Grassroots Memorials Grassroots Memorials:

Grassroots Memorials Peter Jan Margry, Cristina Sánchez-Carretero, 2011-08-01 Grassroots memorials have become major areas of focus during times of trauma danger and social unrest These improvised memorial assemblages continue to display new and more dynamic ways of representing collective and individual identities and in doing so reveal the steps that shape the national memories of those who struggle to come to terms with traumatic loss This volume focuses on the hybrid quality of these temporary memorials as both monuments of mourning and as focal points for protest and expression of discontent The broad range of case studies in this volume include anti mafia shrines Theo van Gogh s memorial September 11th memorials March 11th shrines in Madrid and Carlo Giuliani memorials in Genoa Cultures and Globalization

Helmut K Anheier, 2011-04-19 Bringing together a truly global range of scholars this volume explores heritage memory and identity through a diverse set of subjects including heritage sites practices of memorialization museums sites of contestation and human rights Memorials in the Aftermath of Armed Conflict Marie Louise Stig Sørensen, Dacia Viejo-Rose, Paola Filippucci, 2019-12-13 Through case studies from Europe and Russia this volume analyses memorials as a means for the present to make claims on the past in the aftermath of armed conflict The central contention is that memorials are not backward looking inert reminders of past events but instead active triggers of personal and shared emotion that are inescapably political bound up with how societies reconstruct their present and future as they negotiate their way out of and sometimes back into conflict A central aim of the book is to highlight and illustrate the cultural and ethical complexity of memorials as focal points for a tension between the notion of memory as truth and the practice of memory as negotiable By adopting a relatively bounded temporal and spatial scope the volume seeks to move beyond the established focus on national traditions to reveal cultural commonalities and shared influences in the memorial forms and practices of individual regions and of particular conflicts Grief, Identity, and the Arts

Bram Lambrecht, Miriam Wendling, 2022-11-28 Death and grief have often elicited the response of creativity from elegies and requiems to memorial architecture Such artistic expressions of grief form the focus of Grief, Identity, and the Arts which brings together scholars from the disciplines of musicology literature sociology film studies social work and museum studies While presenting one or more case studies from a range of artistic disciplines historical periods or geographical areas each chapter addresses the interdependence of grief and identity in the arts The volume as a whole shows how artistic expressions of grief are both influenced by and contribute to constructions of religious national familial social and artistic identities Contributors to this volume Tammy Clewell Lizet Duyvendak David Gist Maryam Haiawi Owen Hansen Maggie Jackson Christoph Jedan Bram Lambrecht Carlo Leo Wolfgang Marx Tijn Nuyts Despoina Papastathi Julia P aczkiewicz Bavjola Shatro Caroline Supply Nicolette van den Bogerd Eric Venbrux Janneke Weijermars Miriam Wendling and Mariske Westendorp The New Public Art Mara Polgovsky Ezcurra, 2023-09-12 In this edited volume Polgovsky Ezcurra and her contributors look at the rise in the creation of community focused art projects from public cinema to off stage dance and theatre and to the creation of anti monuments that have redefined what public art is and how people have engaged with it within Mexico City in particular as well as other regions of Mexico since the 1980s With a mixture of in depth studies and artist dossiers the manuscript is organized into five main sections Historical Return Infra Political Art the Infrastructures of Commoning Forensic Publics and Grassroots Memorials and Distributed Publics Arts of Healing Arleen Ionescu, Maria Margaroni, 2020-06-22 This book occurs at the intersection of philosophy critical theory psychoanalysis and the visual arts Each chapter looks at art produced in various traumatogenic cultures detention centres post Holocaust film autobiography and many more Other chapters look at the Juarez femicides the production of collective memory of makeshift memorials acts of forgiveness and contemporary forms of trauma The book proposes new ways of thinking trauma foregrounding the possibility of healing and the task that the critical humanities has to play in this healing Where is its place in an increasingly terror haunted world where personal and collective trauma is as much of an everyday occurrence as it is incomprehensible What has become known as the classical model of trauma has foregrounded the unrepresentability of the traumatic event New revisionist approaches seek to move beyond an aporetic understanding of trauma investigating both intersubjective and intrasubjective psychic processes of healing Traumatic memory is not always verbal and iconic forms of communication are part of the arts of healing Heritage, Affect and Emotion Divya P. Tolia-Kelly, Emma Waterton, Steve Watson, 2016-07-01 Heritage and its economies are driven by affective politics and consolidated through emotions such as pride awe joy and pain In the humanities and social sciences there is a widespread acknowledgement of the limits not only of language and subjectivity but also of visibility and representation Social scientists particularly within cultural geography and cultural studies have recently attempted to define and understand that which is more than representational through the development of theories of affect assemblage post humanism and actor network theory to name a few While there have been some recent attempts to draw these lines of thinking more forcefully into the field of heritage studies this book focuses for the first time on relating heritage with the politics of affect The volume argues that our engagements with heritage are almost entirely figured through the politics of affective registers such as pain loss joy nostalgia pleasure belonging or anger It brings together a number of contributions that collectively and with critical acuity question how researchers working in the field of heritage might begin to discover and describe affective experiences especially those that are shaped and expressed in moments and spaces that can be at times intensely personal intimately shared and ultimately social It explores current theoretical advances that enable heritage to be affected released from conventional understandings of both heritage as objects and objects as representations by opening it up to a range of new meanings emergent and formed in moments of encounter Whilst representational understandings of heritage are by no means made redundant through this agenda they are destabilized and can thus be judged anew in light of these developments Each chapter offers a novel and provocative contribution provided by an interdisciplinary team of researchers who are thinking theoretically about affect through landscapes practices of commemoration visitor experience site interpretation and other heritage work

