authors as Norman Mailer Ernest Hemingway and Philip Roth to figures like Yukio Mishima Alberto Moravia and Michel Leiris This book should be of interest to students of literature The Reader's Adviser, 1986 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1985 Black Writers Linda Metzger, 1989 Biographical and bibliographical entries on some 400 black authors active in the 20th century Some of the sketches are updated from Gale's Contemporary authors series others were written especially for this volume Covers not only contemporary American authors but also earlier 20th century writers social figures e.g. Malcolm X Desmond Tutu and important African and Caribbean writers In addition to the descriptive personal and career information there are illuminating biographical critical essays including comments often by the authors themselves on personal interests aspirations motivations and thoughts on writing Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Volpe, 2015-02-01 The new guide the first comprehensive book of its kind offers analyses of all Faulkner's short stories published and unpublished that were not incorporated into novels or turned into chapters of a novel Seventy one stories receive individual critical analysis and evaluation These discussions reveal the relationship of the stories to the novels and point up Faulkner's skills as a writer of short fiction Although Faulkner often spoke disparagingly of the short story form and claimed that he wrote stories for money which he did Edmond L.
