Inleiding Tot De Studie Van Het Nederlandse Strafrecht Dutch Ed

Henk ten Have, Jos Welie

Inleiding Tot De Studie Van Het Nederlandse Strafrecht Dutch Ed:

Euthanasia and Law in the Netherlands John Griffiths, Alex Bood, Heleen Weyers, 1998 The Netherlands is the only country in the world in which euthanasia under narrow defined circumstances is legally permissible Considerable attention has been paid over a number of years to the problem of regulating it and information has been systematically collected concerning actual practice Therefore the Dutch experience is of interest not only to the Dutch but to anyone who is considering whether or not to make euthanasia a legal practice This book is written for a reader without specific knowledge of law The central focus of the book is on Dutch law pertaining to euthanasia but it also considers the moral and legal principles that have played a role in the Dutch debate the available evidence bearing on actual practice and on the effectiveness of legal control It ends with some reflections on the problem of the slippery slope and the question whether the Dutch experience is exportable It includes translations of the relevant legislation including proposed reforms and of three leading cases

Netherlands Reports to the XIth International Congress of Comparative Law Caracas 1982 H. D'Oliveira, 2013-11-11 Last year I addressed the Netherlands Comparative Law Association with the following question Does Comparative Law Exist At All My intention then was to flog the dead horse of the merger of comparative law and the sociology of law In presenting this voluminous collection of Netherlands national reports to the eleventh congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law I feel my misgivings giving way to the suspicion that comparative law indeed exists Of course national reports do not as such prove the existence of comparative law It is the general reports together with the national reports which embody the comparative effort That is why the Netherlands Comparative Law Association took the initiative to propose the publishing of the materials on a subject to subject basis instead of publishing collections of national reports From a comparative legal point of view it is the topic that should form the basis of the publication and not the origin of the materials The general reporter for each topic should be prepared to take up the responsibilities of editing the volume and would have to be given the right to select those national reports which he considers to be useful both in regard to their quality and the relevance of the material to the basic problems in the questionnaire This proposal met with very favourable comments from the national committees and general reporters of some fifteen countries

Introduction to Dutch Law D. C. Fokkema, 1978 Handbook providing a general introduction to Dutch law in the English language covering the whole system in its different branches such as private law criminal law constitutional law fiscal law economic law labour law and international law Homicide in Criminal Law Alan

Reed, Michael Bohlander, 2018-10-03 This volume presents a leading contribution to the substantive arena relating to homicide in the criminal law In broad terms the ambit of homicide standardisations in extant law is contestable and opaque This book provides a logical template to focus the debate The overall concept addresses three specific elements within this arena embracing an overarching synergy between them This edifice engages in an examination of UK provisions and in contrasting these provisions against alternative domestic jurisdictions as well as comparative contributions addressing a particularised research grid for content The comparative chapters provide a wider background of how other legal systems treat a variety of specialised issues relating to homicide in the context of the criminal law The debate in relation to homicide continues apace for academics practitioners and within the criminal justice system Having expert descriptions of the wider issues surrounding the particular discussion and of other legal systems approaches serves to stimulate and inform that debate This collection will be a major source of reference for future discussion An Outline of the Recent History of Indonesian Criminal Law Han Bing Siong, 2014-10-22 Substantive Criminal Law of the European Union André Klip, 2011 The book is the result of the conference Substantive Criminal Law of the European Union organised by the Criminal Law Department of Maastricht University on 20 and 21 January 2011 with the generous support of the Faculty of Law of Maastricht University the Koninklijke Nederlandse Academie van Wetenschappen the Department of Criminal Law and Criminology of Maastricht University and the Hague Institute for the Internationalisation of Law HIIL Gender and Careers in the Legal Academy Ulrike Schultz, Gisela Shaw, Margaret Thornton, Rosemary Auchmuty, 2021-02-25 In the past fifteen years there has been a marked increase in the international scholarship relating to women in law The lives and careers of women in legal practice and the judiciary have been extensively documented and critiqued but the central conundrum remains Does the presence of women make a difference What has been largely overlooked in the literature is the position of women in the legal academy although central to the changing culture To remedy the oversight an international network of scholars embarked on a comparative study which resulted in this path breaking book The contributors uncover fascinating accounts of the careers of the academic pioneers as well as exploring broader theoretical issues relating to gender and culture The provocative question as to whether the presence of women makes a difference informs each contribution European Data Protection: Coming of Age Serge Gutwirth, Ronald Leenes, Paul de Hert, Yves Pouillet, 2012-11-26 On 25 January 2012 the European Commission presented its long awaited new Data protection package With this proposal for a drastic revision of the data protection framework in Europe it is fair to say that we are witnessing a rebirth of European data protection and perhaps its passage from an impulsive youth to a more mature state Technology advances rapidly and mobile devices are significantly changing the landscape Increasingly we carry powerful connected devices whose location and activities can be monitored by various stakeholders Very powerful social network sites emerged in the first half of last decade processing personal data of many millions of users Updating the regulatory network was imminent and the presentation of the new package will initiate a period of intense debate in which the proposals will be thoroughly commented upon and criticized and numerous amendments will undoubtedly be proposed This volume brings together some 19 chapters offering conceptual analyses highlighting issues proposing solutions and discussing practices regarding privacy and data protection In the first part of the book conceptual analyses of concepts such as privacy and anonymity are provided The second section focuses on the contrasted positions of digital natives and ageing users in the information society The third section provides four chapters on privacy by design including discussions on roadmapping and concrete techniques The fourth section is devoted to surveillance and profiling with illustrations from the domain of smart metering self surveillance and the benefits and risks of profiling The book concludes with case studies pertaining to communicating privacy in organisations the fate of a dataprotection supervisor in one of the EU member states and data protection in social network sites and online media This volume brings together some 19 chapters offering conceptual analyses highlighting issues proposing solutions and discussing practices regarding privacy and data protection In the first part of the book conceptual analyses of concepts such as privacy and anonymity are provided The second section focuses on the contrasted positions of digital natives and ageing users in the information society The third section provides four chapters on privacy by design including discussions on roadmapping and concrete techniques The fourth section is devoted to surveillance and profiling with illustrations from the domain of smart metering self surveillance and the benefits and risks of profiling The book concludes with case studies pertaining to communicating privacy in organisations the fate of a data protection supervisor in one of the EU member states and data protection in social network sites and online media

