Handbook For Arabic Language Teaching Professionals In The 21st Century:

Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century Kassem Wahba, Zeinab A. Taha, Liz England, 2014-06-03 This landmark volume offers an introduction to the field of teaching Arabic as a foreign or second language. Recent growth in student numbers and the demand for new and more diverse Arabic language programs of instruction have created a need that has outpaced the ability of teacher preparation programs to provide sufficient numbers of well qualified professional teachers at the level of skill required. Arabic language program administrators anticipate that the increases in enrollment will continue into the next decades. More resources and more varied materials are seriously needed in Arabic teacher education and training. The goal of this Handbook is to address that need. The most significant feature of this volume is its pioneer role in approaching the field of Arabic language teaching from many different perspectives. It offers readers the opportunity to consider the role, status and content of Arabic language teaching in the world today. The Handbook is intended as a resource to be used in building Arabic language and teacher education programs and in guiding future academic research. Thirty four chapters authored by leaders in the field are organized around nine themes: Background of Arabic Language Teaching; Contexts of Arabic Language Teaching; Communicative Competence in Arabic; The Learners; Assessment; Technology Applications; Curriculum Development; Design and Models; Arabic Language Program Administration and Management; and Planning for the Future of Arabic Language Learning and Teaching. The Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century will benefit and be welcomed by Arabic language teacher educators and trainers, administrators, graduate students and scholars around the world. It is intended to create dialogue among scholars and professionals in the field and in related fields; dialogue that will contribute to creating new models for curriculum and course design; materials and assessment tools; and ultimately better instructional effectiveness for all Arabic learners everywhere in both Arabic speaking and non Arabic speaking countries. Handbook for Arabic

Wahba, Liz England, Zeinab A. Taha, 2017-07-06. Drawing on the collective expertise of language scholars and educators in a variety of subdisciplines, the Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century Volume II provides a comprehensive treatment of teaching and research in Arabic as a second and foreign language worldwide. Keeping a balance among theory, research and practice, the content is organized around 12 themes: Trends and Recent Issues in Teaching and Learning Arabic; Social, Political and Educational Contexts of Arabic Language Teaching and Learning; Identifying Core Issues in Practice; Language Variation; Communicative Competence and Using Frames in Arabic Language Teaching and Learning; Arabic Programs: Goals, Design and Curriculum; Teaching and Learning Approaches: Content Based Instruction and Curriculum; Arabic Teaching and Learning Classroom Language Materials and Language Corpora; Assessment, Testing and Evaluation; Methodology of Teaching Arabic Skills and Components; Teacher Education and Professional Development; Technology Mediated Teaching and Learning; Future Directions. The field faces new challenges since the publication of Volume I, including increasing and diverse demands, motives and needs for learning Arabic across various contexts of use, a need for accountability and academic research given the growing recognition of the complexity and diverse contexts of teaching Arabic and an increasing shortage of and need for quality of instruction. Volume II addresses these challenges. It is designed to generate a dialogue continued from Volume I among professionals in the field leading to improved practice and to facilitate interactions not only among individuals but also among educational institutions within a single country and across different countries. Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language Andrea Facchin, 2025-10-01. Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language concentrates on the origins, developments and current directions of the discipline Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language (TAFL) within the Arab world and partially outside of it during the last 60 years namely between 1958 and 2018 Considered in this volume are the most influential scholars authors educators and those significant works that have contributed to the development of the discipline In addition special attention is paid to the TAFL institutes regarded as epicenters of TAFL activities and important meetings that allow scholars to gather around the same table and discuss approaches trends and methods used in the field All of these aspects converge in one comprehensive study which is enriched by a narration of the main sociopolitical changes that have affected the Middle East in latter day history Arabic as One Language Mahmoud Al-Batal,2017-12-04 For decades students learning the Arabic language have begun with Modern Standard Arabic MSA and then transitioned to learning spoken Arabic While the MSA first approach neither reflects the sociolinguistic reality of the language nor gives students the communicative skills required to fully function in Arabic the field continues to debate the widespread adoption of this approach Little research or evidence has been presented about the effectiveness of integrating dialect in the curriculum With the recent publication of textbooks that integrate dialect in the Arabic curriculum however a more systematic analysis of such integration is clearly becoming necessary In this seminal volume Mahmoud Al Batal gathers key scholars who have implemented integration to present data and research on the method s success The studies address curricular models students outcomes and attitudes of students and teachers using integration in their curricula This volume is an essential resource for all teachers of Arabic language and those working in Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language TAFL

Perceptions of Developing Cultural Awareness of First-level High School Arabic Language Learners Nabila Hammami,Ashraf Esmail,2013-12-06 This book analyzes how Arabic teachers develop the cultural awareness of their high school students Featuring face to face conversations with educators about integrating Arabic culture into the language classroom this study highlights the complexities that characterize Arabic cultural awareness in a post 9 11 world This book proves that increasing cultural awareness in the classroom facilitates the Arab language learning process

Teaching and Learning Arabic Grammar Kassem M. Wahba,Zeinab A. Taha,Manuela E. B. Giolfo,2022-12-30 Foundational and comprehensive this volume provides a theoretical and practical overview of the current issues that dominate the field of teaching and learning Arabic grammar Bringing together authorities on Arabic grammar from around the world the book covers both historical contexts and current practices and provides principles strategies and examples of current Arabic grammar instruction across educational settings Chapter authors offer a range of perspectives on teaching approaches implementing research findings in the classroom and future challenges A much needed volume to help students teachers and teacher educators develop their knowledge and skills it addresses the most salient and controversial issues in the field including what grammar to teach how much grammar to teach how to address grammar in content based or communication based classroom and how to teach variation in grammar This resource is ideal for preservice Arabic language teachers as well as Arabic language professors and researchers

Contents and Methods for Teaching Spoken Arabic Lombezzi, Letizia,2020-02-06 Este libro proporciona un marco te rico

y diversas pautas para aplicar la dialectología a la enseñanza situándose en el ámbito de la lingüística aplicada. El desafío radica en llevar la dialectología más allá de la investigación descriptiva. Por qué hay que promocionar el árabe hablado. Cómo pueden los alumnos convertirse en hablantes. Podemos diseñar plantillas morfológicas aplicables a diferentes variedades. El trabajo responde a todo ello a través de sus siete capítulos y proporciona cuatro planes didácticos basados en teorías e investigaciones actualizadas.

