Magdalene Foundress Congregation Franciscan Christian:

Life of Mother Magdalene Daemen, O. S. F. M. Paula Munster, 2017-10-15 Excerpt from Life of Mother Magdalene Daemen O S F Foundress of the Congregation of the Franciscan Sisters of Penance and Christian Charity There is something charmingly attractive in the life of Mother Magdalene She chose rather to obey than be obeyed and she exercised the noblest virtue unobtrusively With her there was no nobility of birth or position no bright scholarly intellect nor acquirements to sway others to the will of a superior organizer no combination of worldly riches to ward off misery and privation from the incipient organization but the humble illiterate virgin striving for the advancement of her Master's glory attracted others to His service by her example and the candid humble soul pursuing the life of a true disciple of St Francis inundated by confidence in Divine Providence has achieved victories About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Life of Mother Magdalene Daemen O.S.F., Foundress of the Congregation of the Franciscan Sisters of Penance and Christian Charity W. Renaissance art a body of images that have been previously overlooked because they come from a non Florentine context and because they do not fit modern notions of the development of Renaissance style She also analyzes the function of the images social as well as religious within the context of a female Dominican convent Finally she offers descriptions of and documentation for the process of patronage as it was practiced by cloistered women and the making of art in such enclosures The author presents a catalogue of works which gives basic data and bibliography for the objects described in the text Roberts offers other valuable resources in the appendices including unpublished C19th inventories of the objects in the convent at various moments documents regarding the commission of works of art for the convent letters written by the nuns a list of the Prioresses of San Domenico lists of nuns at different points in the fifteenth and early sixteenth century and a list of the relics owned by the convent in the sixteenth century Roberts firmly grounds her interpretation in the values of the Order to which the nuns belonged and in the political and social concerns of their city
