because of their own weaknesses and moral failures but because of their helplessness before society's attitudes and institutions Yet Dickens managed even when dealing with grim and serious subject matter to maintain a humorous element and satire and caricature fill the pages of his works Dickens died on June 9 1870 following a stroke Given the body of work he left behind it is striking to note that Charles Dickens was just 58 years old at his death

Great Expectations Charles Dickens, 2010 Pope John Paul II described Dickens books as filled with love for the poor and a sense of social regeneration warm with imagination and humanity Such true charity permeates Dickens novels and ultimately drives the characters either to choose regeneration or risk disintegration In Great Expectations Pip symbolic of the pilgrim convert gains both improved fortunes and a growth in wisdom but as he acquires the latter he must relinquish the former ending with a wealth of profound goodness not of worldly goods That the Dickensian message was a Christian one is unmistakable Reminiscent of an Augustinian model one of reflection conversion and moral improvement Pip undergoes an internal change that manifests itself in his profound contrition for his earlier deeds and his equally profound resolution to make amends As we travel with Pip we find that Dickens leads us to an acceptance of worldly limitations and an anticipation of final salvation The exciting new edition of Dickens's classic novel includes critical essays by some of today's leading Dickens scholars
