Green Leader Operation Gatling The Rhodesian Militarys Response To The Viscount Tragedy:

Green Leader Ian Pringle, 2016-09-15 On 3 September 1978 a Russian supplied heat seeking missile shot down an Air Rhodesia Viscount civilian airliner shortly after it took off from the lakeside holiday resort of Kariba in the Zambezi Valley Miraculously 18 people including small children survived the crash only for most of them to be gunned down in cold blood shortly after the crash by terrorists loyal to the Zimbabwe African People s Union ZAPU leader Joshua Nkomo Just days before the plane was shot down the Rhodesian leader Ian Smith had met secretly with Nkomo for discussions brokered by Britain Zambia and Nigeria However this event dramatically changed the political landscape and wrecked a plan by the British government to mold an alliance between Smith and the Ndebele leader Nkomo and smoothed the path for the Shona leader Robert Mugabe to become the first leader of Zimbabwe In this fascinating two part account Ian Pringle author of Dingo Firestorm describes the Viscount tragedy and the military response He uses exclusive interviews with two survivors of the crash and the massacre and with the first person to arrive at the horrendous crash scene commanding officer of the Rhodesian SAS Regiment as well as accounts from other key witnesses to recreate the tragic event He describes the white hot anger felt by the small white community in Rhodesia who howled for revenge and demanded martial law and total war The Rhodesian military responded with Operation Gatling a risky three phased revenge attack on Nkomo s guerilla bases and infrastructure in Zambia The prime target was Nkomo s military headquarters on the outskirts of Lusaka the Zambian capital The author uses a cockpit voice recording from the lead Canberra bomber and exclusive interviews with the lead navigator and pilots involved in the raid to tell a fascinating authentic and gripping story of the audacious attack which became known as the Green Leader Raid On the same day as Green Leader two more bases in Zambia were attacked using air power and elite paratroops and helitroops in a well honed tactic known as vertical envelopment Pringle uses his own experience as a jet and helicopter pilot and skydiver as well as top secret documents and interviews with key personnel involved in Operation Gatling to recreate a gripping account of Rhodesia s first large scale attacks on Zambia He describes the aftermath another tragedy and a reprisal attack in Angola which brought southern Africa to the very brink of a full scale regional war Green Leader is an exciting recreation of a calamitous time in southern African history

Truth, Silence and Violence in Emerging States Aidan Russell, 2018-10-31 Around the world in the twentieth century political violence in emerging states gave rise to different kinds of silence within their societies This book explores the histories of these silences how they were made maintained evaded and transformed This book gives a comprehensive view of the ongoing evolutions and multiple faces of silence as a common strand in the struggles of state building It begins with chapters that examine the construction of regimes of silence as an act of power and it continues through explorations of the ambiguous limits of speech within communities marked by this violence It highlights national and transnational attempts to combat state silences before concluding with a series of considerations of how these regimes of silence continue to be extrapolated in the gaps of records and written history This volume explores histories of the composed silences of political violence across the emerging states of the late twentieth century not solely as a present concern of aftermath or retrospection but as a diachronic social and political dimension of violence itself This book makes a major original contribution to international history as well as to the study of political terror human rights violations social recovery and historical memory Fighting and Writing Luise White,2021-02-08 In Fighting and Writing Luise White brings the force of her historical insight to bear on the many war memoirs published by white soldiers who fought for Rhodesia during the 1964 1979 Zimbabwean liberation struggle In the memoirs of white soldiers fighting to defend white minority rule in Africa long after other countries were independent White finds a robust and contentious conversation about race difference and the war itself These are writings by men who were ambivalent conscripts generally aware of the futility of their fight not brutal pawns flawlessly executing the orders and parroting the rhetoric of a racist regime Moreover most of these men insisted that the most important aspects of fighting a guerrilla war tracking and hunting knowledge of the land and of the ways of African society were learned from black playmates in idealized rural childhoods In these memoirs African guerrillas never lost their association with the wild even as white soldiers boasted of bringing Africans into the intimate spaces of regiment and regime