Poetry and Crisis Jill Robbins, 2020-01-23 Poetry and Crisis argues that the 2004 terrorist attacks in Madrid marked a critical turning point in Spanish society with poetry taking a unique role in reflecting new political and cultural realities

Cartographies of Madrid Silvia Bermudez, Anthony L. Geist, 2019-05-28 One of this book's goals is to evaluate the complex ways that Madrid has served as the political economic and cultural capital of the Global South from the end of the Franco dictatorship to the present The other is to examine the city as lived experience where citizens contest capital's push to shape urban space in its own image through activities of the imagination Scholars investigative journalists political activists and a filmmaker combine to document the vast array of Madrid's grassroots movements

Post-Yugoslav Constellations Vlad Beronja, Stijn Vervaeke, 2016-01-15 Memory in the Balkans has often been described as binding authoritative and non negotiable functioning as a banner of war This book challenges such a one dimensional representation and offers a more nuanced analysis that accommodates frequently ignored instances of transnational solidarity dialogue communal mourning and working through a difficult past Exploring a broad range of memorial practices the book focuses on the ways in which cultural memory is mediated performed and critically reworked by literature and the arts in the former Yugoslavia Against the methodological nationalism of works that study Serbian Croatian or Bosniak culture as self contained this book examines post Yugoslav literature film visual culture and politicized art practices from a supranational angle Not solely focusing on traumatic memories but also exploring how post Yugoslav cultural practices mobilize memory for a politics of hope this volume moves beyond the trauma paradigm that still dominates memory studies In its scope and approach the book shows the relevance of the cultural memory of Eastern European citizens and the contribution they can offer to the building of Europe's shared cultural memory and transnational identity

Victims and Memory After Terrorism Ana Milošević, 2024-06-03 This book contributes to the study of collective memory and the sociology of terrorism by analysing the role of memorialization in relation to terrorism its victims and the broader society While various social scientists have extensively theorized and analysed how trauma and memory interact grow apart and reinforce each other this book puts the rights and needs of the victims centre stage Departing from the prescriptive legal blueprints of memory this book introduces the concept of memorial needs to challenge and complement existing victimological frameworks It critically assesses the efficacy of public memorialization and its success in assisting those affected by violence by exploring how victims engage with memory and memorialization It investigates personal and collective responses to urban terrorism in Europe that have taken a wide range of forms including media coverage spontaneous memorials and public mobilizations literary and artistic works trials and controversial counter terrorism measures Making a case against the fetishization of memory as an overarching answer to curing visible and invisible wounds provoked by violence Victims and Memory After Terrorism sends out a practical invitation to the field to repair symbolic reparations in a way that memorialisation is not just an expression of potential an aspiration for a more moral and just society and a promise of healing for the victimised An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of victimology criminology sociology politics and those interested in the relationship between collective memory and terrorism

