

The background of the book cover is a dark, moody photograph. It features a laptop with its screen open, and several papers or documents are scattered around it, some overlapping the laptop. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and deep shadows, creating a sense of depth and focus on the technology and documents.

Enacting Research Methods in Information Systems: Volume 1 Leslie P. Willcocks,Chris Sauer,Mary C. Lacity,2016-05-30 This edited three volume edition brings together significant papers previously published in the Journal of Information Technology JIT over its 30 year publication history. The three volumes of Enacting Research Methods in Information Systems celebrate the methodological pluralism used to advance our understanding of information technology's role in the world today. In addition to quantitative methods from the positivist tradition, JIT also values methodological articles from critical research perspectives, interpretive traditions, historical perspectives, grounded theory, and action research and design science approaches. Volume 1 covers Critical Research, Grounded Theory, and Historical Approaches. Volume 2 deals with Interpretive Approaches and also explores Action Research. Volume 3 focuses on Design Science Approaches and discusses Alternative Approaches including Semiotics, Research Complexity, Theory, and Gender in IS Research. The Journal of Information Technology JIT was started in 1986 by Professors Frank Land and Igor Aleksander with the aim of bringing technology and management together and bridging the great divide between the two disciplines. The Journal was created with the vision of making the impact of complex interactions and developments in technology more accessible to a wider audience. Retaining this initial focus, the JIT has gone on to extend into new and innovative areas of research such as the launch of JITTTC in 2010. A high impact journal, JIT shall continue to publish leading trends based on significant research in the field.

Managing Dynamic Networks
Stefan Klein, Angeliki Poulymenakou, 2006-04-28. Collaboration of organizations reshapes traditional managerial practices and creates new inter-organizational contexts for strategy coordination and control, information and knowledge management. Heralded as organizational forms of the future, networks are at the same time fragile and precarious organizational arrangements which regularly fail. In order to investigate the new realities created by technology-enabled forms of network organizations and to address the emerging managerial challenges, this book introduces an integrative view on inter-firm network management. Centred on a network life cycle perspective, strategic, economic, and relational facets of business networking are explored. The network management framework is illustrated onto a broad range of European inter-firm network examples in various industries, rendering insights for new management practices.
