Made For Hire Five Erotic Stories Of Domestic Service:

Made for Hire Kyoko Church, Esmeralda Greene, Amélie Hope, B. Z. R. Vukovina, Annabeth Leong, 2012-12 Domestic bliss takes on a whole new meaning Domestic service can yield the most intimate and serendipitous sexual possibilities Here five masters of the erotic narrative take great delight in exploring those possibilities Slip into the pages of Made for Hire to find your own domestic bliss It's a pleasure to be at your service The Global Political Economy of Sex: Desire, Violence, and Insecurity in Mediterranean Nation States A. Agathangelou, 2004-10-14 At the intersection of the warmth of hearth and home and the dangers of the street lies the tenuous position of women engaged in reproductive labour those involved in the sex trade and those in domestic positions These are women who are vulnerable exploited and whose dirty work allows for the reproduction of traditional social mores and roles Yet while they are used to sustain tradition dialectically they reflect the hyperconnections of globalization through the migration of women the development of placement agencies that often are little but fronts for transnational crime and the transfer of money from the developed countries to the oppressed world This book focuses on the interaction of the global and the local through a close investigation of the political economy of desire and reproduction in three states that blur the line between developed and developing Greece Turkey and Cyprus These are countries at the crossroads in flux whose peripheral siting at the centre of global capitalism provides unusual insight into the dark recesses of patriarchy paternalism and exploitation Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1830 Researching Sex and Sexualities Charlotte Morris, Paul Boyce, Andrea Cornwall, Hannah Frith, Laura Harvey, Yingying Huang, 2018-02-15 Sexuality is a complex and multifaceted domain encompassing bodily contextual and subjective experiences that resist ready categorisation To claim the sexual as a viable research object therefore raises a number of important methodological questions what is it possible to know about experiences practices and perceptions of sex and sexualities What approaches might help or hinder our efforts to probe such experiences This collection explores the creative personal and contextual parameters involved in researching sexuality cutting across disciplinary boundaries and drawing on case studies from a variety of countries and contexts Combining a wide range of expertise its contributors address such key areas as pornography sex work intersectionality and LGBT perspectives The contributors also share their own experiences of researching sexuality within contrasting disciplines as well as interrogating how the sexual identities of researchers themselves can relate to and inform their work The result is a unique and diverse collection that combines practical insights on field work with novel theoretical reflections Sex and the Revitalized City Leslie Kern, 2011-01-01 Young single women emerged in the late 1990s as powerful consumers in the wave of real estate development that was reshaping the landscape of cities Reports claimed that condominium ownership offered women new found freedom financial independence and personal security But has home ownership truly empowered women or were the reports merely celebratory rhetoric that disguised more disquieting trends To get at the reality behind the rhetoric Sex and the Revitalized City explores the phenomenon from the perspective of planners developers and women condo owners to reveal that women s relationship with the city is being remade in the image of fast capital and consumer citizenship As filtered through condominium ownership neoliberal ideologies are not freeing women from constraints they are reinforcing patriarchal norms This fresh look at urban revitalization exposes the notion of women s emancipation through condominium ownership as a marketing ploy rather than a major shift in gender relations Fire and Water Engineering

,1916 Sex and Class in Women's History Judith L. Newton,Mary P. Ryan,Judith R. Walkowitz,2013-01-03 The essays collected in this volume reflect the upsurge of interest in the research and writing of feminist history in the 1970s 80s and illustrate the developments which have taken place in the types of questions asked the methodologies employed and the scope and sophistication of the analytical approaches which have been adopted Focusing on women in nineteenth century Britain and America this book includes work by scholars in both countries and takes its place in a long history of Anglo American debate The collection adopts the doubled vision of feminist theory the view that it is the simultaneous operation of relations of class and of sex gender that perpetuate both patriarchy and capitalism This view informs a wide variety of contributions from Class and Gender in Victorian England to Servants Sexual Relations and the Risks of Illegitimacy Free Black Women The Power of Women s Networks and Socialism Feminism and Sexual Antagonism in the London Tailoring Trade Both the vigour and the urgency of scholarship infused with social aims can be clearly felt in the essays collected here

Dangerous Sex, Invisible Labor Prabha Kotiswaran,2011-07-05 Popular representations of third world sex workers as sex slaves and vectors of HIV have spawned abolitionist legal reforms that are harmful and ineffective and public health initiatives that provide only marginal protection of sex workers rights In this book Prabha Kotiswaran asks how we might understand sex workers demands that they be treated as workers She contemplates questions of redistribution through law within the sex industry by examining the political economies and legal ethnographies of two archetypical urban sex markets in India Kotiswaran conducted in depth fieldwork among sex workers in Sonagachi Kolkata s largest red light area and Tirupati a temple town in southern India Providing new insights into the lives of these women many of whom are demanding the respect and legal protection that other workers get Kotiswaran builds a persuasive theoretical case for recognizing these women s sexual labor Moving beyond standard feminist discourse on prostitution she draws on a critical genealogy of materialist feminism for its sophisticated vocabulary of female reproductive and sexual labor and uses a legal realist approach to show why criminalization cannot succeed amid the informal social networks and economic structures of sex markets Based on this Kotiswaran assesses the law s redistributive potential by analyzing the possible economic consequences of partial decriminalization complete decriminalization and legalization She concludes with a theory of sex work from a postcolonial materialist feminist perspective The Unvarnished Truth Ann Fabian,2000 A study of the plain unvarnished tales of unschooled beggars criminals prisoners and ex slaves in the 19th century Fabian shows how these works illuminate debates over who had the cultural authority to tell and sell their own stories She gives us the origins of that curious American genre of selling one's tale of woe to make a buck ala Oprah et al Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1883 Kenya Gazette ,1965-04-06 The Kenya Gazette is an official publication of the government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1883 The Christian Union ,1890 Leslie's ,1911 Insights and Research on the Study of Gender and Intersectionality in International Airline Cultures Albert J.
