The Private Parts of Women Lesley Glaister, 2014-12-30 From the award winning author of Honour Thy Father Who's a threat to whom in this spine chilling novel of split personality The Times London Inis has no interest in finding out who she is She wants to discover who she isn't One day in her least favorite month of February Inis bleaches her hair abandons the husband and children she loves and closes the door forever on family marriage and her comfortable suburban London home There she was safe appreciated and loved and she hated every minute of it Now she's ended up in a dreary little flat in the grey post industrial town of Sheffield Here in the neighborhood of Mercy Terrace Inis is being watched There is the boy who steals things and plays until he gets hurt There is Inis's neighbor Trixie an eighty year old hymnist for the Salvation Army who grows hyacinths and enjoys afternoon tea And Ada who lives to be desired As Inis watches them she fears they share more than this shabby dead end street As four people's lives begin to converge Inis gets increasingly nervous because she's not certain which of them herself included could be dangerous to the others Or which one will survive Lesley Glaister's novel of multiple personality disorder was inspired by Flora Rheta Schreiber's Sybil As Glaister tells it in the Independent I was 10 when I read it I was fascinated by the idea of 16 different personalities being packed into one body with one face I remember longing to suffer from the same problem A stream of consciousness thriller well worth reading twice The Literary Review
