Explosive Thrills Bhaskar R. Dave, The Book Explosive Thrills An Octogenarian Looks Back is a combination of the professional hazards and thrills the author experienced in his life and his career Looking back over the eighty seven years of his life nostalgic memories of the long years he spent in the Department of Explosives come flooding into his mind As his career revolved around Explosives naturally situations of risk were plenty The writer had occasion to visit a large number of places in the country and had some spine chilling experiences some of which are narrated here His youth too was full of chivalrous happenings Today all these spine tingling anecdotes of his life have taken shape to form this book The book has the additional flavour of smacking of our rich Indian cultural heritage It will make interesting reading Written in the genre of Memoirs the reminiscences are both public and private that took place in the author's life. Written from the first person account, the author in a brilliant manner snatches several moments from his life. In this sense, the author is a memoirist and comes across as a motivational guru. His memoirs are an insight into his philosophy of karma and are a positive guide to the young and old alike on safety in life. The book is written in a simple, practical, and heartfelt manner and compels one to read further.

Clothes Encounters of the Divine Kind Diane Donato, 2014-07-25

Clothes Encounters of the Divine Kind is a recapitulation of the author's life from early childhood to the present time and the role that her passions for fashion and healing played in her own spiritual awakening. While it seems like an autobiography, in truth it is an invitation for the reader to take that tumble down the rabbit hole and dare to wear the clothing of their dreams while learning about and experiencing the wonderful healing benefits of clothing colors. An added benefit is that it is jam-packed with ideas for dressing to express rather than the old dress for success paradigm. Hop on the Peace Train to experience true Freedom.
