Grandpas Mountain Letters From A Border Kibbutz In Israel:

Grandpa's Mountain Arie Larkey, 2015 It was during the euphoric aftermath of Israel's victorious Six Day War in 1967 that Yoram Richie Friedman uprooted his wife and ten year old son from the good life in the States to settle on a picturesque border kibbutz in Northern Israel In October 1973 the reality of their seemingly idyllic new home comes into sharp relief as Syrian war planes fly menacingly overhead signaling the beginning of Israel's next and most costly war with its Arab neighbors the Yom Kippur War The trauma of that horrific conflict somehow strengthens Yoram's Zionist ideals of helping to rebuild the Jewish homeland but his wife and son reject his lofty principles and decide to return to the States resulting in a wrenching silence from both sides of the ocean lasting almost a quarter century Then one day Yoram receives an unexpected letter from his twelve year old grandson a new Boy Scout and budding adventurer Their ensuing pen pal relationship brings about a special bond between grandpa and grandson as adventures of the past intermingle with present day events in a compelling and healing love story spanning the generations

Colors from a Zionist's Palette Arie Larkey, 2012 The three stories in this volume are derived from real life experiences mostly during Arie Larkey's more than forty years of living out his dream in the Jewish Homeland The first story An Improbable Zionist Recollections is a light autobiographical sketch of life's twists and turns which lead the author on adventures he could never have envisioned as a youth growing up in the Jewish neighborhood of Newark New Jersey adventures in a place that lies six thousand miles to the east of his hometown namely the fledgling Jewish State of Israel To round out the trilogy the two additional short stories in this volume entitled Nazi Germany and the Sinai a Link to the Past and My First Time under Katyusha Fire show tantalizing glimpses of the author's extraordinary adventures in his adopted home Sometimes he uses fictional characters to tell the story Other times he himself is the protagonist But in either case the readers will enjoy a full 360 panoramic view of the author's physical and emotional surroundings as the stories unfold

Jewish Book World, 2008 A Townhouse in Jerusalem Arie Larkey, 1996

The story of an American who grew up in a Jewish ghetto in Newark where assimilation is the unspoken standard His ultimate rejection of the norm results in an astonishing change of direction and location

Letters from Jerusalem Mary Clawson, 1957
