The circle at once widened round us and our offers of reward were received in dispiriting silence. We were plainly a pair of Bluebeards to the children; they might speak to us in public places and where they had the advantage of numbers; but it was another thing to venture off alone with two uncouth and legendary characters who had dropped from the clouds upon their hamlet. This quiet afternoon sashed and beknived and with a flavor of great voyages from Pont sur Sambre. We are Peddlers. The sly wit and keenly observant eye that makes Robert Louis Stevenson a continuing favorite with readers is in full force in this 1913 volume, a compilation of two of the writer's least known but most purely enjoyable works. In 1876 Stevenson canoed through Belgium and France with his friend Sir Walter Simpson, an exploit that resulted in the delightful An Inland Voyage; two years later he took a walking tour of the C vanne which became Travels with a Donkey. More than just wonderfully escapist, these essays offer a glimpse into the mind and memories of an author's imagination and serve as a vital psychological backdrop for the tales of adventure, romance, and horror related in Stevenson's fiction. OF INTEREST TO Stevenson fans, armchair travelers, readers of classic British literature. Also available from Cosimo Classics. Stevenson's Across the Plains.
