Greek Manuals of Church Doctrines (Classic Reprint) H. T. F. Duckworth, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from Greek Manuals of Church Doctrines Some little time ago the Eastern Church Association published a short account of the Teaching of the Russian Church Now owing to the kindness of Mr Duckworth we are able to place at the disposal of our members a similar work on the Greek branch of the Eastern Church This account has the advantage of being somewhat more authoritative as Mr Duckworth has an intimate personal knowledge of the inner workings of the Greek Church and has put before us the current teaching in the Catechisms drawn up for present use The first point that we notice is the great pains which is taken that all members of the Orthodox Church may have an accurate knowledge of the teaching of the body to which they belong It is clear that if the system which is described in these pages is carried out the charge of ignorance which is commonly brought against the oriental churches cannot be for a moment sustained The Greek layman must know a great deal more about his Church than the average English layman About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any

Pelikan,1993-01-01 The momentous encounter between Christian thought and Greek philosophy reached a high point in fourth century Byzantium and the principal actors were four Greek speaking Christian thinkers whose collective influence on the Eastern Church was comparable to that of Augustine on Western Latin Christendom In this erudite and informative book a distinguished scholar provides the first coherent account of the lives and writings of these so called Cappadocians named for a region in what is now eastern Turkey showing how they managed to be Greek and Christian at the same time Jaroslav Pelikan describes the four Cappadocians Gregory of Nazianzus Basil of Caesarea Gregory of Nyssa and Macrina sister and teacher of the last two who were trained in Classical culture philosophy and rhetoric but who were also defenders and expositors of Christian orthodoxy On one issue of faith and life after another the nature of religious language the ways of knowing the existence of God the universe as cosmos time and space free will and immortality the nature of the good life the purpose of the universe they challenged and debated the validity of the Greek philosophical tradition in interpreting Scripture Because the way they resolved these issues became the very definition of normative Christian belief says Pelikan their system is still a key to our understanding not only of Christianity s diverse religious traditions but also of its intellectual and philosophical traditions This book is based on the prestigious Gifford Lectures presented by Jaroslav Pelikan at the University of Aberdeen in 1992 and 1993 The Worlds of Knowledge and the Classical Tradition in the Early Modern Age
