Makinen,2001-09-25 An examination of feminist writers appropriation of a range of popular genres detective fiction science fiction romance and the fairy tale The author argues that feminists can successfully appropriate all four genres because genres as cultural productions have accommodated the cultural changes brought about by second wave feminism The book provides a history of each of the genres reinstating women s contributions in those histories and a comprehensive review of the feminist critical debates on each of the genres Economic Investigations in Twentieth-Century Detective Fiction Yan Zi-Ling,2016-03-09 In his study of Golden Age and hard boiled detective fiction from 1890 to 1950 Yan Zi Ling argues that these two subgenres can be distinguished not only by theme and style but by the way they structure knowledge value and productive labour Using the detective as a reference point and enactor of socially based interests Yan shows that Golden Age texts are distinguished by their conservationism and not only by their conservatism with the detectives actions serving to stabilize institutions with specific ideological aims In contrast the criminal investigations of the hard boiled detective who is poorly aligned with institutions and strong interest groups reveal the fragility of the status quo in the face of escalating cycles of violence Key to Yan s discussion are theories of exchange value and the gift the latter of which he suggests is more akin to detective work than is wage labour Analyzing texts by a wide range of authors that includes Arthur Conan Doyle Agatha Christie Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler Dorothy Sayers Raoul Whitfield George Harmon Coxe and Mickey Spillane Yan demonstrates that the detective s truth generating function most often characterized as a process of discovery rather than creation is in fact crucial to the institutional and class based interests that he or she serves Women of Mystery Martha Hailey DuBose,2000-12-11 In this remarkable book Martha Hailey DuBose has given those multitudes of readers who love the mystery novel an indispensable addition to their libraries Unlike other works on the subject Women of Mystery is not merely a directory of the novelists and their publications with a few biographical details DuBose combines extensive research into the lives of significant women mystery writers from Anna Katherine Green and Mary Roberts Rinehart with critical essays on their work anecdotes contemporary reviews and opinions and some of the women s own comments She takes us through the Golden Age of the British women mystery writers Christie Sayers Marsh Allingham and Tey to the leading crime novelists of today focused on the women who have become legends of the genre And though she laments so many mysteries so little time she makes a good effort a mentioning some of the best of the rest When DuBose writes of the lives of her principal players she relates them to their times their families their personal situations and above all to their books She subtly points out that Sayers whose experience with the men in her life was inevitably disastrous created in Lord Peter the ideal lover one who is all that a woman desires and needs DuBose gives us the curriculum vitae that Dorothy Sayers created to help her bring Peter Wimsey to a virtual actuality Ngaio Marsh would give up an active presence in the theatrical world she loved but she recreated it for herself as well as her readers in many of her novels The biographies of these woman are as engrossing as the stories they wrote and Martha DuBose has shined a different intimate and intriguing light on them their works and the lives that informed those works This book is so full of treasure it s hard to see how any mystery enthusiast will be able to do without it And what a gift it would make for anyone on your list who has been heard to announce I love a mystery Some of the treats inside In the Beginning The Mothers of Detection Anna Katherine Green Mary Roberts Rinehart A Golden Era The Genteel Puzzlers Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers Ngaio Marsh Margery Allingham Josephine Tey Modern Motives Mysteries of the Murderous Mind Patricia Highsmith P D James Ruth Rendell Mary Higgins Clark Sue Grafton and more
