

Graduation Speech Sample

Good evening friends, family, faculty, and fellow graduates.

As we stand here today, on the brink of a new chapter in our lives, it's hard to believe that it's already been four years (or however long it took us to get here). It seems like just yesterday that we were nervously stepping onto campus, not quite sure what to expect.

But as we look back on the past four years, it's clear that we've come a long way. We've made new friends, learned new things, and grown as individuals. We've faced challenges and overcome them, and we've learned to persevere through difficult times.

And as we move on from this chapter in our lives, I encourage each and every one of us to remember the lessons we've learned and the experiences we've had. These experiences will shape who we are and how we approach the world, and they will serve us well in the years ahead.

But before we get too ahead of ourselves, let's take a moment to reflect on how we got here. I'm sure we all have different stories and experiences, but there are a few things that I think we can all relate to.

For starters, I'm sure we can all agree that college is a lot of hard work. Between classes, assignments, and exams, it's easy to get bogged down and feel overwhelmed. But despite the challenges, we've persevered and made it to this point.

I'm also sure that we've all had moments where we felt lost or unsure of ourselves. It's natural to feel that way, especially when you're trying to navigate a new environment and figure out your place in the world. But despite these moments of uncertainty, we've found our footing and discovered our passions.

And most importantly, I'm sure we can all agree that college has been an amazing experience. We've had the opportunity to learn from some of the best professors in the field, engage in meaningful discussions and debates, and be part of a community of like-minded individuals.

So, as we move on from this chapter in our lives, let's remember to be grateful for the experiences we've had and the people who have supported us along the way. To our parents, who have always believed in us and encouraged us to pursue our dreams, thank you for your unwavering love and guidance. To our teachers and mentors, who have imparted their knowledge and wisdom upon us, thank you for your invaluable guidance and encouragement. And to our friends, who have stood by us through thick and thin, thank you for your friendship and support.

An Amateur's Guide to the Night Mary Robison, 2019-02-12 Mary Robison's short stories are short subtle and substantial Her ironic sense of detail bursts from every sentence Vogue An Amateur's Guide to the Night stands as a perfect example of Mary Robison's beloved narrative style purposeful clipped and devastating in its restraint Reflecting on the life of disaffected youth these stories speculate on how they often manage to remain deferent towards the rest of society and document how spectacularly they often fail These thirteen stories are glimpses from a moving train into lit parlors dinettes bedrooms and dens Think of Robison as the engineer blowing the whistle calling the stops and starts invisible when you want to ask her why we're stalled here in the middle of nowhere between stations jobs relationships and decisions Los Angeles Times

Confessions of the Other Mother Harlyn Aizley, 2006-05-01 One of the few books to explore lesbian parenting these hilarious heart wrenching painfully honest tales of mommyhood celebrate the ups and downs of being an LGBTQIA parent in the 21st century Joey Solloway creator of Transparent After author Harlyn Aizley gave birth to her daughter she watched in unanticipated horror as her partner scooped up the baby and said I m your new mommy While they both had worked to find the perfect sperm donor Aizley had spent nine months carrying the baby and hours in labor so how could her partner claim to be their child s mommy Many diapers later Aizley began to appreciate the complexity of her partner s new role as the other mother Together they searched for stories about families like their own in which a woman has chosen to forgo her own birth experience so that she might support her partner in hers They found very few Now in Confessions of the Other Mother Aizley has put together an exciting collection of personal stories by women like her partner who are creating new parenting roles redefining motherhood and reshaping our view of two parent families Contributors include Hillary Goodridge who was one of the lead plaintiffs in the case for same sex marriage in Massachusetts stand up comedian Judy Gold and psychologist and author Suzanne M Johnson This candid peek into a previously unexamined side of lesbian parenting is full of stories that are sometimes humorous sometimes moving but at all times celebratory Each parenting tale sheds light on the many facets of motherhood offering gay and straight readers alike a deeper understanding of what it means to love and parent in the twenty first century

