redemption and the kind of beauty that doesn't need to be chased to be found ACROSS BORDERS AND TIME: JONATHAN SWIFT Csaba Maczelka, David Clare, Andrew C. Rouse, Gabriella Hartvig, 2022-12-16 The volume Across Borders and Time Jonathan Swift contains the papers delivered at the conference The World of Swift Swift and his World which was dedicated to the 350th anniversary of the birth of Jonathan Swift. The conference was held on 24-25 November 2017 at the House of Arts and Literature Pács and jointly organised by the Institute of English Studies of Pács University and SPECHEL the latter of which is also the publisher of this volume in its series SPECHEL editions. It also benefited from the support provided by the Irish Embassy in Budapest. That year also marked the 650th anniversary of Hungary's first university founded in Pács in 1367 and so the conference honoured that event too. In this the fifth SPECHEL edition series editor Rouse joins up once again with SPECHEL member Gabriella Hartvig an internationally respected scholar of the period and colleague at Pács University together with Irish Swiftian scholar David Clare. The volume comprises a selection of essays emanating from papers delivered at the conference celebrating the 350th anniversary of the Anglo-Irish writer Jonathan Swift held in the anniversary year of 2017 and includes a paper delivered by the Irish Ambassador to Hungary that opened the conference. We are grateful to the Irish Embassy for their financial support as well as to a number of local businesses and the Mayor's Office of Pács. The conference was organised by SPECHEL as part of the British and Irish Autumn 2017 series of events and included a recital of the music of the Irish harper Turlough O'Carolan 1670-1738 The Founding of English America John May, 2024-05-24 In 1577 John Dee a scientist who served as an advisor to Queen Elizabeth I proposed to her the creation of colonies in the New World. Neither Elizabeth nor Walter Raleigh imagined the task would be so difficult or take more than 30 years. The effort started with an exploration of the coast of today's North Carolina and the settlement of a colony on Roanoke Island in 1585. This ended tragically and became known as The Lost Colony its fate a mystery to this day. James I resumed the effort with the founding of Jamestown in 1607 on an island in the James River in today's Virginia. This book relates the histories of the Roanoke and Jamestown colonies to enable a full understanding of the founding of English America. Important events in America's beginnings including the wreck of the Sea Venture which inspired William Shakespeare's The Tempest the Algonquin chief Powhatan's plans to make the newcomers useful to him and the relationship between Pocahontas and English Captain John Smith are highlighted Horror at the Drive-In Gary D. America, 1910-1990 David Craven,2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process Observations on the Popular
