Battro,Pierre Léna,Marcelo Sánchez Sorondo,Joachim von Braun,2016-12-08 This book addresses the changes in education practices especially basic education necessitated by the global challenges of climate change and sustainable development and in a context characterized by increasing poverty and inequality migration and refugees Written by a range of international scholars scientists and grassroots practitioners from Africa Latin America Asia India China Malaysia and Europe the individual contributions focus on education policies and child development in various social contexts Case based experiences from both developed and developing countries provide inspiration and shed new light on the fundamental changes needed to adapt existing school systems and teacher training to face the challenges of the future In this regard the need to empower children themselves is emphasized All contributions are based on a Workshop hosted in November 2015 by the Pontifical Academy of Sciences at the Vatican entitled Children and Sustainable Development A Challenge for Education and follow three other significant events on sustainable development in 2015 namely the publication of Laudato Si the Encyclical Letter from Pope Francis the release of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the COP21 Conference in Paris

City of God Kevin Lewis O'Neill,2010 City of God explores the role of neo Pentecostal Christian sects in the religious social political life of Guatemala O'Neill examines one such church looking at how its practices have become acts of citizenship in a new politically relevant era for Protestantism Popular Mechanics ,1974-03 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it s practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Disability, Human Rights and the Limits of Humanitarianism Michael Gill,Cathy J. Schlund-Vials,2016-05-23 Disability studies scholars and activists have long criticized and critiqued so termed charitable approaches to disability where the capitalization of individual disabled bodies to invoke pity are historically socially and politically circumscribed by paternalism Disabled individuals have long advocated for civil and human rights in various locations throughout the globe yet contemporary human rights discourses problematically co opt disabled bodies as evidence of harms done under capitalism war and other forms of conflict while humanitarian non governmental organizations often use disabled bodies to generate resources for their humanitarian projects It is the connection between civil rights and human rights and this concomitant relationship between national and global which foregrounds this groundbreaking book s contention that disability studies productively challenge such human rights paradigms which troublingly eschew disability rights in favor of exclusionary humanitarianism It relocates disability from the margins to the center of academic and activist debates over the vexed relationship between human rights and humanitarianism These considerations thus productively destabilize able bodied assumptions that undergird definitions of personhood in civil rights and human rights by highlighting intersections between disability race gender ethnicity and sexuality as a way to interrogate the possibilities and limitations of human rights as a politicized regime
