Half A Life A Memoir:

Half a Life Jill Ciment, 2015-06-17 Jill Ciment weaves an unforgettable tale of survival compassion and courage in this haunting recollection of a child surrounded by confusion and madness and her struggle to find an identity Half a Life traces Jill Ciment's family from Toronto to the California desert a landscape and culture so alien to her father that the last vestiges of sanity leave him As madness engulfs him he becomes increasingly brutal and the family grasping at survival throws him out the door Having no understanding that he has done anything wrong he first lives in his car at the end of the driveway waiting to be invited back in before exiting completely from their lives Poor and fatherless Ciment spends the years from age fourteen to seventeen as a gang girl a professional forger a stripper a corporate spy and finally a high school dropout who by age eighteen has seduced her art teacher a man nearly three decades her senior and bluffed her way into college in an effort to shape a future Ciment is cutting insightful and clearly unapologetic as she details the confusion and bravado of a child heroine whose dreams and tenacity allow her finally to create the life she has been so desperately seeking Half a Life Darin Strauss, 2011-05-31 In this powerful unforgettable memoir acclaimed novelist Darin Strauss examines the far reaching consequences of the tragic moment that has shadowed his whole life In his last month of high school he was behind the wheel of his dad's Oldsmobile driving with friends heading off to play mini golf Then a classmate swerved in front of his car The collision resulted in her death With piercing insight and stark prose Darin Strauss leads us on a deeply personal immediate and emotional journey graduating high school going away to college starting his writing career falling in love with his future wife becoming a father Along the way he takes a hard look at loss and guilt maturity and accountability hope and at last acceptance The result is a staggering uplifting tour de force Look for special features inside including an interview with Colum McCann Half a Life Jill Ciment, 1996 Middle class Jewish suburbs to the fringe desert communities of Los Angeles a landscape and culture so alien that their father loses the last vestiges of his sanity Terrified and broke he brutalizes his wife and children When the family finally throws him out he lives for weeks in his car at the foot of their driveway Ms Ciment turns herself into a girl for whom a father is unnecessary a tough girl who will survive any way she can She becomes a gang girl a Half a Life Darin Strauss, 2011-05-31 In this powerful unforgettable memoir acclaimed novelist Darin Strauss examines the far reaching consequences of the tragic moment that has shadowed his whole life In his last month of high school he was behind the wheel of his dad's Oldsmobile driving with friends heading off to play mini golf Then a classmate swerved in front of his car The collision resulted in her death With piercing insight and stark prose Darin Strauss leads us on a deeply personal immediate and emotional journey graduating high school going away to college starting his writing career falling in love with his future wife becoming a father Along the way he takes a hard look at loss and guilt maturity and accountability hope and at last acceptance The result is a staggering uplifting tour de force Look for special features inside including an interview with Colum McCann Half a Life-time Ago Elizabeth Gaskell, 2020-12-08 In

Half a Life time Ago Elizabeth Gaskell masterfully intertwines themes of nostalgia and the complexities of human relationships This novella characterized by Gaskell s characteristic vivid characterizations and acute social observations paints a poignant picture of the impact of the past on the present Set against the backdrop of early Victorian England the narrative explores the lives of its protagonists as they navigate the intricacies of love loss and memory employing a reflective and often melancholic tone that invites readers to delve into their own reflections on time and identity Elizabeth Gaskell a prominent figure in Victorian literature often drew from her own life experiences in her works Living through the industrial revolution and witnessing the struggles of the working class Gaskell imbued her writing with empathy and insight into social issues Her exposure to diverse social classes through her familial connections and her friendship with prominent literary contemporaries including Charlotte Bront further informed her rich storytelling and the exploration of both personal and societal dilemmas Half a Life time Ago is an essential read for those interested in the complexities of the human experience Gaskell s eloquent prose and deep psychological insight create a compelling narrative that resonates with readers from various backgrounds This novella rewards readers with its timeless exploration of how our past continues to shape our present making it a significant addition to anyone s literary collection
