Greatest Fight World Charles Spurgeon:

The Greatest Fight in the World Charles Spurgeon, Revival Press, 2017-03-23 I may say to you as speakers that I am persuaded we should prepare ourselves with diligence and try to do our very best in our great Master's service I think I have read that when a handful of lion like Greeks held the pass against the Persians a spy who came to see what they were doing went back and told the great king that they were poor creatures for they were busied in combing their hair The despot saw things in a true light when he learned that a people who could adjust their hair before battle had set a great value on their heads and would not bow them to a coward's death If we are very careful to use our best language when proclaiming eternal truths we may leave our opponents to infer that we are still more careful of the doctrines themselves We must not be untidy soldiers when a great fight is before us for that would look like despondency Into the battle against false doctrine and worldliness and sin we advance without a fear as to the ultimate issue and therefore our talk should not be that of ragged passion but of well considered principle It is not ours to be slovenly since we look to be triumphant Do you work well at this time that all men may see that you are not going to be driven from it The Persian said when on another occasion he saw a handful of warriors advancing That little handful of men Surely they cannot mean fighting But one who stood by said Yes they do for they have burnished their shields and brightened their armour Men mean business depend upon it when they are not to be hurried into disorder It was the way amongst the Greeks when they had a bloody day before them to show the stern joy of warriors by being well adorned I think brethren that when we have great work to do for Christ and mean doing it we shall not go to the pulpit or the platform to say the first thing that comes to the lip If we speak for Jesus we ought to speak at our best though even then men are not killed by the glitter of shields nor by the smoothness of a warrior's hair but a higher power is needed to cut through coats of mail To the God of armies I look up May He defend the right But with no careless step do I advance to the front neither does any doubt possess me We are feeble but the Lord our God is mighty and the battle is the Lord's rather than ours Charles Spurgeon GET MORE BOOKS AT REVIVALPRESS.NET The Greatest Fight in the World Charles Haddon Spurgeon, 2018 Based on 1 Timothy 6:12 Fight the good fight of faith this was C H Spurgeon's final address to the students at the Pastors College in 1891 Identifying the great foes to be false doctrine worldliness and sin he focuses on the Bible as our armoury the sole authority for believers in all things the Church as all being involved in the battle and the Holy Spirit upon whom we depend entirely for success in the warfare The preaching ministry of C H Spurgeon saw thousands converted and he also worked tirelessly to inspire preachers to be valiant for the truth through the Pastors College He knew much of the warfare of which he spoke personal health challenges and his costly stand against doctrinal decline and compromise gave him insights which he shares here The clarion call to active service in The Greatest Fight in the World is as relevant today as when first delivered The Greatest Fight in the World Charles H. In this annotated edition of Charles Haddon Spurgeon s final address to the Pastors College Conference in 1891 C E the renowned preacher delivers a resolute call to ministers for unwavering fidelity in the spiritual conflict against doctrinal error and moral compromise Spurgeon structures his exhortation around three core elements the inspired Word as the exclusive armory the church as God s called out army and the Holy Spirit as indispensable strength mediated through Scripture He emphasizes diligent preparation birthed in prayer the Bible s inerrant sufficiency tested through trials the church s need for purity and missionary zeal and absolute dependence on the Spirit for effective ministry while warning against actions that grieve divine enablement This edition preserves Spurgeon s original text while providing expansions through conservative evangelical exegesis applying the historical grammatical method to uncover authorial intent in passages like 2 Timothy 3 16 17 and Ephesians 6 10 18 Annotations address contemporary challenges to biblical authority affirming critical texts 99 99% fidelity to originals and rejecting subjective interpretations Appendices offer deeper analysis on prayer s power James 5 16 inerrancy defenses Psalm 12 6 church discipline 1 Corinthians 5 the Spirit s Word centered operation John 16 13 ministerial surrender Exodus 4 10 12 and contention for faith Jude 3 Ideal for pastors scholars and believers seeking rigorous engagement with Scripture s role in advancing truth this work upholds evangelical principles of inerrancy and literal interpretation equipping readers for faithful service in an age of theological drift The Greatest Fight Charles H. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of human wisdom but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power 1 Corinthians 2 4 This book examines three things that are of utmost importance in this fight of faith The first is our armory which is the inspired Word of God The second is our army the church of the living God which we must lead under our Lord s command The third is our strength by which we wear the armor and use the sword The message in this book when originally presented by Charles Spurgeon in his final address to his own Pastor s College was received rapturously and enthusiastically It was almost immediately published and distributed around the world and in several languages After Charles Spurgeon s death in 1892 34 000 copies were printed and distributed to pastors and leaders in England through Mrs Spurgeon s book fund It is with great pleasure that we present this updated and very relevant book to the Lord s army of today The Greatest Fight in the World: Spurgeon's Final Manifesto Charles H. Spurgeon,2018-03-05

By April 1891 when Spurgeon addressed the annual conference of the Pastors College for the last time he was an experienced and battle worn soldier Spurgeon considered it the life work of a pastor to be engaged in a crusade against error and sin He fully appreciated what it was to fight the good fight of faith In The Greatest Fight in the World this final annual address to his fellow pastors and Pastors College students Spurgeon offers practical advice on how to approach the battle He does so under three martial metaphors Our Armoury the Scriptures Our Army the church and Our Strength the Holy Spirit The Greatest Fight in the World is a book for every pastor It will stimulate and inspire an approach to the pastoral task which is orderly and intelligent and which above all recognises and has confidence in the God from whom the strength to engage in battle comes *The Greatest Fight in the World : "Fight the Good Fight of Faith.", I.
