Great Houses of Chicago, 1871-1921 Susan S. Benjamin, Stuart Earl Cohen, 2008 The first authoritative study of Chicago s city houses portraying a private world of midwestern splendor Interior Design ,2008 The Work of Dwight James Baum William Alan Morrison, 2008 The Publishers Weekly ,2008 The Urbanism of Frank Lloyd Wright Neil Levine, 2016 This is the first book devoted to Frank Lloyd Wright's designs for remaking the modern city Stunningly comprehensive The Urbanism of Frank Lloyd Wright presents a radically new interpretation of the architect s work and offers new and important perspectives on the history of modernism Neil Levine places Wright's projects produced over more than fifty years within their historical cultural and physical contexts while relating them to the theory and practice of urbanism as it evolved over the twentieth century Levine overturns the conventional view of Wright as an architect who deplored the city and whose urban vision was limited to a utopian plan for a network of agrarian communities he called Broadacre City Rather Levine reveals Wright's larger more varied interesting and complex urbanism demonstrated across the span of his lengthy career Beginning with Wright's plans from the late 1890s through the early 1910s for reforming residential urban neighborhoods mainly in Chicago and continuing through projects from the 1920s through the 1950s for commercial mixed use civic and cultural centers for Chicago Madison Washington Pittsburgh and Baghdad Levine demonstrates Wright's place among the leading contributors to the creation of the modern city Wright's often spectacular designs are shown to be those of an innovative precursor and creative participant in the world of ideas that shaped the modern metropolis Lavishly illustrated with drawings plans maps and photographs this book features the first extensive new photography of materials from the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation Archives The Urbanism of Frank Lloyd Wright will serve as one of the most important books on the architect for years to come American Heritage ,1992 Modern in the Middle Susan Benjamin, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2020-09-01 The first survey of the classic twentieth century houses that defined American Midwestern modernism Famed as the birthplace of that icon of twentieth century architecture the skyscraper Chicago also cultivated a more humble but no less consequential form of modernism the private residence Modern in the Middle Chicago Houses 1929 75 explores the substantial yet overlooked role that Chicago and its suburbs played in the development of the modern single family house in the twentieth century. In a city often associated with the outsize reputations of Frank Lloyd Wright and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe the examples discussed in this generously illustrated book expand and enrich the story of the region s built environment Authors Susan Benjamin and Michelangelo Sabatino survey dozens of influential houses by architects whose contributions are ripe for reappraisal such as Paul Schweikher Harry Weese Keck Keck and William Pereira From the bold early example of the Battledeck House by Henry Dubin 1930 to John Vinci and Lawrence Kenny's gem the Freeark House 1975 the generation spanning residences discussed here reveal how these architects contended with climate and natural setting while negotiating the dominant influences of

Wright and Mies They also reveal how residential clients typically middle class professionals progressive in their thinking helped to trailblaze modern architecture in America Though reflecting different approaches to site space structure and materials the examples in Modern in the Middle reveal an abundance of astonishing houses that have never been collected into one study until now Catalog of the Avery Memorial Architectural Library of Columbia University. 2d Ed., Enl Avery Library, 1968 Who's who in America ,1926 Who's who Among North American Authors, 1935 Covering the United States and Canada with their possessions and neighbors and containing the biographical and literary data of living authors whose birth or activities connect them with the continent of North America with a press section devoted to journalists and magazine writers varies slightly America, History and Life, 1990 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Museum Studies Art Institute of Chicago, 1966 New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1973 The New York Times Book Review Index, 1896-1970: Subject index, 1973
