Journey George B. Thompson, Beverly A. Thompson, 2011-09-21 Every community of faith journeys through periods of transition In Grace for the Journey Practices and Possibilities for In Between Times authors Beverly and George Thompson invite congregations to open themselves to the grace filled possibilities that accompany these in between periods Drawing on biblical examples and contemporary experience the authors invite the community of faith to see transitional times as an opportunity to develop deeper spiritual awareness of God's call on its communal life a call that open up fresh potential even as it calls us to consider what familiar things may need to change As pastors and teachers with experience in congregations across the country the Thompsons serve as your travel guides accompanying you and your congregation as you walk through the wilderness of transitional times to the hope filled possibilities on the horizon For Every Matter under Heaven Beverly Zink-Sawyer, Donna Giver-Johnston, 2022-12-08 For everything there is a season as the writer of Ecclesiastes reminds us and that includes preaching Beyond ordinary Sunday morning worship many other seasons special occasions arise for preaching in the life of the church whether by virtue of the secular calendar or celebrations or circumstances in the congregation or community For Every Matter under Heaven Preaching on Special Occasions offers preachers a process for creating sermons that are biblically grounded and relevant to the occasion Two obvious occasions of this sort are weddings and funerals however church anniversaries dedications of new buildings or furnishings commitment of pledges in stewardship season and ordination and installation services also call for preaching on a special theme or topic In addition some congregations acknowledge secular holidays such as the Fourth of July and Thanksgiving Day in worship Pastors are often called on to preach at events outside the church And all congregations face local or national tragedies and crises that call for a word from the Lord These occasions require a different kind of sermon or at least a different process of preparation Most preachers have been taught that sermons begin with a biblical text usually a text prescribed by a standard lectionary Beverly Zink Sawyer and Donna Giver Johnston offer preachers a process for finding appropriate sermon texts for special occasions by considering the occasion itself the listeners who might be gathered and the ways God is at work in that time and place

Through this process preachers can offer a word for every matter under heaven Transitional Ministry Today Norman B.
