Mission & Science Carine Dujardin, Claude Prudhomme, 2015-03-26 Science as an instrument to justify religious missions in secular society The relationship between religion and science is complex and continues to be a topical issue However it is seldom zoomed in on from both Protestant and Catholic perspectives By doing so the contributing authors in this collection gain new insights into the origin and development of missiology Missiology is described in this book as a project of modernity a contemporary form of apologetics Scientific apologetics was the way to justify missions in a society that was rapidly becoming secularized Mission Science deals with the interaction between new scientific disciplines historiography geography ethnology anthropology linguistics and new scientific insights Darwin's evolutionary theory heliocentrism as well as the role of the papacy and what inspired missionary practice first in China and the Far East and later in Africa The renewed missiology has in turn influenced the missionary practice of the twentieth century guided by apostolic policy Some missionary scholars have even had a significant influence on the scientific discourse of their time An Assessment of Mass

Ontmoeting van protestantse christenen met andere godsdiensten en geloven (1917-2017) Jan A.B. Jongeneel, 2018-09-04
Nederlandse zendingsgeschiedenis Deel II van Jan Jongeneel behandelt de Nederlandse zendingsgeschiedenis vanaf De Eerste Wereldoorlog tot nu Al sinds de Verenigde Oost Indische Compagnie en West Indische Compagnie waaieren protestantse Nederlanders naar alle windstreken uit Dat is zo gebleven in de postkoloniale periode Predikanten zendelingen en bijbelvertalers lopen voorop bij het nadenken over andere godsdiensten en geloven en bij het ontmoeten van hun aanhangers Het eerste deel van dit handboek besprak de ontwikkelingen tot de Eerste Wereldoorlog Philosophy, Science, and Theology of Mission in the 19th and 20th Centuries: The philosophy and science of mission J. A. B. Jongeneel, 1995 Missiology, 1979 An international review Reformed and Ecumenical, 2021-11-15 Farewell to Innocence Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2015-05-01 While we acknowledge that all expressions of liberation theology are not identical we must protest very strongly against the false divisions that some make between black theology in South Africa and black theology in the United States between black theology and African theology and between black theology and Latin American liberation theology But moving away from the illusioned universality of western theology to the contextuality of liberation theology is a risky business one that cannot be done innocently In the search for theological and human authenticity in its own situation black theology does not stand alone It is but one expression of this search going on within many different contexts Until now the Christian church had chosen to move through history with a bland kind of innocence hiding the painful truths of oppression behind a facade of myths and real or imagined anxieties This is no longer possible The oppressed who believe in God the Father of Jesus Christ no longer want to believe in the myths created to subjugate them It is no longer possible to innocently accept history as it happens silently hoping that God would take the responsibility for human failure The theology of liberation spells out this realization For the Christian church it constitutes in no uncertain terms farewell to innocence Nes Ammim Gert van Klinken, 2021 Today Europe is a favoured destination for refugees from all over the world We might have forgotten an earlier exodus during the aftermath of the Second World War in the opposite direction Jewish survivors of the Holocaust aimed for Palestine and after 1948 the State of Israel Protestants from the Netherlands Switzerland America and Germany intended to join the Jewish people in their new homeland by building the village Nes Ammim The Netherlands had been occupied during the war Switzerland had remained neutral Germany carried the taints of guilt and defeat the United States the laurels of the victor What made them work together And why did the Americans and the Swiss withdraw in 1967 the year of the Six Day War The many questions surrounding this village do not end here Nes Ammim was founded near Akko in 1962 Just fourteen years earlier a majority of the local population had been Druze or Arab Most of the Arabs ended up as refugees and their land was repurposed for the kibbutzim How did Protestants relate to these events It is not the intention of the author to impose present day views onto the Christian founders of Nes Ammim The challenge of understanding their mindset within the context of their time is exactly what makes them so fascinating
