the assumption that pedagogical knowledge is generated outside in that is from the university to be applied at schools The first half provides a thoughtful conceptual framework for reading and understanding teacher research exploring its history potential and relationship to university based research In the second half the voices of teacher researchers contrast engage and combine as contributors explore the meaning and significance of their approaches and findings These authors enter into the national conversation about school reform teacher professionalism multicultural curriculum and pedagogy and language and literacy education Axonal Conduction Time and Human Cerebral Laterality Robert Miller,2019-11-11 This book takes a new and up to date look at the prominent theory that the left hemisphere is specialised for representing patterns extended in time whereas the right hemisphere represents simultaneous or spatial patterns What makes it unique in the field is that it looks at this theory from a neurobiological basis It suggests that the difference resides in the range of conduction times in the axons connecting different regions of the cortex in each hemisphere This hypothesis is discussed with respect to theoretical models of brain dynamics and both gross and microscopic structure of the hemispheres It deals with the psychological implications of the hypothesis for higher functions of the human cerebrum and outlines testable implications wherever possible Dance and Belonging Crystal U. Davis, 2022-12-30 This book details how bias affects the brain perception and decision making and identifies how these factors affect the field of dance It applies social psychology to the events communities and teaching strategies in dance classrooms of all sizes and age ranges Using critical theory as a framework chapters define implicit biases and explore the power dynamics on and off the dance floor Various examples of bias in dance education are examined in detail as are the ramifications of prejudice and inequity The book sets out the mechanisms that both exacerbate and disrupt the effects of biases ultimately exploring practiced solutions for addressing bias in the dance classroom It is intended to inspire dance students teachers administrators and arts stakeholders to begin new conversations that will allow dance classrooms to become more welcoming inclusive spaces The Tonalamatl of the Aubin Collection ,1901
