The Long Shadow Gaynor Gabriel,2013 Sarah nine years old endures yet another air raid in the street shelter in Blitz torn England At the same time nine year old Claude is practising an escape should their house in occupied France be raided by the Gestapo Sarah and Claude Jews and their families experience the devastating effects of Nazi Germany The children are deeply traumatised Sarah by the fate of her mother during an air raid and Claude by the disappearance of his family The effects of their tragic experiences are played out very differently The early lives of the children though in different cultures and different circumstances manifest very similar parallel experiences It is only when the two central characters meet as adults that the effects of the trauma show themselves clearly and very dramatically The novel traces four generations of the two families through to the final powerful and moving outcome It becomes hard to put the book down the narrative becomes truly wrenching One hopes that Gabriel will keep writing a remarkable beginning Kirkus Reviews This is a well charted tale of how great sorrow can colour lives long after the event BlueInk Review Introspective and profoundly moving Gabriel s realistic portrayal of war s aftermath will leave an enduring impression Foreword Reviews