story of one mother's quest to save her child's life. One day Kelly Crimmins was a happy seemingly healthy twelve year old the next she confessed to her mom that she'd had blood in her urine for months. After a series of tests Kelly was diagnosed with a life threatening potentially terminal autoimmune disease. A Mother's Nightmare details Cathy and Kelly's three year medical and emotional journey which took them from Philadelphia to Minnesota's Mayo Clinic and back again. Cathy writes about the toll taken on a young girl who suddenly becomes a patient and about a mom who in fighting for her little girl's life becomes sick herself with worry and fear. As she did in her award winning Where Is the Mango Princess Cathy makes illness both personal and universal. It's an account all readers will find memorable and moving. My Mother's Voice Adrienne Kertzer, 2001-12-11 Named Honor Book of the Year by the Children's Literature Association Winner 2003 Canadian Jewish Book Award for scholarship on a Jewish subject Finalist 2003 Alberta Book Awards Scholarly Book of the Year. How do children's books represent the Holocaust? How do such books negotiate the tension between the desire to protect children and the commitment to tell children the truth about the world? If Holocaust representations in children's books respect the narrative conventions of hope and happy endings how do they differ if at all from popular representations intended for adult audiences? And where does innocence lie if the children's fable of Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful is marketed for adults and far more troubling survivor memoirs such as Anita Lobel's No Pretty Pictures or A Child of War are marketed for children? How should Holocaust Studies integrate discourse about children's literature into its discussions? In approaching these and other questions Kertzer uses the lens of children's literature to problematize the ways in which various adult discourses represent the Holocaust and continually challenges the conventional belief that children's literature is the place for easy answers and optimistic lessons. Sister Mother Husband Dog Delia Ephron, 2013-09-17 Bestselling author Delia Ephron shares a deeply personal collection of stories and essays anchored by a loving remembrance of her sister Nora. In Sister Mother Husband Dog Delia Ephron brings her trademark wit and effervescent prose to a series of autobiographical essays about life, love, sisterhood, movies and family. In Losing Nora she deftly captures the rivalry, mutual respect and intimacy that made up her relationship with her older sister and frequent writing companion. Other essays run the gamut from a humorous piece about love and the movies, how one romantic comedy completely destroyed her twenties, to the joy of girl friends and best friendship, the magical madness and miracle of dogs, keen eyed observations about urban survival and a serious and affecting memoir of life with her mother and growing up the child of alcoholics. Ephron's eloquent style and voice illuminate every page of this superb and singular work. Good Grief Thomas Michael Johnson, 2020-07-29 At age twelve author Thomas Michael Johnson faced the death of a great grandparent he was close to as a child. That trauma left him with an irrational fear of losing loved ones. By the time he married and became a father the fear of death living within him was incapacitating and debilitating, often causing difficulties in his personal and professional life. Seeking freedom from this terror Johnson began to understand the difference between joy and happiness he was delivered from the fear some six weeks before his wife's untimely demise. After nearly nineteen years of marriage, he woke to find his beloved wife had passed away while he slept. He suddenly became a single parent of three sons, ages seventeen, thirteen, and twelve, struggling through the typical single parent issues with an added layer of grief. Johnson's middle son's autism added to the challenges. In Good Grief, Johnson shares an account of the trepidation he lived through as a young man, his freedom from the fear of death before his wife died, and the two years following her death. This memoir focuses on the lessons he learned from God directly from scripture and from the tight knit group of family and friends God had given him. Raw and authentic, Johnson chronicles a story of his experience as a grieving widower, a single father, and a broken child of God who had no choice but to ask for help from those surrounding him while trying to restore joy in his home.

