Nathaniel Hawthorne and the Romance of the Orient Luther S. Luedtke, 1989-09-22 This volume argues that by focusing on British and American backgrounds readers have underestimated the impact of Asia and the East on American novelist and short story writer Nathaniel Hawthorne s 1804 1864 writing The central force in Hawthorne s intellectual development was New England Puritanism It fascinated even when it sometimes repelled him It exercised a pull on his imagination which a lifetime of varied experience did not loosen The author recreates Hawthorne s heritage and examine his readings in material dealing with the East he examines three of Hawthorne s early tales that were all written before 1830 and he looks at Hawthorne s The Story Teller the two volume book of sketches and tales Hawthorne unsuccessfully tried to publish in 1834 and issued piecemeal thereafter in periodicals as annuals The author also evaluates the role of the Eastern world in Hawthorne s view of Romance and studies some of Hawthorne s remarkable heroines Beatrice Rappaccini Hester Zenobia and Miriam in particular The author maintains that the Puritan element in

Hawthorne's ancestry has been overstressed and that insufficient attention has been paid to the equally important travel adventure exploration aspect of Hawthorne's heritage and craft

Sophia Peabody Hawthorne Patricia Dunlavy Valenti, 2004 Sophia Peabody Hawthorne is known almost exclusively in her role as the wife of Nathaniel Hawthorne who portrayed her as the fragile ethereal infirm Dove That image invented by Nathaniel to serve his needs and affirm his manhood was passed on by his biographers who accepted their subject's perception without question In fact the real Sophia was very different from Nathaniel's construction of her An independent sensuous daring woman Sophia was an accomplished artist before her marriage to Nathaniel Moreover what she brought to their union inspired Nathaniel's imagination beyond the limits of his previously confined existence In Sophia Peabody Hawthorne Patricia Dunlavy Valenti situates the story of Sophia's life within its own historical philosophical and cultural background as well as within the context of her marriage Valenti begins with parallel biographies that present Sophia and then Nathaniel at comparable periods in their lives Sophia was born into an expansive somewhat chaotic home in which women provided financial as well as emotional sustenance She was a precocious eager student whose rigorous education in her mother's and her sisters schools began her association with the children of New England's elite Sophia aspired to become a professional self-supporting painter exhibiting her art and seeking criticism from established mentors She relished an eighteen month sojourn in Cuba Nathaniel's reclusive family his reluctant early education his anonymous pursuit of a career and his relatively circumscribed life contrast markedly with the experience of the woman who became his wife and the mother of his children Those differences resulted in a creative abrasion that ignited his fiction during the first years of their marriage Volume 1 of this biography concludes with Sophia's negotiation of the Hawthornes departure from the Old Manse and the birth of their second child This period also coincides with the conclusion of Nathaniel's major phase of short story writing Sophia Peabody Hawthorne is an engrossing story of a nineteenth century American life It analyzes influences upon authorship and questions the boundaries of intellectual property in the domestic sphere The book also offers fresh interpretations of Nathaniel Hawthorne's fiction examining it through the lens of Sophia's vibrant personality and diverse interests Students and scholars of American literature literary theory feminism and cultural history will find much to enrich their understanding of this woman and this era

The Life and Genius of Nathaniel Hawthorne Frank Preston Stearns, 1906 Excerpt of their little red cottage which has since unfortunately been destroyed by fire She even began to give her daughter who was only six years old some instruction in drawing The following extract concerning her husband from a letter written to her mother is charmingly significant of her state of mind at this time Beauty and the love of it in him are the true culmination of the good and true and there is no beauty to him without these bases He has perfect dominion over himself in every respect so that to do the highest wisest loveliest thing is not the least effort to him any more than it is to a baby to be innocent It is his spontaneous act and a baby is not more unconscious in its innocence I never knew such loftiness so simply borne I have never known him to stoop from it in the most trivial household matter any more than in a larger or more public one Footnote J Hawthorne i 373 Truly this gives us a beautiful insight into their home life and Hawthorne himself could not have written a more accurate eulogium As intimated in the last chapter we all make our way through life by correcting our daily trespasses and Hawthorne was no exception to it but as a mental analysis of this man at his best Mrs Hawthorne s statement deserves a lasting recognition THE HOUSE OF THE SEVEN GABLES It was not until early frosts and shortening days drove Hawthorne within doors that he again took up his writing but who can tell how long he had been dreaming over his subject Within five months or by the last week of January The House of the Seven Gables was ready for the press There is no such house in Salem exactly as he describes it but an odd antiquated looking structure at No 54 Turner Street is supposed to have served him for the suggestion of it The name is picturesque and well suited to introduce the reader to a homely suburban romance The subject of the story goes back to the witchcraft period and its active
