 Globalised Capitalism* Maurizio Atzeni, 2013-11-25 An introduction to work and society for undergraduate and postgraduate students This new text brings together international experts on work and employment from a range of disciplines to debate key themes and issues related to work in a globalised economy Work and Livelihoods Susana Narotzky, Victoria Goddard, 2016-12-01 Winner of the Society for the Anthropology of Work book prize 2017 This volume presents a global range of ethnographic case studies to explore the ways in which in the context of the restructuring of industrial work the ongoing financial crisis and the surge in unemployment and precarious employment local and global actors engage with complex social processes and devise ideological political and economic responses to them It shows how the reorganization and re signification of work notably shifts in the perception and valorization of work affect domestic and community arrangements and shape the conditions of life of workers and their families Comparing the Worth of the While in Fiji and Finland Matti Eräsaari, 2023-07-19 Clock time which denotes particular ways of valuing temporal duration is typically associated with monetary worth or labour Comparing the Worth of the While in Fiji and Finland however employs unique methodologies and case studies from Fiji and Finland to reconsider the wide range of values that it is capable of expressing Almost, but Not Quite Bored in Pula Andrea Matošević, 2021-07-16 Based on interviews and fieldwork conducted among residents of Pula a coastal city in Northwestern Croatia this study explores various aspects of a local feeling of boredom This is mirrored in the term tapija a word of Turkish origin describing a property deed and in Pula s urban slang it has morphed from its original sense describing a set of affective states into one of lameness loneliness unwillingness and irony Combining lively conversations with a significant bibliography of the topic the result is a compelling local anthropological study of boredom in a wider historical and global context Steel Town Adivasis Christian Strümpell, 2024-06-07 Steel Town Adivasis Industry and Inequality in Eastern India presents an analysis of class formation in the industrial town Rourkela in the eastern Indian state Odisha and the ways this process relates to regional ethnicity and caste This study is based on long term ethnographic research conducted in the 2000s and oral histories covering the period from the inception of the steel plant and it focusses on the region s tribes indigenous people or Adivasis who lost their land when the Government of India established a large steel plant in Rourkela in the 1950s The book will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists historians interested in industrial labour and work in class caste Adivasis ethnicity and their

Being Middle-class in India Henrike Donner, 2012-06-25 Hailed as the beneficiary driving force and result of globalisation India's middle class is puzzling in its diversity as a multitude of traditions social formations and political constellations manifest contribute to this project This book looks at Indian middle class lifestyles through a number of case studies ranging from a historical account detailing the making of a savvy middle class consumer in the late colonial period to saving clubs among women in Delhi's upmarket colonies and the dilemmas of entrepreneurial families in Tamil Nadu's industrial towns The book pays tribute to the diversity of regional caste rural and urban origins that shape middle class lifestyles in contemporary India and highlights common themes such as the quest for upward mobility common consumption practices the importance of family values gender relations and educational trajectories It unpacks the notion that the Indian middle class can be understood in terms of public performances surveys and economic markers and emphasises how the study of middle class culture needs to be based on detailed studies as everyday practices and private lives create the distinctive sub cultures and cultural politics that characterise the Indian middle class today With its focus on private domains middleclassness appears as a carefully orchestrated and complex way of life and presents a fascinating way to understand South Asian cultures and communities through the prism of social class

The Liminal Worker Manos Spyridakis, 2016-03-03 The Liminal Worker examines the experience of work employment employment insecurity and precariousness in a context of high unemployment and welfare state crisis in modern Greece A theoretically informed anthropological exploration of the notion of work in contemporary western society and its relation to processes of political decision making this book challenges the mainstream conception of work as an economic or purely productive activity presenting a comparative analysis of work as a social phenomenon Drawing on original empirical research it explores the key themes of the transformation experience meaning and narrative of work and its relation to attendant social policies A unique examination of the complicated experience of work and labour relations within power systems institutions and organisations as well as the reactions and survival strategies of ordinary actors facing precariousness in their daily existence The Liminal Worker elaborates upon the notion of the anthropology of work and investigates the connection between ethnographic data and its critical analysis and the formation of policy As such it will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists policy makers and geographers concerned with questions of work labour relations and policy formation

Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23 With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world

The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike

Marketing Hope Leonie Schiffauer, 2019-05-03 Multilevel marketing and pyramid schemes promote the idea that participants can easily become rich These popular economies turn ordinary people into advocates of their interests and missionaries of the American Dream Marketing Hope looks at how different types of get rich quick schemes manifest themselves in a Siberian town By focusing on their social dynamics Leonie Schiffauer provides insights into how capitalist logic is learned and negotiated and how it affects local realities in a post Soviet environment