Arabic Genre Pedagogy Myriam Abdel-Malek, 2023-08-02. Arabic Genre Pedagogy: Teaching, Learning and Assessing in Context views Modern Standard Arabic and all spoken varieties of Arabic as one system and offers genre-based instructional resources grounded in systemic functional linguistics (SFL) and genre theory. Divided into three parts, this book explores the Theoretical and Instructional Framework, Spoken Genres and Written Genres, with chapters focusing on everyday social genres including exchanging information, chat and complaints. This book is aligned with the ACTFL framework and the instructional goals for each genre are articulated in terms of the ACTFL Can Do Statements. Designed to support instructors of Arabic novice/intermediate learners, the chapters offer step-by-step lessons with practical classroom activities on how to make the language related to each genre explicit to students. Arabic Genre Pedagogy serves as a valuable guide and professional development resource for instructors of Arabic as a world language and for researchers of SFL informed genre-based approach.

Case Method and the Arabic Teacher Steven Berbeco, 2018-11-15. Case Method and the Arabic Teacher: A Practical Guide compiles original case studies that address the unique challenges of teaching Arabic at the high school level. The book's engaging and accessible classroom scenarios reflect the experiences of a diverse group of Arabic teachers working in a variety of educational settings ranging from elite private schools to large public schools with low-income student populations. In the case studies, teachers offer compelling accounts of the political, institutional and curricular issues they encountered not only in their classrooms but also in their wider schools and communities. Combining research-based methodology with firsthand pedagogical narratives, this book is a valuable resource for teachers, teacher trainers, researchers and other stakeholders who support the teaching of Arabic.

The Arabic Classroom Mbaye Lo, 2019-04-12. The Arabic Classroom is a multicontributor work for trainee and in-service teachers of Arabic as a foreign language. Collected here is recent scholarly work and also critical writing from Arabic instructors, Arabists and language experts to examine the status of the teaching and learning of Arabic in the modern classroom. The book stresses the inseparability of the parameters of contexts, texts and learners in the effective Arabic classroom and investigates their role in enhancing the experience of teaching and learning Arabic. The book also provides a regional perspective through global case studies and encourages Arabic experts to search for better models of instruction and best practices beyond the American experience.

Arabizi as a Learning and Teaching Resource Zinnia Shweiry, 2025-01-23. This book is the first of its genre to explore the use of Arabizi, the Romanized script of the Arabic language that is used online or in chat apps in the Arabic as a Foreign Language (AFL) classroom. It fills a noticeable and glaring gap in teaching a non-Romanized language.

through Romanized representation by observing and studying Arabizi as a resource that is yet to be acknowledged. As such, the author aptly and concurrently addresses concerns and problems that arise in AFL learning. An essential resource for studies in language acquisition, the author carves a new niche in the study of phonology and phonetics, particularly so in L1 and L2 studies with succinct and up-to-date examples. Relevant to applied linguistics and language educators in Arabic, it also draws comparisons between Chinese and Arabic alphabets in analyzing L1 and L2 purposes, making it a unique linguistic comparative contribution to the study of languages in classroom settings.

Trends and Developments for the Future of Language Education in Higher Education Xiang, Catherine Hua, 2021-06-25

Language education tends to require more face-to-face interaction and longer hours of both teaching and learning. The challenges of ensuring the future and development of the discipline, especially after a time of crisis, is equally unprecedented. A comprehensive overview of the global picture of best practices as well as research in recent times are needed in the field of language education, particularly in higher education settings. The changing nature of language education in terms of its policy, curriculum design, methodology, and innovation is an essential discussion to advance the field. It is critical to explore how a more collaborative global and interdisciplinary mindset, as well as technologically driven approaches, have emerged through recent years and how it will continue to shape the future development in the field.

Trends and Developments for the Future of Language Education in Higher Education captures the current trends and ongoing development within language education through a global picture of the best practices as well as the latest research on language education in higher education settings. The chapters cover changes in policy, curriculum design, methodology, and innovation in the modern language education landscape. While focusing on the current situation of language education and the changes that it has been undergoing, this book also provides information on future development and the overall outlook of language education. This book is ideal for teachers, instructional designers, curricula developers, inservice and preservice teachers, administrators, teacher educators, practitioners, researchers, academicians, and students looking for an overview of the current position of language education in higher education.

Middle East Studies after September 11 Tugrul Keskin, 2018-05-07

Middle East Studies after September 11: Neo-Orientalism, American Hegemony, and Academia will show the long-term implications of current approaches to Middle East scholarship on the internal transformation of Middle Eastern societies. It describes the complex relationship between American academia and state government, a relationship which has influenced and restructured the state, society, and politics in the Middle East as well as in the United States. It engages the disciplines of Sociology, Political Science, Anthropology, History, and International Studies while maintaining the epistemological, methodological, and ontological insights of a sociological approach to the Middle East.
