Routledge Course in Mandarin Chinese is a two year undergraduate course for students with no prior background in Chinese study. Designed to build a strong foundation in both the spoken and written language, it develops all the basic skills such as pronunciation, character writing, word use and structures while placing strong emphasis on the development of communicative skills. The complete course consists of Textbook Level 1, Workbook level 1 including free CDs, Textbook level 2 and workbook level 2 including free CDs. All books are available separately in simplified as well as traditional characters and take the students from complete beginner to post intermediate level. Textbook Level 2 incorporates the innovative features of Level 1 including the separation of vocabulary from characters, a basic to complex introduction of grammatical structures, a comprehensive companion workbook with extensive practice in all language skills and functions, and a Teachers Manual. Level 2 adds a Narrative Component to support the learner as they move from spoken Mandarin to formal written Chinese and from the comprehension and production of short sentences to paragraphs and essays. Level 2 of this Course in Modern Mandarin bridges the gap that characterizes the transition between basic level Chinese courses and more advanced work. The Narrative Component includes Model narratives that introduce formal written Chinese with explanations of the features of each narrative. Focus on narrative function including description, comparison, explanation, persuasion, and hypothesis. Reading and writing assignments that guide students to internalize model structures to read for information and to compose original essays for specific purposes. The course is also fully supported by an interactive companion website which contains a wealth of additional resources for both teachers and students. Teachers will find lesson plans in both English and Mandarin providing a weekly schedule and overall syllabus for fall and spring as well as activities for each lesson and answer keys. Students will be able to access downloadable character practice worksheets along with interactive pronunciation vocabulary and character practice exercises. All the audio material necessary for the course is also available online and conveniently linked on screen to the relevant exercises for ease of use. Mandarin Chinese, 2000 The Taoist Alchemy of Wang Liping: Volume One Nathan Brine, 2020-02-11

For centuries high up in the mountains of China, spiritual adepts explored the essence of being human. Known as Taoist alchemists, these practitioners developed and refined systems of energetic practice that allow us to experience our true nature. The Taoist Alchemy of Wang Liping Vol 1 introduces a traditional system of Taoist self-transformation known as internal alchemy or neidan, outlining the core curriculum and instruction methods designed to awaken consciousness and the mind-body connection. Wang Liping is the current transmitter of the Dragon Gate Lineage, a Taoist lineage that for centuries has been synonymous with the practice of neidan. The first in a series, Volume One briefly details Nathan's training with Wang Liping before presenting the core practices of the first alchemical phase: how to build foundation and refine jing, the lower frequency of energy associated with our physical body.

into a more rarified form of energy called qi Numerous methods rituals and techniques are included as well as a clear framework for the practice Wang Liping is responsible for passing on the ancient knowledge of the Dragon Gate Lineage of Taoist practice as a mentor and teacher for the next generation of students Wang Liping's lineage is a traditional Mountain Taoist lineage These Taoists are fully engaged in self transformation and the pursuit of transcendence Born in China's northeast in 1949 Wang Liping was chosen by three masters of the Dragon Gate Lineage to become the 18th heir holder and transmitter of the lineage Wang Liping's arduous training was described in the book Opening the Dragon Gate The Making of a Modern Taoist Wizard Wang Liping began teaching publicly in 1985 Since then he has trained many students throughout China and abroad He continues to live in China and teach Nathan has been teaching Chinese internal arts for over twenty years He began Taoist practice in 1997 immersing himself in Taoist temple arts martial arts meditation internal work neigong energy work qigong and internal alchemy For several years Nathan lived in China and trained full time with a number of masters as well as learning Mandarin Chinese After China Nathan returned to Canada to pursue academic study of Taoism where he received a BA in Asian Languages and Culture and worked towards an MA at the University of British Columbia extending his knowledge of Classical Chinese and the Taoist canon After meeting Wang Liping Nathan left graduate school and devoted himself wholly to learning Taoist alchemy Wang Liping authorized Nathan to teach in 2015 Nathan now leads regular workshops in Vancouver Canada as well as internationally

Contemporary Chinese for Heritage Learners Dongmei Zeng, 2018-08-09 This is a unique comprehensive textbook especially designed for beginners of Chinese as a heritage language at the college level It covers basic grammar vocabulary orthography and pragmatic social as well as cultural aspects of the Chinese language Unlike most Chinese language textbooks for beginners this communication based course book is set in the cultural context of the United States rather than in China The book takes students on a journey of self discovery along with two fictional characters with whom they can closely identify The language is kept simple and authentic with common vocabulary and useful expressions reoccurring throughout the book Best used with a learner centered and interactive approach this book is an ideal classroom textbook as well as an enjoyable and stimulating self study workbook that can be used in one semester or one year To make the material accessible to students this book is organized into seven thematic units with two related chapters each carefully sequenced in terms of relevance and degree of difficulty Each chapter contains a dialogue between the two fictional characters and a narrative by one of these characters on the same topic The same format is kept throughout the book The core vocabulary and common sentence patterns are recycled throughout the book to maximize retention The number of new vocabulary words is controlled at an average of 42 per chapter 28 for dialogues and 14 for narratives so as not to overwhelm the learner This book introduces approximately 600 most frequently used Chinese characters and vocabulary words To fully engage students in the learning process this book also offers a variety of fun interactive learning tasks related to the topic of each chapter These activities include drawing singing games role plays skits mini speeches conversations group debates and discussions etc that can be carried out individually in pairs in groups or as a class respectively These communicative activities take language learning away from rote memorization to active creation and application in real life situations In addition to text vocabulary and activities this all in one textbook and workbook features Chinese character explanations grammar notes cultural information pronunciation drills sentence pattern drills and exercises These features allow students to practice what they have learned in class as well as to study the target language on their own By the end of this book students will be able to conduct everyday conversations about some common topics in Mandarin Chinese read and write short paragraphs about these topics and gain a better appreciation of Chinese culture and the history of Chinese people in America It is hoped that by studying this book students will take pride in their Chinese American heritage and identity laying a solid foundation for further study in the Chinese language This book has been adopted by the State University of New York at Stony Brook for many years and has been proven to be highly interesting easy to use and effective
