Hitler's Defeat In Russia Lieutenant-General Władysław Anders,2015-11-06

To both professional soldiers and historians the causes of the German catastrophe in Eastern Europe in the years from 1941 to 1945 will ever remain an absorbing problem Why did Hitler s hitherto invincible Wehrmacht which between September 1939 and June 1941 had knocked over like tenpins the far from negligible armies of Poland France and Yugoslavia had driven three hundred odd thousand British from the continent in a campaign of a few brief weeks and had spread the rule of Hitler s Reich from Brest to Crete and from Arctic Narvik to the desert sands of Tripoli why did this Wehrmacht come to a dead halt before Moscow within six months of launching its all out assault on the Soviet Union Why once again in the autumn of 1942 did the Wehrmacht suffer such an overwhelming defeat at Stalingrad after occupying nearly half of European Russia reducing the Red armies to less than two and one half million men at the beginning of 1942 and planting the swastika on Mount Elbrus in the Caucasus more than 1 000 miles from its advanced base in Poland These are questions General Anders attempts to answer in the present analytical study of the Russo German war and in my opinion he succeeds to the full with amazing clarity and unanswerable logic Foreword
