Philosophy, Who Needs It? Jason D. Crowder, 2016-03-02 Too often skeptics charge Christians with having a blind faith Unfortunately believers have added fuel to the charges of skeptics by speaking of their faith illogically But the Christian faith is not a blind faith In fact biblical faith is never a blind irrational faith Christianity rests firmly on the stone that was rejected by the builders which has become the cornerstone Jesus Christ Acts 4 11 Living biblically requires thinking biblically just as to think biblically entails to live biblically as Winfried Corduan notes in the Foreword As followers of Christ believers cannot separate biblical thinking and biblical living These two behaviors are eternally connected not only in the person of Jesus Christ but they stem from the eternal being of God the Father and his eternal truth Christ mandates that his followers love God with their entire being heart soul mind and strength Mark 12 30 How are believers to go about living out this biblical mandate Christian faith is a warranted belief This is why it is so essential that Christians recognize the value and importance of philosophy and its proper place in Christendom and in the Christian s walk

How Philosophers Argue Fernando Leal, Hubert Marraud, 2022-02-21 This volume presents a double argumentative analysis of the debate between Bertrand Russell and Frederick Copleston on the existence of God It includes an introduction justifying the choice of text and describing the historical and philosophical background of the debate It also provides a transcript of the debate based in part on the original recording The argumentative analyses occupy Parts I and II of the book In Part I the argumentative process is analysed by means of the ideal model of critical discussion the workhorse of pragma dialectics Part I shows how the two parties go through the four stages of a critical discussion It highlights the questions raised over and beyond the presiding question of whether God exists and examines almost a hundred questions that are raised Many are left in the air whereas a few others give rise to sundry sub discussions or meta dialogues In Part II the theoretical framework of argument dialectic is put to work argument structures are identified by means of punctuation marks argumentative connectors and operators allowing to see the argumentative exchange as the collaborative construction of a macro argument Such a macro argument is both a joint product of the arguers and a complex structure representing the dialectical relationships between the individual arguments combined in it Finally the complementarity of the two approaches is addressed Thus the book can be described as an exercise in adversarial collaboration

The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell, 2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith the psychological mechanics of these effects their resonances with Christian Scripture and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post traumatic resilience Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery
