Green Consumption The Global Rise Of Eco Chic:

Green Consumption Bart Barendregt, Rivke Jaffe, 2020-05-15 Green lifestyles and ethical consumption have become increasingly popular strategies in moving towards environmentally friendly societies and combating global poverty Where previously environmentalists saw excess consumption as central to the problem green consumerism now places consumption at the heart of the solution However ethical and sustainable consumption are also important forms of central to the creation and maintenance of class distinction Green Consumption scrutinizes the emergent phenomenon of what this book terms eco chic a combination of lifestyle politics environmentalism spirituality beauty and health Eco chic connects ethical sustainable and elite consumption It is increasingly part of the identity kit of certain sections of society who seek to combine taste and style with care for personal wellness and the environment This book deals with eco chic as a set of activities an ideological framework and a popular marketing strategy offering a critical examination of its manifestations in both the global North and South The diverse case studies presented in this book range from Basque sheep cheese production and Ghanaian Afro chic hairstyles to Asian tropical spa culture and Dutch fair trade jewellery initiatives The authors assess the ways in which eco chic with its apparent paradox of consumption and idealism can make a genuine contribution to solving some of the most pressing problems of our time

Green Consumption Bart Barendregt, Rivke Jaffe, 2014 Sustainable Consumption Lucie Middlemiss, 2018-06-04 Sustainable Consumption Key Issues provides a concise introduction to the field of sustainable consumption outlining the contribution of the key disciplines in this multi disciplinary area and detailing the way in which both the problem and the potential for solutions are understood Divided into three parts the book begins by introducing the concept of sustainable consumption outlining the environmental impacts of current consumption trends and placing these impacts in social context The central section looks at six contrasting explanations of sustainable consumption in the public domain detailing the stories that are told about why people act in the way they do This section also explores the theory and evidence around each of these stories linking them to a range of disciplines and approaches in the social sciences The final section takes a broader look at the solutions proposed by sustainable consumption scholars and practitioners outlining the visions of the future that are put forward to counteract damage to environment and society Each chapter highlights key authors and real world examples to encourage students to broaden their understanding of the topic and to think critically about how their daily lives intersect with environmental and ethical issues Exploring the ways in which critical thinking and an understanding of sustainable consumption can be used in daily life as well as in professional practice this book is essential reading for students academics professionals and policy makers with an interest in this growing field

Food Identities at Home and on the Move Raul Matta, Charles-Edouard de Suremain, Chantal Crenn, 2020-06-08 How does food restore the fragmented world of migrants and the displaced What similar processes are involved in challenging maintaining or reinforcing divisions between groups coexisting in the same living place Food Identities at Home and on the Move examines how home is negotiated around food in the current worldwide context of uncertainty mobility and displacement Drawing on empirical approaches to heritage identity and migration studies the contributors analyse the relationship between food and the various understandings of home and dwelling With case studies on sushi around the world food as heritage in the Afghan diaspora and Mexican foodways in Chicago these chapters offer novel readings on the convergence of food and migration studies the anthropology of space and place and the field of mobility by focusing on how entangled stories of food and home are put on display for constructing the present and imagining the future Green Asia Tania Lewis,2016-09-13 Economic development in Asia is associated with expanding urbanism overconsumption and a steep growth in living standards At the same time rapid urbanisation changing class consciousness and a new rural urban divide in the region have led to fundamental shifts in the way ecological concerns are articulated politically and culturally Moreover these changes are often viewed through a Western moralistic lens which at the same time applauds Asia s economic growth as the welcome revival of a floundering world economy and simultaneously condemns this growth as encouraging hyperconsumerism and a rupture with more natural ways of living This book presents an analysis of a range of practices and activities from across Asia that demonstrate that people in Asia are alert to ecological concerns that they are taking action to implement new styles of green living and that Asia offers interesting alternatives to narrow Anglo American models of sustainable living Subjects explored include eco tourism in the Philippines green co operatives in Korea the importance of tradition within Asian discourses of sustainability and much more Consumption, Status, and Sustainability Paul Roscoe,Cindy Isenhour,2021-08-12 Focuses information from across time and culture on the relationships among status competition consumption and planetary sustainability Research Handbook on Ethical Consumption Marylyn Carrigan,Victoria K. Wells,Karolos A. Papadas,2023-05-09 Presenting a contemporary reflection on ethical and sustainable consumption this insightful Research Handbook offers discussions on the challenges and complexity of living an ethical and sustainable life and for the researchers who study them Featuring cutting edge multidisciplinary research from authors with unique perspectives and expert insights this Research Handbook takes a deeper look at the past present and future of ethical and sustainable consumption

Ecologies of Guilt in Environmental Rhetorics Tim Jensen,2019-10-28 Environmental rhetorics have expanded awareness of mass extinction climate change and pervasive pollution yet failed to generate collective action that adequately addresses such pressing matters This book contends that the anemic response to ecological upheaval is due in part to an inability to navigate novel forms of environmental guilt Combining affect theory with rhetorical analysis to examine a range of texts and media Ecologies of Guilt in Environmental Rhetorics positions guilt as a keystone emotion for contemporary environmental communication and explores how it is provoked perpetuated and framed through everyday discourse In revealing the need for emotional literacies that productively engage our complicity in global ecological harm the book looks to a future where guilt and its symbiotic relationships with anger shame and grief is shaped in tune with the ecologies that sustain us Alternative Economies and Spaces Hans-Martin Zademach, Sebastian Hillebrand, 2014-04-15 The volume entails a collection of contributions by leading scholars Raymond Bryant Michael K Goodman Benjamin Huybrechts Andrew E G Jonas Roger Lee Peter North and Katinka Weber concerned with alternative modes of economic and social exchange The cases addressed in these contributions including credit unions alternative currencies sustainable consumption and social enterprises deliver valuable insights into how such alternatives are performed at various scales and spaces in relation to and beyond the economic mainstream In sum the collection provides vital grounds for both a transition of the economic system towards a more sustainable one and a reconceptualisation of the economic itself in our scholarly thinking and everyday lives

Food and Communication Mark McWilliams, 2016 The papers explored the use of food and cookery to explore the past and the exotic and food in corporations Neoliberalism Matthew Eagleton-Pierce, 2016-05-20 Neoliberalism The Key Concepts provides a critical guide to a vocabulary that has become globally dominant over the past forty years The language of neoliberalism both constructs and expresses a particular vision of economics politics and everyday life Some find this vision to be appealing but many others find the contents and implications of neoliberalism to be alarming Despite the popularity of these concepts they often remain confusing the product of contested histories meanings and practices In an accessible way this interdisciplinary resource explores and dissects key terms such as Capitalism Choice Competition Entrepreneurship Finance Flexibility Freedom Governance Market Reform Stakeholder State Complete with an introductory essay cross referencing and an extensive bibliography this book provides a unique and insightful introduction to the study of neoliberalism in all its forms and disguises What Is the Impact of Green Practices? Tamara Thompson, 2016-02-09 Consumers have long been encouraged to reduce reuse and recycle but environmental awareness has come a long way since the first Earth Day in 1970 Blue trash bins are everywhere the eye can see and consumers know they have places to put certain materials to make a helpful impact on waste management People are reminded in stores restaurants and other places that they can reuse items or reduce waste by using items sparingly This book examines what effect if any practicing the three R s has had on the planet giving readers both sides of the topic Globalizing Organic Rafi Groszlik, 2021-02-01 Globalizing Organic focuses on the globalization of a culture of eating for change and the ways in which local meanings attached to the production of foods embed ecological and social values Rafi Groszlik examines how organic agriculture was integrated in Israel a state in which agriculture was a key mechanism in promoting Jewish nationalism and in time has become highly mechanized and technologically sophisticated He explores how organic food which signifies environmental protection and social equity has been realized in a country where environmental issues are perceived as less pressing compared to inner political conflicts the Israeli Arab conflict and recurrent wars Based on more than a decade of ethnographic fieldwork interviews and analysis of historical documents and media Groszlik traces how alternative food movements are affected by global and local trends He covers a wide range of topics including the ethos of halutzim pioneers

Zionist ideological farmers and workers the utopian visions of the Israeli kibbutz indigeneity that is claimed both by Palestinians and Jewish settlers in the Gaza Strip and in the West Bank biblical meanings that have been ascribed to environmental and countercultural ideas the Americanization of Israeli society and its neoliberalized economy

The ^AOxford Handbook of Political Consumerism Magnus Boström, Michele Micheletti, Peter Oosterveer, 2019-01-25 This volume offers the first comprehensive theoretical and comparative overview of the ways in which the market becomes a political arena It maps the four major forms of political consumerism boycotting buycotting spending to show support lifestyle politics and discursive actions such as culture jamming Chapters by leading scholars examine political consumerism in different locations and industry sectors and in consideration of environmental and human rights problems political events and the ethics of production and manufacturing practices

Food and Sustainability Paul Behrens, Thijs Bosker, David Ehrhardt, 2020 How can we provide sufficient and sustainable food for all And how might we do this in the context of economic growth population increases and climate change around the world As with many other complex global challenges the transition towards sustainable food defies easy solutions Food and Sustainability presents you with state of the art knowledge of the main dimensions of food sustainability and uses case studies throughout to help you see how to apply the principles and theories set out in each chapter to real world problems In addition Food controversy panels highlight how very often there is no single right answer to the problems being faced and different viewpoints need to be weighed alongside one another to find workable solutions Book jacket

Feminist Perspectives on Advertising Kim Golombisky, 2018-11-29 This volume edited by Kim Golombisky applies an intersectional lens to advertising focusing on gender race ethnicity sexuality disability age class and nationality Intersectional feminist perspectives on advertising are rare in the advertising industry even as it faces pressure to reform This anthology focuses on advertising messaging to follow up the professional practices covered in Feminists Feminisms and Advertising edited by Kim Golombisky and Peggy Kreshel In this new collection contributors write from a variety of perspectives including Black African lesbian transnational poststructuralist material commodity and environmental feminisms The authors also discuss the reproductive justice framework feminist disability studies feminist ethnography feminist discourse analysis and feminist visual rhetoric Together these scholars introduce big ideas for feminist advertising studies The first section titled Historicize This includes work dealing with historicized analyses of advertising ranging from more than a century of stereotypes about black women to early twentieth century white women purchasing automobiles all contextualized with women s complex relations with technologies from cars to Twitter The second section Advertising Body Politics groups work on topics related to body politics in advertising including lesbians disabled women aging women and Chinese promotion girls The third section Media Reps revisits advertising representation in novel ways from operational definitions of race and advertising news about gay men to advertising twenty first century masculinities in Ghana and the United States The last section Reproduction and Postfeminist Empowerment ends the book with a selection of case studies on the advertising industry's cooptation and commodification of feminism particularly in regressive postfeminist ideologies about women's reproductive health and mothering
