denigrating Chinese philosophy he argues that liberating these texts from the mythic idea that they are the product of a single great mind only improves our understanding and appreciation By no means does a text require single and undisputed authorship to be meaningful nor is historicism the only legitimate interpretive stance The first chapter takes up a hallmark of Chinese philosophy that demands a Western reader's cognizance its preference for non deductive argumentation Chinese philosophy is an art hence the title he demonstrates more than it is a rigorous logical method Then comes the core of the book eight chapters devoted to the eight philosophical texts divided into three parts Philosophy of Heaven Philosophy of the Way and Two Titans at the End of an Age