Implementing and Enforcing European Fisheries Law Astrid Berg, 2023-09-20 Within the European Union overfishing overcapacity and non compliance with the system of catch quotas are threatening the very existence of some fisheries resources In dealing with these problems the Common Fisheries Policy CFP has developed into one of the most regulated areas of the European Union Yet in order to provide for the necessary implementation and enforcement frameworks the European Union strongly relies on the Member States a reliance on fifteen different legal systems with different regulatory capacities different legal traditions and different enforcement systems of criminal law administrative law private law or disciplinary law Implementing and Enforcing European Fisheries Laws focuses on the legal and practical problems of the implementation and enforcement of the EU s catch quotas in a shared legal order It examines in detail how effective enforcement can be achieved in a process of European integration A distinctive feature of this book is the attention given to the trend towards sectoralization whereby management and enforcement responsibilities are shared between the central government and organisations representing fishermen To what extent does sectoralization affect traditional systems of public law enforcement What does resort to the fishing sector itself mean for the degree of legal control Member States exercise over these systems The book is divided into three sections Part One examines the Community law context Part Two investigates implementation and enforcement in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom and analyzes the effectiveness of the existing regulatory frameworks and the systems of criminal administrative and disciplinary law used to enforce the fisheries laws and regulations Part Three compares the national systems in the light of European law requirements and the protection of individual rights The book concludes with the future of fisheries enforcement and considers the potential changes in enforcement The study is of importance for the future role of the CFP and its possible effects on national implementation and enforcement More generally the book reveals the shifting distribution of responsibilities between the Community and the national institutions and actors involved and shows many of the possibilities for and the limits of regulatory enforcement in a setting of European integration

Rules of Engagement and the International Law of Military Operations J. F. R. Boddens Hosang, 2020-01-31 The book systematically analyses the relationship and interaction between rules of engagement ROE and the legal framework regulating armed conflicts both at the international and national levels At the international level the relationship between ROE and human rights law and international humanitarian law is explored At the national level the book relates ROE to comparative criminal law A separate chapter analyses the complex relationship between self defence law and rules of engagement It is the first monograph to comprehensively examine these issues and to analyse how ROE interact with the various sources of the international law of military operations both in terms of the law as a source for these rules and how the law is reflected and implemented through them In doing so and based on the author's own experience the book provides examples of how complicated often controversial issues of law can be resolved while keeping the rules understandable at all levels of military operations Aimed at both scholars and practitioners the book provides a bridge between the academic world and the operational world It provides new insights for both of those audiences in terms of understanding how the law applies to and through the rules on the use of force for military operations

Criminal Law in Action Jan J.M. van Dijk, Ch. Haffmans, F. Rüter, J. Schutte, S. Stolwijk, 2023-09-20

Individual Criminal Responsibility in International Law E. van Sliedregt, 2012-03 Atrocities such as genocide or crimes against humanity are usually committed by a large number of perpetrators Moreover those who masterminded the crimes may not have actively participated This book sets out how these people can be held responsible for their crimes by international criminal tribunals

International Law Reports Elihu Lauterpacht, C. J. Greenwood, A. G. Oppenheimer, 1998-12-10 The International Law Reports is the only publication in the world wholly devoted to the regular and systematic reporting in English of decisions of international courts and arbitrators as well as judgments of national courts Cases are drawn from every relevant jurisdiction international and national All decisions in other languages are translated into English