Tell Me Mary Robison, 2018-05-08 Robison has a poet's eye for the unconscious surrealism of commercial America. The New York Times Book Review Tell Me reflects the early brilliance as well as the fulfilled promise of Mary Robison's literary career. In these stories, most of which appeared in The New Yorker throughout the eighties, we enter her sly world of plotters, absconders, ponderers, and pontificators. Robison's characters have chips on their shoulders; they talk back to us in language that is edgy and nervy; they say all right and okay often not because they consent but because nothing counts. Still, there are small victories here, small only because, as Robison precisely documents, larger victories are impossible. Here, then, among others, is Pretty Ice chosen by Richard Ford for The Granta Book of American Short Stories; Coach chosen for Best American Short Stories; I Get By an O. Henry Prize Stories selection; and Happy Boy, Allen a Pushcart Prize Stories selection. These stories, sharp, cool, and astringently funny, confirm Mary Robison's place as one of our most original writers and led Richard Yates to comment, "Robison writes like an avenging angel, and I think she may be a genius." Mary Robison's short stories are short, subtle, and substantial; her ironic sense of detail bursts from every sentence. Vogue Word for fucking word, her work demands our attention. David Leavitt, The Village Voice.

Any Day with You Mae Respicio, 2021-06-08 A warm, tender story perfect for fans of Front Desk about a creative girl who hopes that by winning a filmmaking contest, she'll convince her great grandfather to stay by her side. Kaia and her family live near the beach in California, where the fun of moviemaking is all around them. Kaia loves playing with makeup and creating special effects, turning her friends into merfolk and other magical creatures. This summer, Kaia and her friends are part of a creative arts camp where they're working on a short movie to enter in a contest. The movie is inspired by the Filipino folktales that her beloved Tatang, her great grandfather, tells. Tatang lives with her family and is like the sparkle of her special effects makeup. When Tatang decides that it is time to return to his homeland in the Philippines, Kaia will do anything to convince him not to go.

Between Certain Death and a Possible Future Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore, 2021-10-05 Every queer person lives with the trauma of AIDS, and this plays out intergenerationally. Usually, we hear about two generations: the first coming of age in the era of gay liberation and then watching entire circles of friends die of a mysterious illness as the government did nothing to intervene. And now we hear about younger people growing up with effective treatment and prevention available, unable to comprehend the magnitude of the loss But there is another generation between these two one that came of age in the midst of the epidemic with the belief that desire intrinsically led to death and internalized this trauma as part of becoming queer Between Certain Death and a Possible Future Queer Writing on Growing up with the AIDS Crisis offers crucial stories from this missing generation in AIDS literature and cultural politics This wide ranging collection includes 36 personal essays on the ongoing and persistent impact of the HIV AIDS crisis in queer lives Here you will find an expansive range of perspectives on a specific generational story essays that explore and explode conventional wisdom while also providing a necessary bridge between experiences These essays respond with eloquence and incisiveness to the question How do we reckon with the trauma that continues to this day and imagine a way out

Because He First Loved Me Tonja Jackson, 2017-04-05 A true story of a young insecure girl dealing with the harsh realities of life Told with humor and pain Personal tragedies and disappointments Learning to trust the goodness of the Lord and allowing him to transform her into a courageous woman of faith Because He First Loved Me is a story of salvation redemption forgiveness and restoration

A Head of Cabbage Barbara Johnson, 2022-07-24 Barbara Abbott was eighteen when her father threatened to kill her if she went to school against his will A sharecropper since he lost his farm in 1956 he needed her on the farm to help plant their annual tobacco crop Barbara would often sneak away to school but her mother would retrieve her before her second class started and return her to the fields Then after the workday was over she studied unassigned chapters hoping that she would not get behind in her class assignments due to absences from school Her father believed living off the land was the best option for southern black people He never encouraged his children to seek an education he saw how education had not helped many black people financially and had an extreme distrust of white people and the government Eventually Barbara got accepted into Bennett College a predominately black all girls school though she left college after her junior year to marry her high school sweetheart Then while pregnant she discovered that her husband was gay and had a lover living next door Spanning many decades this personal narrative shares an account of the everyday life struggles of a black woman and shows her determination to live a life different from those of her ancestors
