Nicolaas van Wijk (1880-1941) Jan Paul Hinrichs, 2006-01-01 Nicolaas van Wijk 1880 1941 was the founder of Slavic studies in the Netherlands and one of the greatest Slavists in general This book describes for the first time how a scholar of the Dutch language whose etymological dictionary of the Dutch language is still considered the best of its kind was appointed in 1913 to the newly created Chair in Slavic languages at Leiden University and built up a tremendous reputation for himself in Eastern Europe Van Wijk s relations with his famous teacher the linguist C C Uhlenbeck are followed attentively as is his postgraduate apprenticeship in Leipzig 1902 1903 where he followed August Leskien s lectures in Slavic studies Attention is also paid to the various aspects of Van Wijk s enormous oeuvre covering the whole field of Slavic studies and of phonology of which he was one of the pioneers Van Wijk did not however follow the lines approved for the social conduct of a Leiden professor and was at one time suspected by the police of communist activities His commitment to materially helping all he could from an Eastern Europe torn apart by the First World War and its aftermath was exceptional His fascination with all things Russian is a background theme that played throughout his life and even at his death son of a Dutch Reformed minister the bachelor Van Wijk was buried in a grave surmounted by a Russian Orthodox cross beside his Russian foster son who died young This book is of interest to Slavists linguists and cultural historians

The fourteen papers in this volume Studies in Dutch Phonology were collected by the editors in the course of 1977 and 1978 at the request of the editorial board of Dutch Studies In their opinion the collection represents a fair cross section of current research done in the field of phonology both inside and outside the Netherlands and therefore constitutes a very suitable starting point for the new series Dutch Studies of the Internationale Vereniging voor Neerlandistiek In the various contributions one will find treated several issues of current phonological interest such as phonotactic constraints by Brink abstractness by Goyvaerts Robinson Tiersma Trommelen and Zonneveld stress assignment and vowel reduction by Van Marle and Predota the interaction between phonology and morphology by Kooij De Rooij Bronkhorst and Schultink rule ordering Taeldeman and lexical diffusion Gerritsen and Jansen and Zonneveld These issues are discussed in relation to a number of well known traditional topics of Dutch phonology such as affixal stress attraction constraints on consonant clusters separable and inseparable verb forms stress and vowel reduction in derived vs non derived and native vs foreign Dutch words Auslautverhartung and assimilation of voice in obstruent clusters regularity and irregularity in open syllable lengthening diminutive formation plural formation and the weakening of intervocalic d and the properties and phonological representation of diphthongs Frans van Coetsem's paper Loan Phonology the Example of Dutch originally intended as a contribution to this volume but not completed as it went to the press will appear elsewhere
