Dennis J.D. Sandole, Sean Byrne, Ingrid Sandole-Staroste, Jessica Senehi, 2008-07-31 This major Handbook comprises cutting edge essays from leading scholars in the field of Conflict Analysis and Resolution CAR The volume provides a comprehensive overview of the core concepts theories approaches processes and intervention designs in the field The central theme is the value of multidisciplinary approaches to the analysis and The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution Jacob Bercovitch, Victor Kremenyuk, I William Zartman, 2008-12-03 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution It brings out its key issues methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution Peter Wallensteen Professor of Peace and Conflict Research Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame Bercovitch Kremenyuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field They have pieced together with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries a state of the art review of the sources of international conflict available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict ridden times The collection is brimming with penetrating insights trenchant analyses compelling cases and disciplined speculation They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution Lawrence Susskind Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program The last three sentences of this persuasive book We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment It is absolutely necessary Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all possess If you are part of that we intellectually or professionally you will find this book a superb companion Thomas C Schelling Professor Emeritus Harvard University and University of Maryland Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950 s it has rapidly grown into a self contained vibrant interdisciplinary field The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch New Zealand Victor Kremenyuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies Russian Academy of Sciences Moscow He is also a research associate at IIASA I William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Organization at the Nitze School of

Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University The Resolution of Conflict Michael Banks, C. R. Mitchell, George Mason University. Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution, 1994 Contemporary Conflict Resolution Oliver Ramsbotham, Tom Woodhouse, Hugh Miall, 2005-12-08 Offering an assessment of the theory and practice of conflict resolution in post Cold War conflicts this book addresses a number of questions It explores the nature of contemporary conflict and the development of conflict resolution John W. Burton: A Pioneer in Conflict Analysis and Resolution David J. Dunn, Hans Günter Brauch, Pamela Burton, 2024-04-26 This book charts John W Burton's transition from practitioner in diplomacy to pioneer in the theory of peace research thinking on world society and conflict resolution Born in 1915 given his father's name it was assumed that he would follow his father and become a Christian missionary He did not he joined the Australian Public Service From a junior position he rose rapidly He was forthright and some found him irritating or worse He progressed to the highest levels of policy making Amidst some controversy he resigned abruptly in 1951 He then worked on his farm outside Canberra writing avidly He did not intend to become an academic but in 1963 he was offered a position in International Relations at University College in London and he accepted He was key to the foundation of the International Peace Research Association IPRA in 1964 and of the Conflict Research Society in the UK because he thought that words and ideas were not enough there needed to be instruments of change Looking back he was in fact a secular missionary His aim Simple to change the world This book is an exploration of how conflict should be reinterpreted The ideas of his work are a product not of any metaphysical approach but of experience Burton knew the field Cold War diplomacy civil strife reforming organisations resistance to change He had been there and he found much to criticise This book illustrates what he had to offer and explains why These readings reveal shifts in his ideas cohering incrementally integrated into a new framework This book presents his pioneering and relevant work Transcending disciplinary boundaries it will be of interest to students as well as professionals who address conflict at all levels of society from family to state Peacemaking in International Conflict I. William Zartman, 2007 This updated and expanded edition of the highly popular volume originally published in 1997 describes the tools and skills of peacemaking that are currently available and critically assesses their usefulness and limitations Peace Research Peter Wallensteen, 2013-03-01 Comprising essays by Peter Wallensteen this book presents an overview of the thematic development of peace research which has become one of the most dynamic and innovative areas of war and conflict studies Peace research began in the 1950s when centres were formed in the USA and Europe and today there are research institutes and departments on every continent with teaching and research programs in most countries and peace researchers contribute to the development of international studies development research and security analysis Prof Wallensteen has been a witness to much of this since forming the Department of Peace and Conflict Research at Uppsala University in the late 1960s and this book brings together thirteen of his articles with five new essays in one volume The book presents articles on such key issues in peace research as the causes of war conflict data conflict diplomacy non violent sanctions and third party diplomacy In this way it demonstrates how basic research can be conducted in fields often seen as unresearchable and too complicated to deal with This volume shows that it is a matter of developing definitions creating valid measures and finding ways of collecting information recognising that innovations of this kind require supportive research environments Furthermore the results are not only useful for the growth of research activity itself but for finding ways of dealing with actual conflicts Thus attention is also paid here to conflict prevention peace agreements sanctions and third party activity for preventing and ending armed conflict and building a lasting post war peace This book will be of great interest to all students of peace studies conflict resolution war and conflict studies development studies and IR security studies in general

