

GRANT writing

Win grants, finding the right grant maker, writing inquiries & proposals, following rules & regulations, and managing the money

Introduction

Grant writing is the process of determining who can help you fund your needs and projects and how to persuade them to do so. A grant is funding provided from either a private or public source, that is to be used for a specified purpose. A grant, unlike a loan, does not need to be repaid.

Types of Grants

Private-Sector Grants

- Foundations and trusts: These sources are diverse and wide-ranging. Many private trusts and foundations exist to fund projects, causes, and areas of interest defined at the time they were established that reflect the aims and goals of the founders, and ultimately the trustees and administrators of those organizations.
- Corporate grant makers: These sources offer grants either directly from the corporation or from a trust or foundation established to distribute grant funding on behalf of or in the best interests of a corporation. Corporate grants are usually specific to the interests of the corporation sponsoring the award.

Public-Sector Grants

- These sources can range from federal government agencies to local government entities, including state, county, and city/municipal level governments.
- Federal: Federal grants can come from a wide variety of bureaus, agencies, and programs. Many are subject to congressional approval or authorization and therefore vary from year to year. Many are one-time offerings aimed at achieving specific goals as defined by the political climate.
 - State: State grants are mostly specific to agencies and departments charged with existing or developing programs as directed by the state legislature. Many of these programs are "pass-through" federal programs that may or may not be funded by federal dollars.
 - County and local: Generally small in the amounts awarded, these grant programs are usually designed as assistance or supplements to larger public grant programs. They may also be funded by state or federal funds.

What Type of Grant Do You Need?

- General operating: A grant to assist with either a one-time or ongoing budget need of your organization, not usually available for start-up operations.
- Backward-looking grants: Funding for a structure such as rebuilding, parking lot, computer equipment, or other physical, tangible end product.
- Social services and interservice programs: Markets for programs that assist others, such as job training or providing food and shelter, education enhancement, neighborhood development, etc.
- Other programs: Not falling into the previous categories. Usually these are targeted toward specialized needs and should be directed to a specific type of grant maker who understands the request.

Do You Need a Grant, or Can You Raise the Funds on Your Own?

Evaluate the Situation

- Is the project time sensitive? If so, consider alternative ways of raising funds. Grants can take months and even up to a year to be awarded. Awards are not guaranteed. Requests can and do fail.
- Can your donor base do the job with some extra effort? Can your organization with the donor base a little harder and raise the funds needed? After some discussion, this may be an appealing alternative. Additionally, a specific, well-managed and planned fundraising campaign may raise the funds needed in a time-bound manner. Alternative efforts that draw not only make success more likely but also can draw the donor community together and build overall support for the project and your organization.
- Are there aspects of the project that are controversial or questionable to some people? Analyze your project and the grant makers you are considering approaching. It could well be that they conflict with the prospective grant maker. Consider modifying the project or find another, more receptive grant maker.

First Steps: Research

Choose a Point Person

It is important to have one person designated to gather and review information, manage, and make decisions regarding the grant proposal. Otherwise, confusion and conflicting information will result in poor presentation, omitted information, missed deadlines, and the appearance of a poorly managed organization.

Research Your Target

- Online resources: The best way to learn about potential funders is by starting your search online. You usually find what you want and likely get the information you need, or you can take advantage of the following services.

- Foundation Directory Online: Private trusts, foundations, and corporate grant makers, considered the best source on the web (www.foundationdirectory.org)
- Searcher: Private foundations and trusts (www.grantmaker.org)
- GrantStation: Private foundations and trusts (www.grantstation.com)
- EDS Online: Private grant makers (www.edsfoundation.com)
- FoundationSource: Much like Eds Online (www.foundationsearch.com)

- Grants.gov: Federal government funding (www.grants.gov)
- USA.gov: Additional federal government funding sources (www.usa.gov)
- Internal Resource Services: Form 990 (www.irs.gov/pub/irs-soi/0999)
- Foundation Center 900: (www.foundationcenter.org/foundationcenter)
- Idealist: Connects people, organizations, and resources (www.idealist.org)
- GrantSpace: Offers information and resources (www.grantspace.org)
- Global Grants: Connects donors and organizations (www.globalgrants.com)

- Research state and local grants: Search online for the state you want to work with. Check the potential grant maker's website, quality, private, or otherwise, as most have their own web, which can provide valuable information and don't forget your local library.

Get Out There

- Does anyone associated with your organization have a connection to the grant maker(s) you are approaching? Use these connections to make your case to potential grant makers known within the rules of ethics, civility, and common sense. Do not make requests or place demands on a contact that may put him/her in an uncomfortable or difficult position. Utilize the resources you may already have.
- Now based on elsewhere: Your target should consist of some of the biggest names and shakers in the community. They may know people associated with the grant maker(s) you are approaching. Do not be afraid to ask them.
- Now start: Put your effort. You might be surprised to find out who and what they know, especially if they've been working in the nonprofit sector for a while.
- Now volunteers: This is likely your biggest resource in this area. Coming from a wide variety of backgrounds and collectively having thousands of contacts, they could possibly provide access to the exact people you need to engage.
- Friends of your organization: These are people who support your organization in principal but are not actively engaged, including donors, and board members, and others who may support your organization in nonmonetary ways. One-on-one requests work best with this group.
