Champion,2017-11-13 Over the course of the fifteenth century the Low Countries transformed Europe's economic, political and cultural life. Innovative and influential cultural practices emerged across the region in flourishing courts, towns, religious houses, guilds and confraternities. Whether in visual culture, music, devotional practice or communal rituals, the thriving cultures of the Low Countries wrestled with time both through explicit measurement and reflection and in the rhythms of social and religious life. This book offers a deeper understanding of how time was structured and experienced by different constituencies through a series of detailed readings of diverse cultural objects and practices ranging from woodcuts and painted altarpieces to early print books and to the use of polyphony in the liturgy. Individual chapters are devoted to life in the university towns of Louvain and Ghent, the liturgical rituals at Cambrai Cathedral and the rich pageantry that marked the courts of Philip the Good and the new Burgundian rulers. What emerges is a complex temporal landscape in which devotional and secular practices and experiences merged into a new fullness of time.

Soul and the City Marcy Heidish, 2010-05-05

Your City Guide to God: Beneath the relentless rhythms of city life beats the heart of God, and award-winning author Marcy Heidish takes you into a more intimate relationship with him in the midst of crowds, chaos and concrete. Her experiences from a curb in Brooklyn, the bay in San Francisco, a rooftop of Chartres Cathedral in Paris and the busy halls of Washington D.C. help you see the city in a new light. She turns common city distractions, annoyances and challenges into spiritual invitations or gateways to a new kind of contemplation where screaming sirens become cues to silent intercession, skyscrapers like spires pull your eyes and thoughts heavenward and red traffic lights work as pause buttons that call for you to stop and pray. In the city there is grit, Marcy writes. And grime and garbage. But her practical tools in every chapter for reflection, discussion and application help you see whether you're visiting, working or dwelling in Philadelphia or Phoenix, New York or Los Angeles, Seattle or Syracuse that in the city there is also grace.

Bernini at Saint Peter's - The Pilgrimage Irving Lavin, 2012-12-31

Bernini at Saint Peter's may be a unique case in history: a single artist in charge of a grandiose monument in a continuous state of creativity under constantly changing patrons and a variety of projects for nearly six decades. This book argues that a continuous thread of thought may be discerned underlying and connecting the vicissitudes of this spectacular display. From first to last, Gianlorenzo Bernini conceived of Saint Peter's as a pilgrimage church, a kind of pilgrimage of human life, his own and of the believers who visited the basilica to worship and give testimony. Irving Lavin is professor emeritus in the School of Historical Studies at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton. He is one of the most distinguished and honoured art historians in the United States. Professor Lavin is best known for his series of fundamental publications on the Baroque artist Gianlorenzo Bernini, 1598-1680. These include new discoveries and studies on the master's prodigious early life, his architecture and portraiture, his invention of caricature, his depictions of religious faith and political leadership, his work in the theatre, his attitude towards death and the role of the artist in the creation of a modern sense of social responsibility.
