A Patron Family Between Renaissance Florence, Rome, and Naples Vincenzo Sorrentino,2022-04-19 This book tells the story of the Del Riccio family in Florence in the early modern period investigating the cultural mediations fostered by the family between Florence Rome and Naples as well as shedding light on the intellectual and social exchanges between different regions of Italy and on the creation of foreign nations within the main Italian cities These social and cultural dimensions are further explored through the study of the obsessive persistence of the family s relationship with Michelangelo Buonarroti exhibited both publicly in the Florentine and Neapolitan family chapels and privately in their homes The main achievement of this study is to move the focus from the ruling power the Medici family and the immediate members of their court to a Florentine middle class family and its social mobility this shift from the conventional narrative to a distributed microhistory is fundamental to better assess the use of images and artworks in early modern Florence and abroad The aesthetic and stylistic choices in the use of art and art display made by the Del Riccio reveal a deep awareness of the substantial differences in taste and meaning between different cities of the Italian peninsula The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture and Renaissance studies

Lexicon Syriacum Carl Brockelmann,2004-08-30 The study of languages forms the foundation of any study of ancient societies While we are dependent upon archaeology to unearth pottery tools buildings and graves it is through reading the documentary evidence that we learn the nuances of each culture from receipts and letters to myths and legends And the access to those documents comes only through the basic work of deciphering scripts conjugating verbs untangling syntax and mastering vocabulary Ancient Language Resources brings together some of the most significant reference works for the study of ancient languages including grammars dictionaries and related materials While most of the volumes will be reprints of classic works we also intend to include new publications The linguistic circle is widely drawn encompassing Egyptian Sumerian Akkadian Ugaritic Phoenician Hattic Hittite Nesite Hurrian Hebrew Aramaic Syriac Ethiopic Arabic Greek Coptic Latin Mandaean Armenian and Gothic It is the hope of the publishers that this will continue to encourage study of the ancient languages and keep the work of groundbreaking scholars accessible K C Hanson Series Editor

Describing the City, Describing the State Sandra Toffolo, 2020-07-15 In Describing the City Describing the State Sandra Toffolo presents a comprehensive analysis of descriptions of the city of Venice and the Venetian Terraferma in the Renaissance when the Venetian mainland state was being created Working with an extensive variety of descriptions the book demonstrates that no one narrative of Venice prevailed in the early modern European imagination and that authors continuously adapted geographical descriptions to changing political circumstances This in turn illustrates the importance of studying geographical representation and early modern state formation together Moreover it challenges the long standing concept of the myth of Venice by showing that Renaissance observers never saw the city of Venice and the Venetian Terraferma in a monolithic way
