

Graded Reading II Personal Survey of Immigration and Ethnicity

Week 8, part 1 of 2

Exercise 1 Read the text and write down the main ideas in your own words.

1 The text describes the history of immigration to the United States. It starts with the first immigrants, the Pilgrims, who came to the country in 1620. It then goes on to describe the waves of immigration that followed, from the 18th to the 20th century.

- a. The Pilgrims came to the United States in 1620.
- b. The first wave of immigration was from Europe.
- c. The second wave of immigration was from Asia.
- d. The third wave of immigration was from Latin America.
- e. The fourth wave of immigration was from Africa.
- f. The fifth wave of immigration was from the Middle East.
- g. The sixth wave of immigration was from the Caribbean.
- h. The seventh wave of immigration was from the Pacific Islands.
- i. The eighth wave of immigration was from the Soviet Union.
- j. The ninth wave of immigration was from the Balkans.
- k. The tenth wave of immigration was from the Eastern European countries.

2 The text also discusses the reasons for immigration. It mentions that people come to the United States for a variety of reasons, including economic, political, and social factors.

- a. Economic factors: people come to the United States to find better job opportunities and a higher standard of living.
- b. Political factors: people come to the United States to escape persecution, war, or political oppression in their home countries.
- c. Social factors: people come to the United States to join family members who have already immigrated.
- d. Religious factors: people come to the United States to practice their religion more freely.
- e. Educational factors: people come to the United States to receive a better education.
- f. Health factors: people come to the United States to escape disease or poor living conditions in their home countries.
- g. Environmental factors: people come to the United States to escape natural disasters or environmental degradation in their home countries.
- h. Cultural factors: people come to the United States to experience a different culture and way of life.
- i. Personal factors: people come to the United States to start a new life and pursue their dreams.
- j. Family factors: people come to the United States to join family members who have already immigrated.
- k. Marriage factors: people come to the United States to marry someone who is already a resident or citizen.
- l. Citizenship factors: people come to the United States to become citizens and enjoy the rights and benefits of citizenship.

3 The text also discusses the impact of immigration on the United States. It mentions that immigration has played a significant role in the development of the country, contributing to its economic growth, cultural diversity, and social progress.

- a. Economic impact: immigration has contributed to the growth of the U.S. economy by providing a source of labor and increasing the country's productivity.
- b. Cultural impact: immigration has enriched the U.S. culture by introducing new traditions, customs, and languages.
- c. Social impact: immigration has helped to diversify the U.S. population and create a more inclusive society.
- d. Political impact: immigration has influenced the U.S. political system by shaping public opinion and policy on issues related to immigration.
- e. Environmental impact: immigration has contributed to the growth of the U.S. population, which has led to increased demand for natural resources and environmental degradation.
- f. Health impact: immigration has helped to improve the health of the U.S. population by introducing new medical practices and technologies.
- g. Educational impact: immigration has helped to improve the education system in the United States by introducing new teaching methods and curricula.
- h. Religious impact: immigration has helped to increase the religious diversity of the United States by introducing new faiths and practices.
- i. Personal impact: immigration has helped to improve the lives of many individuals by providing them with better opportunities and a higher standard of living.
- j. Family impact: immigration has helped to strengthen family ties and create a sense of community among immigrants and their families.
- k. Citizenship impact: immigration has helped to increase the number of citizens in the United States, which has strengthened the country's political and social fabric.
- l. Marriage impact: immigration has helped to create new families and strengthen existing ones by providing a source of love and support.
- m. Citizenship impact: immigration has helped to create a more diverse and inclusive citizenry, which has strengthened the country's democratic values.
- n. Marriage impact: immigration has helped to create a more diverse and inclusive marriage market, which has strengthened the country's family values.
- o. Citizenship impact: immigration has helped to create a more diverse and inclusive citizenry, which has strengthened the country's democratic values.
- p. Marriage impact: immigration has helped to create a more diverse and inclusive marriage market, which has strengthened the country's family values.