The Rise of Political Islam Muzaffer Ercan Yilmaz,2024-07-14 The rise of political Islam in the Middle East region and elsewhere in the post Cold War era is one of the key geopolitical phenomena of our time Political Islam tends to challenge the status quo culturally socially and more important politically This important new book explores the issue deeply focusing particularly on real or perceived external threats to social identity a neglected dimension of political Islam Three cases are examined those of Turkey Egypt and Algeria where political Islam has challenged sometimes quite seriously the secular state structure Many policy implications in terms of more effectively coping with these politico religious challenges are made by the study With its focus on understanding the link between social identity and religiously driven social and political conflicts the book will be a unique and valuable resource for policy advisors and think tanks and all researchers students and scholars working on religiously driven conflicts

People, Peace and Power Diana Francis,2002-04-20 Millions of people around the world live in countries torn apart by war where violence and suffering are part of everyday life Yet in all those countries there are groups of people working for peace in the midst of war standing up for human rights and decency What difference can they make What can be done to support them and to help dialogue to happen in the midst of hostility and violence This book examines these questions focusing on the roles that ordinary people can play as peace builders in societies where violence and antagonism have become the norm where inter communal relationships are fractured or where institutions and the rule of law have collapsed It examines the theory and practice of conflict transformation and its relevance for different cultures and contexts Using extensive case studies taken from practical workshops the most frequently used form of conflict intervention in the Balkans and around the world it shows both the power and the complexity of such encounters

Paving the Way Ronald J. Fisher,2005-01-01 Paving the Way offers insights into the conditions and qualities of successful programs of interactive conflict resolution from experts in the field Editor Ronald J Fisher has assembled a collection of seminal case studies that illustrate interactive approaches to conflict resolution from the Malaysia Indonesia conflict in the 1960s to the Peru Equador peace process of the late 1990s

The New Politics of Conflict Resolution Morgan Brigg,2008-11-02 This book shows that the conflict resolution field often denies difference even as it attempts to implement a progressive and responsive politics Innovative theoretical analysis suggests ways of responding anew across difference and beyond dominant ways of thinking about political community and conflict Track Two Diplomacy in Theory and Practice Peter Jones, 2015-09-02 Jones provides a nuanced perspective on both the promise and limits of this unheralded form of unofficial diplomacy Stephen J Del Rosso Director International Peace and Security Carnegie Corporation of New York Track Two diplomacy consists of informal dialogues among actors such as academics religious leaders retired senior officials and NGO officials that can bring new ideas and new relationships to the official process of diplomacy Sadly those involved in official diplomacy often have little understanding of and appreciation for the complex and nuanced role that Track Two can play or for its limitations And many Track Two practitioners are often unaware of the realities and pressures of the policy and diplomatic worlds and not particularly adept at framing their efforts to make them accessible to hard pressed officials At the same time those interested in the academic study of Track Two sometimes fail to understand the realities faced by either set of practitioners A need therefore exists for a work to bridge the divides between these constituencies and between the different types of Track Two practice and this book crosses disciplines and traditions in order to do just that It explores the various dimensions and guises of Track Two the theory and practice of how they work and how both practitioners and academics could more profitably assess Track Two Overall it provides a comprehensive picture of the range of activities pursued under this title to provoke new thinking about how these activities relate to each other to official diplomacy and to academe This book will be a classic that defines the field of Track Two diplomacy an exemplary work Esra Cuhadar Bilkent University

Values, World Society and Modelling Yearbook 2015 Gordon Burt, 2017-05-11 The Values World Society and Modelling Yearbook 2015 like the 2014 Yearbook analyses contemporary world events with special attention to values drawing on foundational ideas in a variety of academic disciplines World society in 2015 exhibited economic political and cultural tensions growth and austerity the Greek bailout referendum the Paris attacks on the Charlie Hebdo cartoonists the Christian south and Muslim north in the Nigerian elections and religion and secularism in Ireland's referendum on same sex marriage Demographics austerity migration and nationalism were all issues in the UK general election There were debates about immigration into Europe and debates about Western military intervention There were debates about the Enlightenment surrounding the bicentenary of the Battle of Waterloo The year 2015 was the seventieth anniversary of the establishment of the United Nations and the centenary of the birth of one of those who attended the San Francisco conference in 1945 namely John Burton founder of the Conflict Research Society Chapter Two of the Yearbook is The John Burton Memorial Lecture 2015 by Kevin Clements Other guest contributors are Feargal Cochrane Hugh Miall Dennis Sandole and Rania Dimitraki The modelling aspect of the Yearbook is strongly structured around the notions of space time and value Six of the chapters are about space physical space geographical space psychological space social space political space and value space Four of the chapters are about time time series for human development and population revisiting the Pinker debate about a decline in violence physical and structural violence the