Contemporary European Perspectives on the Ethics of End of Life Care Nathan Emmerich, Pierre Mallia, Bert Gordijn, Francesca Pistoia, 2020-05-12 This book examines the ethics of end of life care focusing on the kinds of decisions that are commonly made in clinical practice Specific attention is paid to the intensification of treatment for terminal symptoms particularly pain relief and the withdrawal and withholding of care particularly life saving or life prolonging medical care The book is structured into three sections The first section contains essays examining end of life care from the perspective of moral theory and theology The second sets out various conceptual terms and distinctions relevant to decision making at the end of life The third section contains chapters that focus on substantive ethical issues This format not only provides for a comprehensive analysis of the ethical issues that arise in the context of end of life care but allows readers to effectively trace the philosophical theological and conceptual underpinnings that inform their specific interests This work will be of interest to scholars working in the area as well as clinicians specialists and healthcare professionals who encounter these issues in the course of their practice

Commemorating and Forgetting Martin J. Murray, 2013-04-25 When the past is painful as riddled with violence and injustice as it is in postapartheid South Africa remembrance presents a problem at once practical and ethical how much of the past to preserve and recollect and how much to erase and forget if the new nation is to ever unify and move forward The new South Africa s confrontation of this dilemma is Martin J Murray s subject in Commemorating and Forgetting More broadly this book explores how collective memory works how framing events persons and places worthy of recognition and honor entails a selective appropriation of the past not a mastery of history How is the historical past made to appear in the present In addressing these questions Murray reveals how collective memory is stored and disseminated in architecture statuary monuments and memorials literature and art landscapes of remembrance that selectively recall and even fabricate history in the service of nation building He examines such vehicles of memory in postapartheid South Africa and parses the stories they tell stories by turn sanitized distorted embellished and compressed In this analysis Commemorating and Forgetting marks a critical move toward recognizing how the legacies and impositions of white minority rule far from being truly past remain embedded in intertwined with and imprinted on the new nation s here and now

Reterritorializing Linguistic Landscapes David Malinowski, Stefania Tufi, 2020-01-23 A historically spatially and methodologically rich sub field of sociolinguistics Linguistic Landscapes LL is a rapidly evolving area of research and study With contributions by an international team of experts from the USA Europe the UK South Africa Israel Hong Kong and Colombia this volume is a cutting edge interdisciplinary account of the most recent theoretical and empirical developments in this area It covers both the conceptual tools and methodologies used to define and question and case studies of real world phenomena to showcase Linguistic Landscapes methods in action Divided into four parts chapters bring into dialogue themes relating to reterritorialization practices and the productive nature of boundaries and spaces This book considers the contemporary challenges facing the field the politics and processes of identifying and demarcating sites of research and the ethics and pedagogical applications of LL research With comprehensive lists of further reading extended discussion questions and suggestions for independent research at the end of each chapter this is an essential reference work for all LL scholars and students who wish to keep abreast of the current state of the art

The Age of Spectacular Death Michael Hviid Jacobsen,2020-09-08 This book explores death in contemporary society or more precisely in the spectacular age by moving beyond classic studies of death that emphasised the importance of the death taboo and death denial to examine how we now do death Unfolding the notion of spectacular death as characteristic of our modern approach to death and dying it considers the new mediation or mediatization of death and dying the commercialisation of death as a marketable commodity used to sell products advance artistic expression or provoke curiosity the re ritualisation of death and the growth of new ways of finding meaning through commemorating the dead the revolution of palliative care and the specialisation surrounding death particularly in relation to scholarship Presenting a range of case studies that shed light on this new understanding of death in contemporary culture The Age of Spectacular Death will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural and media studies psychology and anthropology with interests in death and dying

