

GUST FRONT

A detailed science fiction illustration of a planet's surface. In the foreground, a large, dark, circular orbital station or space platform is positioned, featuring multiple gun turrets and structural details. The planet's surface is rugged and brownish, with some smaller structures visible. In the upper right, a bright sun or star is visible, casting a strong glow and illuminating the scene. Several spacecraft or shuttles are depicted in the sky, some appearing to be in flight or orbiting. The overall tone is dramatic and futuristic.