1945 2015 UK decline in two party and three party politics the flight from the centre and the rise of UKIP and Jeremy Corbyn

The chapter Life is a Journey discusses values in a qualitative way then models of values are developed for particular topics and finally a systematic account is given of value spaces

Identity, Trust, and Reconciliation in East Asia Kevin P Clements, 2017-10-10 This edited collection explores how East Asia's painful history continues to haunt the relationships between its countries and peoples Through a largely social psychological and constructivist lens the authors examine the ways in which historical memory and unmet identity needs generates mutual suspicion xenophobic nationalism and tensions in the bilateral and trilateral relationships within the region This text not only addresses some of the domestic drivers of Japanese Chinese and South Korean foreign policy and the implications of increasingly autocratic rule in all three countries but also analyses the way in which new security mechanisms and processes advancing trust confidence and reconciliation can replace those generating mistrust antagonism and insecurity

Why We Fight David Churchman, 2005 Why We Fight draws on more than 20 academic disciplines to describe more than 100 theoretical explanations for human aggression and conflict It also describes and assesses more than 70 methods for managing conflict including individual interpersonal community intellectual organizational intrastate and interstate conflict

Resolving Structural Conflicts Richard E. Rubenstein, 2017-01-06 This book analyses how certain types of social systems generate violent conflict and discusses how these systems can be transformed in order to create the conditions for positive peace Resolving Structural Conflicts addresses a key issue in the field of conflict studies what to do about violent conflicts that are not the results of misunderstanding prejudice or malice but the products of a social system that generates violent conflict as part of its normal operations This question poses enormous challenges to those interested in conflict resolution since the solution to this problem involves restructuring social political and cultural systems rather than just calling in a mediator to help people arrive at an agreement This study breaks new ground in showing how local conflicts involving crime police and prisons transnational conflicts involving religious terrorism by groups like ISIS and international conflicts involving Great Power clashes are all produced in large part by elite driven exploitative or oppressive social structures It also presents new ideas about the implications of this structural turn for the practice of conflict resolution emphasizing the need for conflict resolvers to embrace a new politics and to broaden their methods far beyond traditional forms of facilitation Written by a leading scholar this book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies war and conflict studies sociology political science and international relations in general

Ethnicity and Intra-State Conflict Håkan Wiberg, Christian P. Scherrer, 2018-12-21 Published in 1999 this text examines domestic wars looking at inter state relations only in as far as they are directly relevant to understand such wars The book aims to indicate how intra state war differs from the inter state war and focuses primarily on such domestic armed conflicts that at least have significant ethnonational components The book assesses how heterogeneous a category ethnic conflict is in terms of causes and consequences and gauges the complex interplay between class regionalism and ethnicity It is not limited to description and causal analysis but also attempts to assess suggestions as to what types of actors may contribute in what ways to avoiding ethnonational mobilization polarization avoiding militarization of manifest conflicts and de escalating militarized conflicts by looking for tenable generalizations on what types of approaches are fruitful in bringing about de escalation ceasefires political compromises peaceful division or peaceful integration reconciliation

Peace and Security in the Postmodern World Dennis J.D. Sandole, 2007-01-24 This book analyzes how postmodern conflict such as the recent Balkan Wars and the post 9 11 new terrorism can be prevented and or otherwise dealt with in the future

How is Global Dialogue Possible? Johanna Seibt, Jesper Garsdal, 2014-12-11 Intercultural dialogue is often invoked in vague reference to a method that can build cross cultural understanding and facilitate global policy making This book clarifies the theoretical foundations of intercultural dialogue and demonstrates the practical significance of intercultural value inquiry combining the perspectives of philosophy conflict research religious studies and education
