

MACHINE WORLD

The background of the entire cover is a blue-tinted illustration. In the upper half, there's a large, intricate machine structure that looks like a combination of a factory and a spaceship, with various pipes, windows, and mechanical components. Below this, in the foreground, are three figures. On the left, a figure in a full-body suit and helmet stands looking towards the right. In the center, another figure is crouched or kneeling. On the right, a third figure is standing and looking towards the left. The overall scene suggests a sci-fi or industrial setting.
