Love Poetry in the Spanish Golden Age Isabel Torres, 2013 This work engages with a broader evaluation of early modern poetics that foregrounds the processes rather than the products of thinking The locus of the study is the Imperial home space where love poetry meets early modern empire at the inception of a very conflicted national consciousness and where the vernacular language Castilian emerges in the encounter as a strategic site of national and imperial identity The political is therefore a pervasive presence teased out where relevant in recognition of the poet's sensitivity to the ideologies within which writing comes into being But the primary commitment of the book is to lyric poetry and to poets individually and in their dynamic interconnectedness Moving beyond a re-evaluation of critical responses to four major poets of the period Garcilaso de la Vega Herrera Gongora and Quevedo this study disengages respectfully with the substantial body of biographical research that continues to impact upon our understanding of the genre and renegotiates the Foucauldian concept of the epistemic break often associated with the anti-mimetic impulses of the Baroque This more flexible model accommodates the multiperspectivism that interrogated Imperial ideology even in the earliest sixteenth century poetry and allows for the exploration of new horizons in interpretation Cover page 4

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1917 Spanish Female Writers and the Freethinking Press, 1879-1926 Christine Arkinstall, 2014-03-21 Christine Arkinstall's historical and literary study of female freethinking intellectuals in fin de siècle Spain examines the contributions of three intellectuals Amalia Domingo Soler Angeles Lopez de Ayala and Belén Serraga to the development of feminist consciousness and democracy These women wrote for edited and published radical and feminist periodicals that until now have been left unstudied This significant gap in the scholarship has left us without an accurate sense of Spanish women's involvement in the public realm. Spanish Female Writers and the Freethinking Press 1879-1926 recovers the lost history and literary contributions these women made to the so-called Generation of 1898. Using their extensive published works, Arkinstall not only illuminates the lives of Domingo Soler, Lpez de Ayala, and Srraga but traces the connections between feminism, freethinking, republicanism, freemasonry, anarchism, and socialism. By placing these women's work in the broader literary, social, and political context of the period, Arkinstall's study makes a major contribution to our understanding of the central role of women in late nineteenth and early twentieth century democracy in Spain.

Carlo Acutis Courtney Mares, 2025-05-13 How does a city boy who only lived to the age of fifteen go viral more than a decade after he died? Discover the story of Blessed Carlo Acutis, the first millennial to be beatified by the Catholic Church. Born in 1991, the same year as the launch of the World Wide Web, Carlo has been hailed by the pope as an example of love and holiness in our complex digital age. This tech-savvy Italian teen has shown the world that computer coding and video games are no obstacle to sainthood. From a young age, Carlo's enthusiasm for Jesus was contagious. His witness brought his own family back to faith and even helped convert his Hindu au pair to Catholicism. Carlo called the Eucharist my highway to heaven and was eager to tell everyone about the incredible reality of Christ's true presence in the world. To this end, he used his computer to help design an exhibition dedicated to eucharistic miracles that has traversed the globe. Vatican journalist Courtney Mares has traveled in the footsteps of Acutis across Italy to tell his story in depth, interviewing many whose lives he helped transform. This book paints a portrait of him as seen through the eyes of his friends, family, teachers, priests, doctors, classmates, and followers. Features an eight-page color photo insert and an account of the miracles attributed to Acutis' intercession, including one certified by the Vatican. Carlo sought no attention for himself while alive; yet in the years after his death, he has become a global influencer for God.
