Handwashing Activity Cut Glue:

Covering Coughs and Washing Hands Kathy Etringer, 2010-09-01 It's never too early to teach children manners, courtesy, and social skills. From knowing when to say please and thank you at home, in school, or in public places to covering their nose when sneezing, there's a multitude of good manners to teach children at an early age. A popular children's book title is included with each activity to enhance the lesson. These engaging hands-on activities are a great way to introduce students to skills they will use for the rest of their lives. Mrs. E's Extraordinary Manners, Courtesy and Social Skills Activities Kathy Etringer, 2010-09-01 Lessons that teach basic manners and social skills including being grateful, complimenting others, coughing and sneezing, good sportsmanship, having a good attitude, lining up, listening, please and thank you, table manners, tolerance, and understanding, and many, many more. Pathways With Purpose Sarah J. Royer, 2018-08-21 When I started thinking about building a Faith-based curriculum for the early childhood classroom, my goal was to create a curriculum that would catch the interest of children 0-5. Kindergarten. See, I have worked in the early childhood classroom for almost two decades, and while the goal is at the heart of the curriculum, I have used the interest it has sparked in our young ones. It's mild and dulled down at best. How can we best instill an excitement to learn in our young ones? By making the material and manipulatives hands-on and exciting. I don't mean by reading a story and pulling out paper puppets on craft sticks, although this may be what some children like and want to explore. What I mean is presenting values and morals in an explorative manner in conjunction with developmentally appropriate learning standards that help engage your students in learning experiences while getting them excited. Including stories and sensory materials, story buckets, role playing with dress-up materials, including a variety of mixed media to spark your student's interests, is absolutely necessary. Create an environment that appeals to learners of various ages, backgrounds, and learning styles. Make your lesson times fun and interesting, and your learners will gravitate back for more.