Road Scars Robert Matej Bednar,2020-07-21 Despite the ubiquity of automobility the reality of automotive death is hidden from everyday view There are accident blackspots all over the roads that we use and go past every day but the people that have died there or been injured are not marked unless by homemade shrines and personal memorialization Nowhere on the planet is this practice as densely actioned as in the United States Road Scars is a highly visual scholarly monograph about how roadside car crash shrines place the collective trauma of living in a car culture in the everyday landscapes of automobility Roadside shrines or road trauma shrines are vernacular memorial assemblages built by private individuals at sites where family and friends have died in automobile accidents either while driving cars or motorcycles or being hit by cars as pedestrians bicyclists or motorcyclists Prevalent for decades in Latin America and in the American Southwest roadside car crash shrines are now present throughout the U S and around the world Some are simply small white crosses almost silent markers of places of traumatic death Others are elaborate collections of objects texts and materials from all over the map culturally and physically all significantly brought together not in the home or in a cemetery but on the roadside in drivable public space a space where private individuals perform private identities alongside each other in public and where these private mobilities sometimes collide with one another in traumatic ways that are negotiated in roadside shrines This book touches on something many of us have seen but few have explored intellectually

The Routledge Handbook of Memory Activism Yifat Gutman,Jenny Wüstenberg,2023-02-15 This Handbook is the first systematic effort to map the fast growing phenomenon of memory activism and to delineate a new field of research that lies at the intersection of memory and social movement studies From Charlottesville to Cape Town from Santiago to Sydney we have recently witnessed protesters demanding that symbols of racist or colonial pasts be dismantled and that we talk about histories that have long been silenced But such events are only the most visible instances of grassroots efforts to influence the meaning of the past in the present Made up of more than 80 chapters that encapsulate the rich diversity of scholarship and practice of memory activism by assembling different disciplinary traditions methodological approaches and empirical evidence from across the globe this Handbook establishes important questions and their theoretical implications arising from the social political and economic reality of memory activism Memory activism is multifaceted takes place in a variety of settings and has diverse outcomes but it is always crucial to understanding the constitution and transformation of our societies past and present This volume will serve as a guide and establish new analytic frameworks for scholars students policymakers journalists and activists alike

Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens, Karen A. Franck, 2015-08-11 Memorials are more diverse in design and subject matter than ever before No longer limited to statues of heroes placed high on pedestals contemporary memorials engage visitors in new often surprising ways contributing to the liveliness of public space In Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens and Karen A Franck explore how changes in memorial design and use have helped forge closer richer relationships between commemorative sites and their visitors The authors combine first hand analysis of key examples with material drawn from existing scholarship Examples from the US Canada Australia and Europe include official formally designed memorials and informal ones those created by the public without official sanction Memorials as Spaces of Engagement discusses important issues for the design management and planning of memorials and public space in general The book is organized around three topics how the physical design of memorial objects and spaces has evolved since the 19th century how people experience and understand memorials through the activities of commemorating occupying and interpreting and the issues memorials raise for management and planning Memorials as Spaces of Engagement will be of interest to architects landscape architects and artists historians of art architecture and culture urban sociologists and geographers planners policymakers and memorial sponsors and all those concerned with the design and use of public space

Hugo Chávez, Alí Primera and Venezuela Hazel Marsh, 2016-11-04 Unlike much of the literature on Venezuela in the Ch vez period this book shifts focus away from top down perspectives to examine how Venezuelan folksinger Al Primera 1942 1985 became intertwined with Venezuelan politics both during his lifetime and posthumously Al s Necessary Songs offered cultural resources that enabled Ch vez to connect with pre existing patterns of grassroots activism in ways that resonated deeply with the poor and marginalised masses Official support for Al s legacy led the songs to be used in new ways in the Ch vez period as Venezuelans actively engaged with them to redefine themselves in relation to the state and to reach new understandings of their place within a changed society This book is essential reading not only for those interested in popular music and politics but for all those seeking to better understand how Chavez was able to successfully identify himself so profoundly with the Venezuelan masses and they with him

The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society
